

RIVERS' ARM RAISED BY REFEREE AFTER A HARD GO WITH CROSS

Mexican Reestablishes Himself With Angel Fight Fans After Showing Old Skill.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 25.—Joe Rivers has regained at least a portion of his former prestige in his home town today by virtue of his decisive defeat of Loach Cross of New York in their Thanksgiving day meeting in the Vernon arena. Rivers won a clean cut victory, taking 16 of the 20 rounds by actually fighting all the way after coming into the ring in as good condition as his supporters could wish.

The Mexican received a few feeble cheers when he entered the arena. He departed with 999 fans noisily proclaiming his "come back."

Rivers sent Cross to the mat twice during the fight. In the fourth round the New Yorker was forced to take the count, and again in the twelfth he went down from a right and left to the jaw. Rivers, however, was unable to put his man away, although after the battle he claimed that a thumb sprained in the early rounds prevented him from doing more effective work.

Beaten in almost every round and standing up gamely under terrific punishment, Cross made his final rally in the nineteenth session. He met Rivers as the Mexican came from his corner with a volley of lefts and rights to the head that forced Joe to cover. Back and forth across the ring Cross forced the astounded Rivers, who wrapped his gloves about his head and shook under the hail of blows about his ears. It was Leach's round by a big margin.

Cross had made his last stand in this period, however, and quickly was forced back on the defensive in the last round. Rivers' finish was strong, and the bell was a welcome sound to the harried New Yorker. Referee Blake gave the only possible decision when he raised Rivers' arm.

Cross Said He Was Stale.

Cross offered little excuse for his defeat beyond declaring that he was a trifle stale as the result of his training for his Ritchie fight in New York, and from the effects of that vicious battle. He asked another match with his conqueror.

Rivers promptly set up a demand for another match with Champion Ritchie. Promoter McCarey promised him such a match on New Year's day if the champion can be brought to accept terms.

Dundee Beats White.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 25.—Johnny Dundee won a ten round decision over Charley White of Chicago here last evening. Dundee had the best of every round but one, which was even. The fight was in the theatre, where the match was staged over for 24 minutes between the second and third rounds.

Silverton Beats Salem.

Silverton, Or., Nov. 25.—In the first basketball game of the season, the local quintet defeated the Salem five by the score of 36 to 12.
