

TOWN TOPICS

AMUSEMENTS

HELIX—Eleventh and Morrison. Dark. BAKER—Broadway and Morrison. "Shore Acres." LYRIC—Fourth and Stark. Keating & Flood Musical Comedy Company. "The Suffragette."

Weather Conditions. Portland and vicinity—Sunday fair. Easterly winds. Oregon and Washington—Sunday generally fair. Lightly winds.

Fraternal Societies Elect.—Election of officers for the ensuing year have recently occupied the attention of the Beaverton branches of fraternal societies.

Mackenzie Funeral Tomorrow.—Funeral services for Nell Mackenzie, who died suddenly Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. M. West, at Knappa, Or., will be held from Dunning & McEntee's chapel at 1 p. m. tomorrow.

Sam Weinstein President.—At the semi-annual meeting of the Jewish Young Men's and Young Women's association held last Thursday at Gevurtz hall, the following officers were elected:

Wisconsin Society Meeting.—About 200 members of the Wisconsin society were present at the regular monthly meeting of the organization last week.

Gets Divorce and Alimony.—Charley M. Hubner was granted a divorce, $500 alimony in cash, $30 a month for 32 months, beginning March 1, 1914, and $40 a month thereafter.

Allowed $250 Damages.—Damages in the amount of $250 were allowed Alma Berglund against the Portland, Light & Power company by a jury in Circuit Judge Cleeton's court yesterday.

Indiana Woman's Club.—The Indiana Woman's Improvement club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Josephine R. Sharp, 1032 East Twenty-fourth street north, next Tuesday evening. Mrs. Christman's trade. It brought $1.30 a pound, live weight. It is now hanging in front of Smith's market, 228 Alder street.

Some Fine Ice Inflated.—After appealing to the circuit court from a $50 fine imposed in the municipal court for speeding on Hawthorne avenue, N. Metzger pleaded guilty to the charge and the same fine was imposed by Circuit Judge Cleeton yesterday.

History of Columbia Bar.—The history of the Columbia river bar is a feature of the Chamber of Commerce Bulletin for December which has just been issued.

Will Gentlemen Having Transfer from Beaumont to Sixty-first street car at time of accident to elderly gentleman, about 6 o'clock Friday evening.

Auto Speeders Fined.—Lehency and severity were both shown yesterday by District Judge Jones in two automobile speed trials.

Chiropractic Today is Firmly Established as the only science which adjusts the cause of disease, and a competitor for the medical profession.

Closing Out Sale Below Cost.—We are going out of the gent's furnishing goods business. Note these prices: $1.50 and $2.00 shirts, 95c; Arrow Collars, $1.10 dozen; 25 cent Ties, 14 cents; $1.25 Ties, 25 cents; $5.00 Vests, $1.85; $2.00 Vests, 50 cents; 25 cent Arm Bands, 10 cents; 50 cent Sox, 19 cents; 50 and 75 cent Ties, 33 cents; $1.00 Ties, 60 cents; $20.00 Raincoats, $5.00; $1.75 Kid Gloves, $2.00; $2.00 Gloves, $1.00.

In Honor of Brides-elect.—A dainty luncheon served yesterday in the recording room of County Clerk Coffey's office was given in honor of two members of the staff who will leave the office next week to become brides.

Swiss Watch Repairing. L. H. Miller, 407 Selling bldg. (Adv.)

Wooster Sells Everything.—28 Wash. (Adv.)

County Cuts Bridge Carpenters' Wages.—Cuts in the wages of bridge carpenters to the scale in effect before an increase was allowed last September were made by the county commissioners yesterday.

Motion for New Trial Filed.—Motions for a stay of sentence and a new trial are asked for George Zerk, convicted Thursday of criminal attack on his daughter and sentenced yesterday to 20 years to life imprisonment in the penitentiary by Circuit Judge McGinn. The motions will be argued on a Judge McGinn's return from California next month.

