

STOCK EXPOSITION OPENS WITH VERY FINE DISPLAY OF ANIMALS

Entries Numbering 810 Represent All Classes; Visitors Are Numerous.

Thousands of visitors found their way to the tents adjacent to the Union Stock yards at North Portland today, where the Pacific International Livestock Exposition opened this morning with exactly 810 entries in all classes.

While the judges felt bovine shanks and rubbed well-covered Guernsey ribs, moving picture cameras were clicking, the resulting reels to be shown at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco in 1915.

One of the features of the show is "Peter Pan," the $10,000 Ayshire bull owned by J. W. Clise of Seattle.

HELPLESS IN HIGH SEA; PROPELLER DAMAGED

Steamship Victoria Has Narrow Escape Off Coronado Islands.

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 8.—Rolling for 22 hours helpless in the trough of the sea, her propeller badly damaged and at the mercy of wind and tide, the Mexican steamship Victoria, which left Ensenada Saturday night at 8 o'clock had a narrow escape from disaster Sunday near the Coronado Islands and arrived here today 24 hours late.

High seas, breaking the rudder chain and causing the rudder to swing around and the propeller, caused the accident.

Purser Le Moine, after going ashore in a lifeboat, walked 15 miles for help. The Victoria was towed into this port today by a launch. It was the opinion of the waterfront that the only thing that saved the vessel from drifting away from her light anchor and pounding to pieces against the beach, was the fact that the high wind, generally present in that locality, was lacking.

MRS. AMELIA QUIMBY DIED AT NOON TODAY

Wife of Well Known Hotel Man Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia.

Mrs. Amelia Quimby, a member of one of the first pioneer families of Oregon and wife of L. P. W. Quimby, formerly owner of the old Quimby house at Fourth and Davis streets, died at noon today in the family home, 54 1/2 North Fifth street, from pneumonia.

She had been ill only a few days, although her condition had been poorly for the last two months.

When the end came, husband, three daughters and two sons were at the bedside. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon from the Holman Undertaking parlors and interment will be in the family plot in Lone Fir cemetery.

Mrs. Quimby was 67 years and 8 months old. She was a daughter of Whiting G. West, who established the first pony express out of Portland in the early fifties.

She was born at Hardwick, N. Y., April 15, 1846, and came to Portland with her parents in 1856, and made this city her residence continuously since then. She became the wife of Mr. Quimby May 31, 1866.

The widow, five children and a grandchild survive her. Her three daughters are Mrs. L. Q. Swetland of Portland, Mrs. H. Taylor of Wenatchee, Wash., and Mrs. Webster of Alaska.

Her sons, Elmer and Dan, both of this city.

CARRANZA SAID TO BE TREATING WITH HUERTA FOR PEACE

had surrounded Ojinaca, on the border, and were about to attack it.

Villa's Food Price Mandate

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 8.—General Villa today issued a mandate for food prices which dealers were ordered not to exceed. If they did so, he said he would confiscate their stocks and himself distribute them to the needy.

The price schedule varied somewhat with localities. At Juarez and most other places throughout rebel controlled northern Mexico, Villa tried to put them on the basis "usual in times of peace." At Chihuahua City, however, he said provisions must be sold at cost until the reestablishment of railroad communication relieves the present desperate situation.

El Paso was puzzled to account for the failure of the bulk of the federal expedition which fled Chihuahua City, to reach Presidio Viejo.

A small detachment, said to be guarding the treasure taken from the town, reached the border late last week, but most of the refugees were still some where in the desert. Traveling even at a snail's pace, they should have arrived at their destination by today.

One account was that General Mercurio, the federal general in charge of the party, was holding the terribly suffering noncombatants as hostages. Another story was that, having safely disposed of the treasure, he was going back to try conclusions with Villa.

Both versions were mere conjecture. It was rumored that the rebels had captured Yucatlitas, Tepic, but it lacked verification.

PASTOR SCORES TANGO DANCE DECLARING IT HAS A BAD TENDENCY

are being taught how to dance in the Washington high school by an instructor employed by the school board. High school pupils are being taught "folk dances" including the tango by this same instructor," were statements made by Rev. William H. Fry, chairman of a special committee to investigate dancing in the public schools.

