AMUSEMENTS

BRILLIG—Eleventh and Morrison. "Bird of Paradise."
LACKER—Broadway and Morrison. "The Grain of Dust."
LYRIC—Fourth and Stark. Keating & Flood Musical Comedy company in "Lost and Found."

Weather Conditions.
Portland and vicinity—Probably fair tonight and Saturday; easterly winds.

Civil Service Examination.—The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on December 10, 1913, the following examination will be held in this city: Laboratory aid, male, for position in the bureau of mines, Pittsburg, Pa., from $600 to $950 per annum.

Interesting to Sportsmen.—Of more than ordinary interest is the November issue of the Oregon Sportsman, now in the third month of publication. It is published under the direction of William L. Finley, state game warden, and includes in its columns articles of interest to hunters and fishermen of the state.

New Hardwood Company.—To deal in imported hardwoods the Portland Mexican Hardwood company, capitalized at $150,000, has been incorporated by David M. Dunne, Frank C. Barnes and Holt C. Wilson.

Lecture at Y. M. C. A.—"The Voice From the Home" is the subject of a lecture to be delivered by Professor Norman F. Coleman of Reed college in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock.

Special Wine Sale, Friday, Saturday and Monday, $2 Port, Sherry, Muscat, Tokay, Angelica wine at $1.25 a gallon; $1.50 wines at $1 a gallon; $1 wines at 80c gallon.

Quorum was Lacking.—Lacking a quorum made necessary by the constitution for the transacting of business, the annual meeting of the Greater Portland Plans association, called for Wednesday night, was adjourned until the evening of December 3, when an annual dinner will probably be held.

Illustrated Lecture.—"The City's Money," a lecture illustrated by lantern slides, will be given this evening before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. It is the second lecture in the Reed college series, "The Voter and the City of Portland."

At the New Grand Theatre, 145 Sixth street, "On the Trail of the Spider Gang," a sensational detective story, filled with thrilling and stirring adventures and escapes; also roaring Keystone comedy. A 10c show for 5c. (Adv.)

Three Per Cent Tax.—A tax of $53.66 will be paid by Mary Tyron, a daughter-in-law of Edmund Tyron, on a bequest of $1788.72 she received from his estate. A three per cent tax is required in a case of that degree of relationship.

Bridge Lights Reduced.—Many lights on the bridges across the Willamette river have been cut out by Superintendent of Bridges Murnane in his efforts to save the county expense. On the Broadway bridge one light now does the work of two in former days, and numbers of lights on other bridges do not shine forth now. Murnane recommends that an electrical expert be hired by the county to look over the bridge lights and dynamo and the lights and dynamo of the courthouse.

Oregon Meats for the Oregon People.—Get it at Frank L. Smith's. Pass up the Beef Trust's Australian meats. Smith's prices are:
Boiled beef, 15-11c. Sirloin steak, 20c.
Ribs beef, 15-15c. Round steak, 20c.

Hams, choice, 20c. Eggs, 35c dozen.
Butter, 32 1/2c. Cheese, 10c.
Bacon, 20-25c.

Fire Proved Serious.—James Patterson was yesterday appointed receiver of the Bishop Printing company by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh on petition of R. C. Bishop. Bishop alleged that the firm became deeply involved in debt as the result of a fire in the plant at 83 Fifth street last August. The assets are placed at $14,282.18 and the liabilities at $7532.97. The receiver furnished $7500 bonds.

Estate Goes to Relatives.—Leaving no immediate family, John A. Sloan, who died November 16, bequeathed his estate, valued at $24,000, to his nephews and nieces, John S. Kingsley, Edward E. Kingsley, Harry J. Kingsley, Kate Kingsley and Carra Kingsley. A petition for the probate of the estate was filed yesterday.

Rosarians Meet Monday.—A general meeting of Royal Rosarians has been called for Monday at noon in the Commercial club ladies dining room. Among other matters to be considered is the sending of a Portland delegation to the Pasadena tournament of roses, January 1.

Civil Engineers to Meet.—A meeting of the Portland Association of Members of the American Society of Civil Engineers will be held at the Commercial club Monday, November 24, at 6 p. m., at which time the question of "Quantity Surveys" will be discussed.

Services at Ahaval Shalom.—Services will be held at Congregational Ahaval Shalom, Park and Clay streets, tonight, at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow morning services at 9:30 o'clock. Rabbi R. Abrahamson will officiate.

Music in Public Schools.—Gilbert school has added a course in music, with eight lessons given monthly in each room by Professor Gerritsen, who also teaches music in the Linnton schools.

A Strictly Modern River Front Home for $1000, less than its actual value. Half cash. This is a bargain as an investment or for a home. Own 712 Dekum building. (Adv.)

Japanese Prints and stencils are always appreciated as Christmas presents. We have an exceptionally fine assortment. Art, Craft and Curio Shop, 404 Morrison.

White Temple this evening, Fannie Harley in Old Mexico. Finest collection stereopticon slides in America. Admission 25 cents. (Adv.)

Divorce Not Granted.—Frank Glaub, a carpenter at St. Johns, was placed on probation for several months yesterday by Circuit Judge Davis, who refused a divorce to either Glaub or his wife, Frene Glaub. It was shown that Glaub is a good workman and good to his family when sober but that drink has caused the family difficulties. He promised to quit drinking intoxicants. Mrs. Glaub charged cruelty in her complaint and Glaub charged desertion. They were married in Stevens Point, Wis., September 12, 1902. They have three children.

Foreign Languages Taught.—The Portland Young Men's Christian Association is going to open three of its educational classes to women. The classes to which women are to be admitted are for the study of modern languages, French, Spanish and German and the studies to be opened to women. Each class meets twice a week. The French class, in charge of Dr. V. B. de Lorr, meets on Monday and Thursday evenings, as does the Spanish class, which is taught by A. R. Vejar. The German class is instructed by John Purcell. It meets Tuesday and Friday evenings.

Will Explain Amendment.—Commissioner Robert Y. Diech will address the Tabor Heights Improvement association at its regular meeting tonight. He will explain the proposed amendment to the charter for bonding property for street improvements. He will also outline the work that comes within his department and the proposed improvements for the coming year. The completion of the Stark street sewer and the laying of laterals will also be touched on. The meeting will be held at 1775 Belmont street.