The White Cross.—An institution for the treatment of drug and liquor cases only. Morphine addicts treated without pain or suffering. All desire for liquor removed. Investigation solicited. 714 Davis st., cor. 22nd. Phone Main 4221, or A-1447. Dr. R. L. Gillespie, Medical Director. (Adv.)

A Baby Grand Piano.—For Christmas: $10 cash and $10 monthly. Secures a new $650 one at $425. Groves Music Co., Belmont, 111 Fourth st. (Adv.)

That Good Cook. Edlefsen, 262 Stark. (Adv.)

Letters From the People

(Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender. If 50 per cent of the stay-at-homes had gone to the polls and voted, all the good measures would have been carried.

The Late City Election. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I would not wish to say anything further relating to the Journal's statement that the result of the recent city election indicated a conspiracy on the part of those who, in largest numbers, attended the polls, were it not for the fact that they were merely doing the logical thing that voters are supposed to do.

Champions Chamberlain's Cause. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—It furnishes a sad chapter in the history of Portland to witness the weird spectacle at the city hall in regard to Russell Chamberlain.

State's Duty to Unemployed. Portland, Dec. 20.—To the Editor of The Journal:—Some of the arguments made at Salem against Governor West's plan for relief of the unemployed do not do credit to progressive Oregon.

Newport Has Opened Summer Attractions during Christmas holidays. Salt-water swimming pool, casino dance hall, surf bath for men and women, Christmas and New Year's days. Good hotels. (Adv.)

A Real Xmas Gift.—Will be the subject of the sermon tonight at 7:45 at the Seventh Street Methodist church, corner E. Eleventh and Everett, by Pastor Milton H. St. John. (Adv.)

The Pioneer Campfire.—New book by Rev. G. W. Kennedy, pioneer of 1852. Anecdotes, adventures, etc. $1.10 post paid anywhere. The J. K. Gill company, Third and Alder streets. (Adv.)

Glebas Flowers, the real thing, at Mrs. Lincoln's Art Den, 405 1/2 Morrison st., 1/2 block above O. W. & K. China firing. Open every evening 9 p. m. The novelty art shop. (Adv.)

Editor Will Speak.—A. H. Harris, editor of the Portland Labor Press, will speak at the Congregational church at St. Johns tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. (Adv.)

Will Parties Witnessing accident to elderly gentleman on Beaumont ave. Friday evening, call at 400 E. 43d st. N., or phone Tabor 4187. (Adv.)

Holiday Trips.—Full information regarding train schedules cheerfully given by the Baggage Transfer Service Co., 63 Sixth st. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Steamer Jessie Harkins for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leave a Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Musical History Class.—The musical history class of the Monday Musical club, which was to have met Monday, has been postponed. (Adv.)

Two room suite in Journal building, suitable for doctor's quarters. Inquire at business office of Journal Publishing company. (Adv.)

Christmas Books.—McLoughlin and Old Oregon. "McDonald of Oregon." "The Conquest," at all bookstores. (Adv.)

Knight Coal.—A hard, hot, quick firing, long burning Utah coal. Albion Fuel Co., sole agents, E. 121, C-1117. Ad. (Adv.)

Genuine "Hair-O-Gin" Treatments are being given by Miss McLintosh at her parlors, 315 Panama bldg. (Adv.)

Hotel Lenox, 3rd and Main.—Best rates in city to permanent guests. Rooms $15 month and up. (Adv.)

One Suit Pressed Each Week.—$1.50 a month. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark Main 614. A-4214. (Adv.)

Baggage Transfer Service Co. Superior service—safety. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Home for Aged People, Invalids, fine location. Mount Tabor, Tabor 4159. (Adv.)

Swiss Watch Repairing. L. H. Miller, 407 Selling bldg. (Adv.)

Dr. Frederick A. Kiehl has returned. (Adv.)

Letters From the People

(Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender. If 50 per cent of the stay-at-homes had gone to the polls and voted, all the good measures would have been carried.