Dr. E. K. E. took a fling at the 23 mills school board at the public meeting two weeks ago. "We are going to lose our homes if this extravagance keeps," said he. "I am going to write to the mayor offering to deed my home to the city and promising to pay the remainder of my taxes when I die."

Dr. Benjamin Young again reminded the members of the association that they had a big fight on in combatting the new law permitting private and parochial schools to have text books at public expense.

Dr. E. K. E. took issue with Dr. Young on his interpretation of the free text book law, saying that he had a letter from the attorney general construing the law to apply only to public schools.

The order of the day, a debate on "Oregon Dry in 1914," between Rev. Fletcher Homar and Dr. Young, was passed in order that the association might hear from Bishop Cooke, who recently returned from a prolonged official eastern trip.

POSTPONE ARGUMENT ON CARFARE MEASURE

Argument on the injunction suit of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company against the city to restrain its officials from enforcing the ordinance requiring the sale of six streetcar tickets for 25 cents, was postponed until Monday.

The temporary injunction granted the street railway company in this action last Monday was extended to cover the postponement on the hearing to show cause why the permanent injunction should not issue.

Deputy City Attorney Henry M. Tomlinson appeared for the city and stated that his office had not yet had time to prepare an answer, but that he was ready to make an argument. Tomlinson said the city was anxious to have the matter heard, as it is of public moment.

Frederick V. Holman and Harrison Allen appeared for the street railway company.

May Not Be Prosecuted

Charles E. McCarthy, wanted here for some time for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, is under arrest at Sacramento, Cal., but will probably not be returned to face the charge, as there now seems no disposition to prosecute. The McCarthy escapade occurred about a year ago. He is alleged to have enticed a 10-year-old girl to his home on East Ninth street.

27 MILLS LIKELY TO REMAIN AS THE TAX LEVY OF MULTNOMAH

Figures Given Out by Board of County Commissioners Today.

Unless some improbable change is made by the county commissioners this afternoon the levy for Portland will stand at 27 mills for the coming year. This levy has been practically decided upon and only the county court, high school and road levies are subject to change.

The levy, according to the present indications, with the amounts which will be raised in taxes, will be divided as follows: State schools, 4.50; County high school, 1.75; County roads, 1.80; Library, .45; Portland city, 1.85; City of Portland, 2.7 mills; School district No. 1, 7.5 mills. The tax roll has not been divided as yet to show the property taxable in these districts and a recapitulation to determine the amounts in these districts is now in progress.

Road Levy 1.8 Mills

As proposed the road levy will be 1.8 mills instead of the 2 mills recommended by a delegation of taxpayers recently. This levy will provide $614,831.43 in taxes for road work in addition to approximately $150,000 which will be left from this year's funds on December 31. The large levy for road work is made that the main county roads may be hard surfaced before the 1915 exposition in San Francisco brings tourists to Portland.

The commissioners cut 65 of a mill from the county levy and added 15 of a mill for the county high school fund. This latter fund will amount to $61,235.95, it is figured, and will provide funds for 3747 boys and girls of high school age in 13 school districts.

School Figures Given

The law providing for a county high school fund was adopted by the people of Multnomah county on November 5, 1912. It provides for the payment of $40 for each of the first 20 pupils to a district for the purpose of establishing a high school; $30 for the next 20 pupils and $12.50 for all additional pupils.

Reports from various school districts giving the number of pupils and the amounts to be raised for each are as follows:

Table with 3 columns: District Name, Pupils, Amount. Includes Portland, St. Johns, Gresham, Troutdale, Powell Valley, Rockwood, Linnton, Gilbert, and Joint.

Two Cuts Made

This fund, in addition to being used to provide a high school for any district, may also be drawn upon for sending pupils of one district to the school of another district, provided the pupils reside in a district in which no high school is located.

In accordance with the law requiring a public meeting for the purpose of lowering the taxpayers an opportunity to discuss and object to the levy if any objection is desired the county commissioners have set December 30 at 10 o'clock as the date and hour of the meeting required.

Two cuts in state levies added in bringing the total from the 27.7 mills which was considered probable to the 27 mills exact. From the state levy 0.4 of a mill was dropped, and from the state school levy 0.2 of a mill was taken. The total reduction from the former figures was .56 of a mill, and the addition was .15 of a mill. The total assessment roll for Multnomah county is $341,573,119.76.

