

BEZDEK IS DEMANDING EVERYTHING THAT IS IN HIS BASKET TEAM

Pedigrees Don't Go With the Hard-Working Mentor of U. of O. Teams.

FENTON GETS "CALL" JUST AS DO NEOPHYTES

Pretty Good Material Has Shown Up for Conference Winter Sport.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Dec. 20.—With the completion of the inter-class series and the semi-finals of the inter-fraternity clashes over basketball at Oregon assumes a more definite form. Prospects and possibilities so far have filled the air. Hugo Bezdek will coach the team this year and Oregon basketballers will have to show more than pedigrees. From the few practices that have already been held he has impressed the men that the same style of coaching will be employed in the indoor game that Bez used on the gridiron.

In football Bezdek found that the men had not been well grounded in the fundamentals and the little Teuton began at the bottom. In the practices this week the coach's whistle has stopped the play every minute and "time out" taken while Bezdek and some offending player held a conference.

The old men out this week were Captain Fenton, Rice, Bradshaw and Sims, and last year's substitutes Fee and Boylen. In the second team were Volcott, the freshman guard from Silverton, Mickey Gorman, Cosman, Stevenson, Bryant and Bigbee. Sprained fingers are keeping Davis and Hampton, sophomores, out of the practices.

Fenton Going Early. Carl Fenton seems to be thoroughly "on" for 1914 early in the season. Tuesday and Wednesday evenings his shooting was as accurate as in midseason. He has been playing his old position at center and although it has been persistently rumored that he would be shifted to a forward, the lack of good center material at this time seems to give this rumor little credence.

No freshman possibilities for the center position have been discovered in the inter-fraternity and class games and none of the upperclassmen has enough weight to get on here. Stevenson, who has been playing against Fenton in the practices already held, is a big man with a good jump but lacks speed and aggressiveness. He has a good shot, particularly overhead, but his lack of speed keeps him from the varsity. Don Rice probably has one of the guard positions clinched, but an effort will be made to make a forward out of him.

Volcott, Gorman, Hampton and Boylen are contenders with Bradshaw for the other guard position. Sims has been a wonderful forward but streaky in his playing. Chester Fee, last year's freshman sub, looks good for the other position but will have to travel some to beat "Skeeter" Bigbee, the freshman "phenom" from Albany. Fee has the advantage in weight over Bigbee and can't be smothered as easily as the Albany youngster. Lyle Bigbee, a brother of "Skeeter," has been touted as a wonder but an injury to his head this summer will probably lessen his chances for a regular berth.

Freshman Win Again. The inter-class games this year, as usual, have resulted in the taking of the class championship by the freshman. The first year men always have an advantage under the rule that prohibits men who have played on the first team at any time from participating in the inter-class series. It is only the third and fourth raters that the other classes can place against the freshman.

While all the "phenoms" get chances to show their ability in these games, the freshman team was captained by "Skeeter" Bigbee. Besides Bigbee and Volcott, Furney, the Astoria boy who has had basketball training at Mount Angel college, showed up well. Furney has a good shot but is handicapped with weak eyes, which make his handling and throwing of passes inaccurate.

In the elimination series for the Hayward inter-fraternity cup the Avava, Sigma Nu and Oregon club teams have so far been undefeated and will play off for the cup after the Christmas holidays. Sigma Nu has been defeated once in the preliminary games and opinion is about evenly divided between the Oregon club and Avava as winners. The Hayward cup was won last year by the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. The trophy must be won two years in succession to remain the permanent property of any organization.

FIFTH ANNUAL SWIM CHRISTMAS DAY WILL SEE CLOSE FINISHES

The Multnomah club, is pretty sure to finish among the first three. Those entered in the 100 yard event are: Norman Ross, J. McMurray, Al Mattern, L. Lindstrom, Collister Wheeler, Frank Klernan, L. Bulbach, E. Spahr and A. Bulgin of the Multnomah club; L. Breaky, Y. M. C. A.; Enroll Byrnes, Portland Swimming Association; W. S. Kinney, unattached; Don Vickers, Eugene, and E. Crueger, of Spokane.