The Late City Election. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I would not wish to say anything further relating to the Journal's statement that the result of the recent city election indicated a conspiracy on the part of those who, in largest numbers, attended the polls, were it not for the fact that they were merely doing the logical thing that voters are supposed to do.

Champions Chamberlain's Cause. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—It furnishes a sad chapter in the history of Portland to witness the weird spectacle at the city hall in regard to Russell Chamberlain.

State's Duty to Unemployed. Portland, Dec. 20.—To the Editor of The Journal:—Some of the arguments made at Salem against Governor West's plan for relief of the unemployed do not do credit to progressive Oregon.

Newport Has Opened Summer Attractions during Christmas holidays. Salt-water swimming pool, casino dance hall, surf bath for men and women, Christmas and New Year's days. Good hotels. (Adv.)

A Real Xmas Gift.—Will be the subject of the sermon tonight at 7:45 at the Seventh Street Methodist church, corner E. Eleventh and Everett, by Pastor Milton H. St. John. (Adv.)

The Pioneer Campfire.—New book by Rev. G. W. Kennedy, pioneer of 1852. Anecdotes, adventures, etc. $1.10 post paid anywhere. The J. K. Gill company, Third and Alder streets. (Adv.)

Glebas Flowers, the real thing, at Mrs. Lincoln's Art Den, 405 1/2 Morrison st., 1/2 block above O. W. & K. China firing. Open every evening 9 p. m. The novelty art shop. (Adv.)

Editor Will Speak.—A. H. Harris, editor of the Portland Labor Press, will speak at the Congregational church at St. Johns tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. (Adv.)

Will Parties Witnessing accident to elderly gentleman on Beaumont ave. Friday evening, call at 400 E. 43d st. N., or phone Tabor 4187. (Adv.)

Holiday Trips.—Full information regarding train schedules cheerfully given by the Baggage Transfer Service Co., 63 Sixth st. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Steamer Jessie Harkins for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leave a Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Musical History Class.—The musical history class of the Monday Musical club, which was to have met Monday, has been postponed. (Adv.)

Two room suite in Journal building, suitable for doctor's quarters. Inquire at business office of Journal Publishing company. (Adv.)

Christmas Books.—McLoughlin and Old Oregon. "McDonald of Oregon." "The Conquest," at all bookstores. (Adv.)

Knight Coal.—A hard, hot, quick firing, long burning Utah coal. Albion Fuel Co., sole agents, E. 121, C-1117. Ad. (Adv.)

Genuine "Hair-O-Gin" Treatments are being given by Miss McLintosh at her parlors, 315 Panama bldg. (Adv.)

Hotel Lenox, 3rd and Main.—Best rates in city to permanent guests. Rooms $15 month and up. (Adv.)

One Suit Pressed Each Week.—$1.50 a month. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark Main 614. A-4214. (Adv.)

Baggage Transfer Service Co. Superior service—safety. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Home for Aged People, Invalids, fine location. Mount Tabor, Tabor 4159. (Adv.)

Swiss Watch Repairing. L. H. Miller, 407 Selling bldg. (Adv.)

Dr. Frederick A. Kiehl has returned. (Adv.)

Letters From the People

(Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender. If 50 per cent of the stay-at-homes had gone to the polls and voted, all the good measures would have been carried.

The Late City Election. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I would not wish to say anything further relating to the Journal's statement that the result of the recent city election indicated a conspiracy on the part of those who, in largest numbers, attended the polls, were it not for the fact that they were merely doing the logical thing that voters are supposed to do.

Champions Chamberlain's Cause. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—It furnishes a sad chapter in the history of Portland to witness the weird spectacle at the city hall in regard to Russell Chamberlain.

State's Duty to Unemployed. Portland, Dec. 20.—To the Editor of The Journal:—Some of the arguments made at Salem against Governor West's plan for relief of the unemployed do not do credit to progressive Oregon.

