

In the eastern markets at this time almost every large manufacturer was possessed of a quantity of "broken lines"—the remnants of a great season's business. No one line or maker's surplus was individually large, but the aggregate of all we obtained runs into thousands.

This store's buyers searched the entire industry for the means enabling us to introduce to Portland the most remarkable sale in the city's history. Nowhere west of Chicago has a sale of this magnitude been attempted—this is positively the FIRST TIME legitimate offerings of makers' surplus stocks have ever been made in any considerable quantities in the West.

Portland's Greatest Sale

Combined under the one roof are three great surplus stocks from three of this country's most noted makers, including Kuppenheimer Clothes. With these are many Travelers' Samples, which as everyone knows, are finest examples of any maker's product. Altogether about 1500 garments, suits, overcoats, raincoats, divided into

3 Immense Lots 3

A Chicago maker's complete surplus, both Suits and Overcoats. Box back, English and Semi-English models, two and three-button single and double-breasted. Serges (including plain blues), worsteds (two-tone and chalk, pencil and club checks, double diagonals), belt back, "guard," plaid-lined hockanum, cheviot, vicuna Overcoats, in blues, browns, grays, blacks and mixtures. All regularly $30 and $35 merchandise. Choice of the lot

$22.75

Another famous maker's surplus—very large lot. Suits are excellently tailored of pure wool, double pre-shrunk domestics. In conservative two and three-button models, also variety of soft roll-collar and body-tracing models. These suits are indeed fine goods. Overcoats also included. Three exclusive creations in chinchillas, moto-friezes and Huddersfield worsteds. These are all regularly $25 goods. Choice of the lot $18.75

In Lot Three are probably the most remarkable values ever offered by a reliable clothier. These Suits and Overcoats are fully worth $20. Products of a famous house and obtainable now at far less than regular wholesale. Varieties are very numerous in both Suits and Overcoats, all styles and all sizes. The largest single surplus we've ever obtained. Choice of the lot for only $14.75

Early attendance is essential inasmuch as these values cannot remain unnoticed by a discriminating public. The stocks cannot be replenished and the quantities are not large. In order to avoid possible disappointment we suggest tomorrow morning as a SURE time to get your share of these extraordinary bargains!

Truly a Christmas Gift Opportunity Worth While

Lion Clothing Company

GUS KUHN, President

Fourth Street, Corner of Morrison

The Steinbach Store

Copyright 1913
The House of Kuppenheimer

We Give L.M. Green Trading Stamps