PENILESS THROUGH EFFORTS TO AID SON

Chicago, Dec. 8.—Peniless, through efforts to help his son, E. E. C. Von Klein, accused in Portland, Or., of jewel stealing, Dr. Carl Von Klein, famous arboriculturist, was found here a charity patient at the county hospital.

The divorce suit filed against him in Minneapolis has tied up all of my property and stopped me from giving my son any assistance," said E. E. C. Von Klein in a cell this morning. "I have been helping them for some time but cannot do anything now. My father was once worth half a million dollars but had investments broke him. He once owned a factory where surgical instruments were invented by himself and manufactured. He did everything he could for me."

Circuit Judge Kavanaugh this morning ordered five letters taken from Louis Von Klein, his brother, after a visit to him in the county jail Friday night, and sent them to the grand jury. The letters are said to be in Von Klein's handwriting.

HANS SCHMIDT HORRID SIGHT IN COURT ROOM

Dirty and Unkempt Figure Is Unlike That of Priest When Arrested.

(United Press Special Wire.) New York, Dec. 8.—Hans Schmidt, unfrocked priest and confessed murderer and counterfeiter, went to trial today for the killing of his sweetheart, Anna Kuntler, a pretty German girl who had once worked in a rectory where Schmidt lived as curate. Only one question was at issue—was Schmidt sane or a lunatic? He admitted having killed the girl, dismembered her body and sunk her mangled corpse in the river.

He himself insisted he was sane and refused to consult with the attorney appointed for him by the court. With his pasty face, sunken eyes, thick stubble of beard, stouping figure and dirty, unkempt dress, the formerly immaculate young priest was a half terrifying and half pitiable sight.

Two hundred candidates for jury duty were in the court room. It was expected the empanelling of a jury would take a week.

ALASKA STEAMSHIP LINE PROVIDED IN BILL

Washington, Dec. 8.—Republican senators prevented the Democratic leaders today from postponing consideration of the Alaska government owned railroad bill.

When consideration of the measure was taken up, Senator Poindexter of Washington introduced a sub-bill. It provided for the establishment of government owned steamship lines connecting a government owned railroad with the big transportation systems. It also provided for the development of coal mines by the government and private capital.

CHIEF OF ENGINEERS SUBMITS ESTIMATES

Washington, Dec. 8.—In his report to the secretary of war, the chief of engineers makes estimates aggregating $41,483,935 to be applied to 261 river and harbor projects during the year ending June 30, 1914. This is $9,524,594 less than the amount appropriated by congress for river and harbor works for the fiscal year of 1914.

For the Mississippi river improvements, $9,000,000 is asked; for the Ohio river, over $8,000,000; for the Columbia and Missouri rivers, $2,000,000 each, and for the Delaware river, $1,000,000.

Estimates for Pacific coast states follow: Oregon—Coquille river, $49,000; entrance to Coos Bay and harbor, $50,000; Coos river, $300,000; Siuslaw river mouth, $500,000; Tillamook bay and bar, $207,000; Nehalem bar and entrance to bay, $116,175; Snake river, $100,000.

DELAYED MAIL TRAIN WILL ARRIVE TONIGHT

Postmaster Frank S. Myers this morning received a dispatch from the Rocky Mountain districts stating that a mail train had at last been gotten through for the establishment of government owned steamship lines connecting a government owned railroad with the big transportation systems. It also provided for the development of coal mines by the government and private capital.

Loaded, it is anticipated, from trucks to decks with a three day accumulation of mail, already swelled by the increasing Christmas business, this train, officially known as No. 2, is due at 9 o'clock tonight. This train is a solid mail train loaded exclusively with through matter from the middle west to the coast.

The one that will arrive tonight was due in Portland Saturday morning at 7 o'clock.

Anticipating a huge mass of stuff that will swamp the office for a time, the postmaster was making arrangements today to have a lot of extra men on hand to take care of the job, and if the train is not delayed into the small hours of the morning, he will be there himself.

ANNA HELD SELLS RED CROSS SEALS

Miss Anna Held, whose home is at 86 Faubourg St. Honore, Paris, but who comes to this country every year to direct the latest fashion shows and bewitch Americans with her cute accent, sold Red Cross seals at the Oregon hotel this noon for a solid hour and a quarter.