Newport Has Opened Summer Attractions during Christmas holidays. Salt-water swimming pool, casino dance hall, surf bath for men and women, Christmas and New Year's days. Good hotels. (Adv.)

A Real Xmas Gift.—Will be the subject of the sermon tonight at 7:45 at the Seventh Street Methodist church, corner E. Eleventh and Everett, by Pastor Milton H. St. John. (Adv.)

The Pioneer Campfire.—New book by Rev. G. W. Kennedy, pioneer of 1852. Anecdotes, adventures, etc. $1.10 post paid anywhere. The J. K. Gill company, Third and Alder streets. (Adv.)

Glebas Flowers, the real thing, at Mrs. Lincoln's Art Den, 405 1/2 Morrison st., 1/2 block above O. W. & K. China firing. Open every evening 9 p. m. The novelty art shop. (Adv.)

Editor Will Speak.—A. H. Harris, editor of the Portland Labor Press, will speak at the Congregational church at St. Johns tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. (Adv.)

Will Parties Witnessing accident to elderly gentleman on Beaumont ave. Friday evening, call at 400 E. 43d st. N., or phone Tabor 4187. (Adv.)

Holiday Trips.—Full information regarding train schedules cheerfully given by the Baggage Transfer Service Co., 63 Sixth st. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Steamer Jessie Harkins for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leave a Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Musical History Class.—The musical history class of the Monday Musical club, which was to have met Monday, has been postponed. (Adv.)

Two room suite in Journal building, suitable for doctor's quarters. Inquire at business office of Journal Publishing company. (Adv.)

Christmas Books.—McLoughlin and Old Oregon. "McDonald of Oregon." "The Conquest," at all bookstores. (Adv.)

Knight Coal.—A hard, hot, quick firing, long burning Utah coal. Albion Fuel Co., sole agents, E. 121, C-1117. Ad. (Adv.)

Genuine "Hair-O-Gin" Treatments are being given by Miss McLintosh at her parlors, 315 Panama bldg. (Adv.)

Hotel Lenox, 3rd and Main.—Best rates in city to permanent guests. Rooms $15 month and up. (Adv.)

One Suit Pressed Each Week.—$1.50 a month. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark Main 614. A-4214. (Adv.)

Baggage Transfer Service Co. Superior service—safety. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Home for Aged People, Invalids, fine location. Mount Tabor, Tabor 4159. (Adv.)

Swiss Watch Repairing. L. H. Miller, 407 Selling bldg. (Adv.)

Dr. Frederick A. Kiehl has returned. (Adv.)

Letters From the People

(Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender. If 50 per cent of the stay-at-homes had gone to the polls and voted, all the good measures would have been carried.

The Late City Election. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I would not wish to say anything further relating to the Journal's statement that the result of the recent city election indicated a conspiracy on the part of those who, in largest numbers, attended the polls, were it not for the fact that they were merely doing the logical thing that voters are supposed to do.

Champions Chamberlain's Cause. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—It furnishes a sad chapter in the history of Portland to witness the weird spectacle at the city hall in regard to Russell Chamberlain.

State's Duty to Unemployed. Portland, Dec. 20.—To the Editor of The Journal:—Some of the arguments made at Salem against Governor West's plan for relief of the unemployed do not do credit to progressive Oregon.

Newport Has Opened Summer Attractions during Christmas holidays. Salt-water swimming pool, casino dance hall, surf bath for men and women, Christmas and New Year's days. Good hotels. (Adv.)

A Real Xmas Gift.—Will be the subject of the sermon tonight at 7:45 at the Seventh Street Methodist church, corner E. Eleventh and Everett, by Pastor Milton H. St. John. (Adv.)

The Pioneer Campfire.—New book by Rev. G. W. Kennedy, pioneer of 1852. Anecdotes, adventures, etc. $1.10 post paid anywhere. The J. K. Gill company, Third and Alder streets. (Adv.)

Glebas Flowers, the real thing, at Mrs. Lincoln's Art Den, 405 1/2 Morrison st., 1/2 block above O. W. & K. China firing. Open every evening 9 p. m. The novelty art shop. (Adv.)

