

FLIGHT IN A TRUNK TO HOME OF FRIEND DOES NOT SAVE DON ZELAYA

Nicaraguan Arrested in N. Y. by Federal Officers for Murderers in His Own Country.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Nov. 27.—Ex-President Zelaya of Nicaragua engaged counsel today to fight extradition to his native country, where he is wanted on charges of murdering Leonard Grace and Leroy Cannon, two Americans killed there during one of the political disturbances which marked the Zelaya regime. He was arrested here last night.
The police found the former dictator in the Halsworth apartments, whither he had been carried hidden in a trunk. They locked him in a cell in the Greenwich police station, from which he was making strenuous efforts to gain his release on bail.
He was much terrified at the idea of being sent home and it was agreed by men familiar with conditions there that for the government to do so unquestionably will be to send him to his death.
The warrant on which the ex-dictator was arrested mentioned as his alleged victims the names, not of Grace and Cannon, but of two Nicaraguans, Domingo Teribio and Sixto Pineda. It was explained, however, that the Nicaraguans' names were used instead of the Americans' on account of some not very clearly explained technicality in the extradition treaty, as a result of which it was believed the former would be the more convenient if not the only method of securing the fugitive's return to his own country.
It was for the Grace and Cannon killings, it was stated, that he really was wanted.
Though it was a holiday, it was believed a hearing would be arranged for him before United States Commissioner Shields this afternoon.
A message from Washington said the papers in the case had not yet reached the state department.

Deposed President Zelaya, wanted in his native land for murdering two Americans during uprising there, who was caught in New York yesterday.

GOVERNMENT WARNS OF PATENT MEDICINE TRICK

People Made to Believe They Are Getting Something for Nothing.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The Department of Agriculture, under the food and drugs act has recently been investigating a new trick of certain patent medicine and proprietary medicine vendors which it is believed is deceiving a large number of people into spending money for patent medicines under the impression that they are getting regular physicians' prescriptions given to them or her by a regular physician of unusual skill who will not allow his name to be used because of medical ethics. The advertisement states that the writer feels it to be a duty to communicate this invaluable recipe to humanity in order to save them from similar ills. The offer is then made to supply this prescription without charge to any one who will address a postcard to the advertiser.
People who do not stop to wonder who is to pay for the advertisement and the return postage and writing of the prescription are caught by this fraud and ask for the prescription. In due course a regular prescription is returned. This contains a number of ordinary ingredients and then under a technical name, will call for a large proportion of some patent medicine or proprietary drug. The recipient takes this to a drug store to be filled and the druggist finds that he has to buy some of this patent preparation in order to fill it. He, therefore, has to order a large package or bottle of it and to make a profit must charge the customer a good stiff price for filling the prescription. The customer, of course, gets what is in effect simply a patent medicine which, save that it bears a druggist's label and a prescription number, is the same as a patent medicine sold under the maker's own label and in the maker's own bottle.
The government cannot reach these people under either the food and drugs act or the postal laws, because the scheme is so planned as to evade government laws. The deception and misrepresentation appears in advertisements, circulars, letters, etc., separate from the package and the medicines are seldom sent through the mails. The best the department can do, therefore, is to warn the people to be particularly suspicious of those who spend money for advertising space, postage, and letter writing, seemingly out of their love for humanity. In all these cases there is a profit-making scheme back of the seeming philanthropy.

BRIDE IS AUTO VICTIM ON HER WEDDING EVE

Chicago, Nov. 27.—An automobile carrying a bridal party homeward after a pre-nuptial banquet, collided with a street car here early today, the prospective bride, Miss Norma Ahlstrand, was killed and 12 persons were injured, two seriously.
In another part of the city, about the same hour, a big touring car got beyond its driver's control, crashed partly through the wall of an apartment building, broke a gas main and filled the basement with gas, whereat there was an explosion and the building took fire. It was extinguished by the fire department.

IN FUTURE PRIVATE FORESTRY PROFITABLE

Government Owns Only One Fifth of Country's Entire Area.