With a matinee staring her in the face she zealously sold the "timbres" as she would garb it Parisian, up to 1.30 o'clock. Despite the remonstrances of her manager, the pleas of her maid and the insistence of waiters she sold on and on. The lobby of the Oregon hotel was filled to capacity with Portlanders desirous of seeing the famous Parisienne at close range.

Not satisfied with results of the sale in the lobby Miss Held went to the grill where she successfully disposed of her stamps to every diner. Gracious, affable, she granted every request for autographs.

Miss Held sold $51 worth of the little seals.

NATIONAL GUARDS TO GATHER AT RED BLUFF

Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 8.—That mobilization of all the forces of the western division of the regular army and the members of the state national guards of all states comprising the division will take place at Red Bluff in the near future was indicated today when it was learned that Major General Arthur Murray, U. S. A., and Adjutant General Forbes of the California National Guard, had gone to that town to select a site for state armory.

It was denied at the office of the adjutant general that the move had any significance of immediate mobilization or that such was threatened. The western division comprises the states of Montana, Idaho, Utah, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and California.

SEATTLE WOMEN PLAN BOYCOTT ON EGGS

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 8.—At a mass meeting of Seattle housewives called by the West Side Women's Improvement club in the Grand theatre here today, the Washington Cooperative association was formed to obtain the immediate lowering of egg prices to the consumer, to maintain or raise the prices to the producer and to secure remedial legislation on food prices.

When the women at the mass meeting resolved themselves into this organization they individually pledged themselves to abstain from the use of cold storage eggs at a price higher than 30 cents a dozen, and fresh eggs at a price higher than 45 cents.

Five or six checks for $5 each, bearing the same signatures, have been cashed recently, and the police have been on the lookout for the forger.

YOU ARE 22 CENTS RICHER THIS YEAR

Report of Nation's Finances Indicates That General Populace Prospers.

Washington, Dec. 8.—In circulation throughout the country and held in reserve in the federal treasury here is $3,729,070,616, according to the annual report of the comptroller of the currency, made public today. This sum would permit of a per capita dividend of $34.56, which is 22 cents greater than the per capita amount of circulating medium a year ago.

Of this total amount, $265,331,567 is held in reserve of the $3,363,738,149 in actual circulation, 46.2 per cent is included in assets of national and state banks, thus leaving 53.8 per cent now in custody of the general public.

The total amount, after deducting the present treasury reserve, the United States government owned at the close of the last fiscal year, June 30, 1,028,344,655, of which all but about $63,000,000 bears 2 per cent interest.

The report states that because of recent competition for deposits by all banking organizations 45 per cent of the national banks now pay interest on savings accounts. In this connection the report further said that the number of savings accounts on August 9, 1913, was 3,920,831, an increase of a quarter of a million in six months.

American exports for the year totalled $2,465,884,149, and imports $1,812,978,235. This showed a total foreign trade of $4,278,862,383, and an excess of exports over imports of $662,905,915.

WILL FILE SUIT TODAY TO REPLEVIN NOTES

(Salem Bureau of the Journal.) Salem, Or., Dec. 8.—Suits to replevin $800 state school fund notes from State Treasurer Kay will be filed today by District Attorney Ringo in behalf of the state land board. The notes aggregate over $8,000,000.

Ringo alleges that the notes are illegally held by the state treasurer, as the law requires them to be in the custody of the state land board. He sets forth that George Brown, clerk of the board, made application for the notes to the state treasurer, who refused to deliver them to him.

This suit was brought by order of the state land board. "Treasurer Kay holds that he is the legal custodian of the notes, as they have been kept in the treasurer's office for many years, and that his bond covers them."

HETCH HETCHY WATER FOR BAY CITY IN 5 YRS.

Engineer O'Shaughnessy, Who Makes Prediction, May Head Commission.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Dec. 8.—All San Francisco awaited today the actual signing by President Wilson of the Hetch Hetchy bill which passed the senate late Saturday night by a vote of 43 to 25. Plans already have started for a demonstration here when the flash from Washington tells that the president's signature has made the bill a law.

"We will have the system built and Hetch Hetchy water flowing into San Francisco within five years," was the promise today of City Engineer O'Shaughnessy.

The bill gives the city the right to build a dam across the mouth of the Hetch Hetchy valley which will provide a reservoir to hold 254