Editor Will Speak.—A. H. Harris, editor of the Portland Labor Press, will speak at the Congregational church at St. Johns tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. (Adv.)

Will Parties Witnessing accident to elderly gentleman on Beaumont ave. Friday evening, call at 400 E. 43d st. N., or phone Tabor 4187. (Adv.)

Holiday Trips.—Full information regarding train schedules cheerfully given by the Baggage Transfer Service Co., 63 Sixth st. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Steamer Jessie Harkins for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leave a Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Musical History Class.—The musical history class of the Monday Musical club, which was to have met Monday, has been postponed. (Adv.)

Two room suite in Journal building, suitable for doctor's quarters. Inquire at business office of Journal Publishing company. (Adv.)

Christmas Books.—McLoughlin and Old Oregon. "McDonald of Oregon." "The Conquest," at all bookstores. (Adv.)

Knight Coal.—A hard, hot, quick firing, long burning Utah coal. Albion Fuel Co., sole agents, E. 121, C-1117. Ad. (Adv.)

Genuine "Hair-O-Gin" Treatments are being given by Miss McLintosh at her parlors, 315 Panama bldg. (Adv.)

Hotel Lenox, 3rd and Main.—Best rates in city to permanent guests. Rooms $15 month and up. (Adv.)

One Suit Pressed Each Week.—$1.50 a month. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark Main 614. A-4214. (Adv.)

Baggage Transfer Service Co. Superior service—safety. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Home for Aged People, Invalids, fine location. Mount Tabor, Tabor 4159. (Adv.)

Swiss Watch Repairing. L. H. Miller, 407 Selling bldg. (Adv.)

Dr. Frederick A. Kiehl has returned. (Adv.)

Letters From the People

(Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender. If 50 per cent of the stay-at-homes had gone to the polls and voted, all the good measures would have been carried.

The Late City Election. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I would not wish to say anything further relating to the Journal's statement that the result of the recent city election indicated a conspiracy on the part of those who, in largest numbers, attended the polls, were it not for the fact that they were merely doing the logical thing that voters are supposed to do.

Champions Chamberlain's Cause. Portland, Dec. 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—It furnishes a sad chapter in the history of Portland to witness the weird spectacle at the city hall in regard to Russell Chamberlain.

State's Duty to Unemployed. Portland, Dec. 20.—To the Editor of The Journal:—Some of the arguments made at Salem against Governor West's plan for relief of the unemployed do not do credit to progressive Oregon.

Newport Has Opened Summer Attractions during Christmas holidays. Salt-water swimming pool, casino dance hall, surf bath for men and women, Christmas and New Year's days. Good hotels. (Adv.)

A Real Xmas Gift.—Will be the subject of the sermon tonight at 7:45 at the Seventh Street Methodist church, corner E. Eleventh and Everett, by Pastor Milton H. St. John. (Adv.)

The Pioneer Campfire.—New book by Rev. G. W. Kennedy, pioneer of 1852. Anecdotes, adventures, etc. $1.10 post paid anywhere. The J. K. Gill company, Third and Alder streets. (Adv.)

Glebas Flowers, the real thing, at Mrs. Lincoln's Art Den, 405 1/2 Morrison st., 1/2 block above O. W. & K. China firing. Open every evening 9 p. m. The novelty art shop. (Adv.)

Editor Will Speak.—A. H. Harris, editor of the Portland Labor Press, will speak at the Congregational church at St. Johns tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. (Adv.)

Will Parties Witnessing accident to elderly gentleman on Beaumont ave. Friday evening, call at 400 E. 43d st. N., or phone Tabor 4187. (Adv.)

Holiday Trips.—Full information regarding train schedules cheerfully given by the Baggage Transfer Service Co., 63 Sixth st. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Steamer Jessie Harkins for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leave a Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Musical History Class.—The musical history class of the Monday Musical club, which was to have met Monday, has been postponed. (Adv.)