Washington, Nov. 27.—After the remaining virgin timber of the United States is exhausted, forest supplies will have to come from national forests, state forests, or from privately-owned lands; but federal and state forests, according to E. A. Sterling, director of the American Forestry association, constitute only one-fifth of the total forest area of the country.
"On private lands," he says, "the timber of the future will be either such growth which has sprung up voluntarily on cut-over land and has managed to escape fire, or that from areas which have been devoted to forest production as a business enterprise. So far the practice of private forestry has been mainly confined to small operations, often more for pleasure than for profit. An intensive forest policy on a scale large enough to establish its commercial feasibility has not yet been undertaken."
"Private forestry in the United States has been retarded by many influences among which the more important are large stored-up timber supplies, comparatively low stumpage and lumber values, lack of market for many minor forest products, and a public sentiment which has not realized that forest production is essentially the growing of successive crops."
"Present tendencies in private forestry indicate a more logical development than at any time since forest conservation became an issue. Instead of attempting to put immediately into effect complete policies and an intensive management which are scientifically correct, the things now being attempted are the logical steps which will ultimately lead to systematic, long-time management of private forest lands. The private owner is learning that fire protection is possible and that it pays. With this fact established, other things will be taken up and worked out until the progressive timberland owner will find that he is practicing the kind of forestry which pays in this country."
"In a word, private forestry, as it can be properly practiced in the United States today, is not the intensive forestry of Germany, but the application of protective and close utilization measures with provisions for natural regeneration. These principles, applied as economic conditions permit, will build up the art and practice of forestry in America."

WEST SALEM ALSO IS A "DRY" TOWN

Salem, Or., Nov. 27.—By vote of 68 to 4 West Salem voted to incorporate yesterday and adopted a "dry" charter. This is of much interest to Salem, as it has been reported that if Salem went dry the saloon men would establish saloons in West Salem, which is just across the Willamette from Salem.

LOSSES AND GAINS ALTERNATE IN OFFICE OF THE COUNTY CLERK

Recording of Instruments Decrease; Business in Other Departments Advances.

Some rather odd changes in statistics of the county clerk's office have been noted by Deputy County Clerk Erkinis for the 10 months just past in comparison with the same 10 months of 1912 and for October with the same month last year. Litigation, fishing and hunting licenses and other luxuries show increases while recording of instruments dropped 2137 in number and $504.83 in receipts during the 10 months of this year.
During the 1913 period a total of $84,220.46 was taken in and during the 1912 period the receipts were $84,490.45, or a loss of $278.99 for the 1913 period. The losses during the last 10 months were: Recording, $504.83; miscellaneous fees, $742.49, and probate fees, $211.15. Circuit court fees increased $2011.20. In addition County Clerk Coffey has turned into the treasury fees and interest which had never been done before, as follows: Interest on daily balances, $1788.54; petitions for citizenship, $1266, and declarations of intention, $453.50. The total figures which Mr. Coffey might have kept but did not amount to $3508.28, and this served to reduce the loss to the county from other sources.
Figures showing the relative increases and decreases during the months of October, 1912 and 1913, and during the first 10 months of 1913 and of 1912 in some instances are as follows:
Department, Oct. 1912, Oct. 1913, 10 mos. 1912, 10 mos. 1913
Anglers' licenses 475 206 10,892 9,268
Circuit court cases 412 332 3,295 3,294
Divorces 88 68 475 513
Incorporations 27 44 479 511
Hunters' licenses 2603 1481 7,781 5,139
Insane commitments 24 22 216 276
Instruments recorded 2068 3212 30,460 33,597
Marriage licenses 205 333 2,398 2,981
Nurses' certificates 40 4 117 63
Petitions for citizenship 23 22 657 313
Declarations of intention 113 95 923 1,016
Probate cases 88 74 678 739
In the marriage license record must be considered the fact that the new medical examination law became effective last June and the number issued has decreased since that time.

ATLANTIC CITY MAYOR PROVES A PESSIMIST

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 27.—Mayor William Riddle today refused to issue a Thanksgiving proclamation.
"There are too many people with nothing to be thankful for," he said. "It would be foolish to issue a Thanksgiving proclamation this year."