Two room suite in Journal building, suitable for doctor's quarters. Inquire at business office of Journal Publishing company. (Adv.)

Christmas Books.—McLoughlin and Old Oregon. "McDonald of Oregon." "The Conquest," at all bookstores. (Adv.)

Knight Coal.—A hard, hot, quick firing, long burning Utah coal. Albion Fuel Co., sole agents, E. 121, C-1117. Ad. (Adv.)

Genuine "Hair-O-Gin" Treatments are being given by Miss McLintosh at her parlors, 315 Panama bldg. (Adv.)

Hotel Lenox, 3rd and Main.—Best rates in city to permanent guests. Rooms $15 month and up. (Adv.)

One Suit Pressed Each Week.—$1.50 a month. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark Main 614. A-4214. (Adv.)

Baggage Transfer Service Co. Superior service—safety. Main 120. A-1203. (Adv.)

Home for Aged People, Invalids, fine location. Mount Tabor, Tabor 4159. (Adv.)

Swiss Watch Repairing. L. H. Miller, 407 Selling bldg. (Adv.)

Dr. Frederick A. Kiehl has returned. (Adv.)

Prices Consistent With the Low Rent We Pay

Would You Buy a Diamond for $100 If It Was a Bargain?

Our Special $100 Diamond Ring. When you can combine investment and pleasure in a gift, there should be no reason for hesitating.

Our Special $100 Diamond Ring is not only a good investment, but it is a pleasure and satisfaction to wear such an article. You can compare it with other diamond rings that have sold for a great deal more; in fact, we doubt very much if you can secure such a diamond bargain elsewhere.

Would You Pay $13.50 For a 17-jewel adjusted 20-year, gold-filled, 12-size, thin-model Watch?

Would You Pay $20.00 For a 21-jewel adjusted 20-year, gold-filled, thin-model Watch?

Would You Pay $10.00 For a 20-year, gold-filled Watch that is a fine timepiece?

These Are the Watch Specials We Offer. And they certainly are bargains—that is why we are selling so many.

Bracelet Watches. If you want a Bracelet Watch that will give you no trouble and a watch that is a fine timepiece, it will pay you to see our stock.

STORE OPEN EVENINGS. JAEGER BROS. THE STORE OF QUALITY. 266 Morrison Street, Between Third and Fourth.

A gift that serves some practical purpose is doubly appreciated by the recipient, is a constant reminder of the giver's thoughtfulness and enhances the pleasure of both giving and receiving.

Ladies' Embossed Monogram and Gentlemen's Address Stationery, in plain and fancy boxes.

Engraved Visiting Cards and Wiggin's Book Form Business Cards, Christmas and New Year Greetings.

Waterman's, Swan's, Conklin's Self-Filling Fountain Pens, all styles, in fancy and plain holders.

Genuine Leather Goods of all descriptions—Card Cases, Bill Books, Brief Cases, Tourist Tablets, Writing Portfolios, etc.

Brass and Cut-Glass Desk Sets and individual pieces in Inkstands, Calendars, Pin Trays, Letter Openers, Clocks, etc.

Game and Playing Card Sets of all kinds—Chess, Checkers, Dominoes, etc.; Folding Card Tables and Chairs.

Sectional and Revolving Bookcases, Tables, Stands, Chairs and Desks for your library.

Leather-Bound Memorandums, Ring Books and all kinds of Fancy Books with title in gold. Name of recipient lettered in gold free.

Gift Dressings, Holiday Boxes, Seals, Tags, Fancy Cord and everything to make your package attractive.

Open Evenings Until Christmas. "Everything for the Office"

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. Commercial Stationers, Office Outfitters, Printers, Engravers, Booklet Makers and Bookbinders.

Christmas Suggestions

In the Book Line. Modern Art, Julius Meier-Graefe, 2 vols., $6.50. Ridpath History of the World, 9 vols., $15.00.