The officials of the meet are: Frank B. Watkins, starter; Henry Hahn, Art Allen, Charles Strube, Judges of the final; Edgar Frank, T. M. Dunne and A. B. McAlpin, timers, and Bert Allen, Elwood Wiles and Bert Farrell, judges of the course.

When Greek Meets Greek. American athletic officials will encourage more tug-of-war contests in games held throughout the country. In this department of sport Uncle Sam has been woefully weak in the Olympic games. This is a popular feature in many foreign countries.

MULTNOMAH ELEVEN MUST HAVE COACH IN FUTURE, SAYS STOTT

Club Cannot Depend on Colleges to Supply Material in Future, Says Gridiron Man.

YOUNG ATHLETES NEED CARE OF GOOD TRAINER

Good Material Going to Waste Because It Is Not Being Properly Handled.

The need of an athletic director, capable of coaching football, baseball and track and field teams at the Multnomah Athletic club, was pointed out yesterday by E. Plowden Stott, a member of the board of trustees and manager of the winged "M" football team during the present season.

"If the club intends to continue in the gridiron game and play the northwest college teams, it will have to employ a coach," said Stott. "The team was lucky in securing Peter Rodes, former navy captain, as quarterback during the 1913 season and he prepared the team's offensive work, but in the future the team cannot depend on a player as a coach."

"The college teams are well coached, and in case Multnomah does not secure a coach it will have little chance against the college teams in four or five seasons."

"Instructors are employed in the boxing, wrestling and swimming departments and football is along the same lines, so why not have an athletic director who will be able to handle all outdoor sports."

"The same is true of track and field athletics. Multnomah has always had a top notch track and field team, and if it is desirous of holding its position, some one must be hired to help condition the athletes."

"The club has many young athletes in its ranks, who will not be properly developed because there is no coach. The time is coming when Multnomah will depend on the college graduates to help strengthen the teams, but must develop its own material."

John R. Bender of the Washington State college, Dr. Sweetland of Willamette university and Bill Hayward of the University of Oregon have been named in connection with the Multnomah club athletic directorship. Any of these would make a splendid director and it is likely that the club directors will take the matter up in the near future.

CHESS

Conducted by A. G. Johnson.

Rudolf Spielmann, who hails from Munich, Germany, has made a very creditable showing in chess tournaments during the past year and has proved a stumbling block to the great masters, including the almost invincible Rubinstein.

The following game, a four knight's defense, was played at the club on December 15th. Several strong players in consultation, avowed Lasker's admiration, as may be seen from the champion's notes, which accompany the game:

SHEPPARD MAY TAKE ATHLETES TO ATHENS

Captain "Mel" Sheppard of the New York Irish-American A. C. of New York is reported to have inquired concerning steamship rates to Athens as a preliminary to taking a squad of his club's athletes to the Grecian Olympics next year. If Sheppard represents America in Athens and Berlin, he will equal Ray Ebery's record of competing in four Olympics. Ray won medals at Paris in 1900, at St. Louis in 1904, at Athens in 1906 and at London in 1908. Sheppard competed at London in 1908 and at Stockholm in 1912.

TWO NEW INSTRUCTORS SECURED FOR Y. M. C. A. HAVE WORTHY RECORDS

Hodges Comes From Victoria and Thompson Is From Chicago; Other Gossip.

Two instructors, A. R. Hodges, of Victoria, B. C., and O. C. Thompson, of Chicago, have been secured by the physical department of the local Y. M. C. A. Hodges replaces Skartved, who has accepted a position with Pacific university at Forest Grove.

Thompson, who is a graduate of the Chicago Training school, will handle the association boxers and give other private instructions. Before coming to the coast he was physical director in the Kansas Agricultural college at Manhattan, Kan., and was formerly a playground instructor in parks in Chicago and in Minneapolis.

Skartved, who goes to the Pacific university, was formerly connected with the local high school gymnasium. His acceptance of the position takes the job off the hands of A. M. Grilley, who was secured to develop the Forest Grove athletes.

Hodges was connected with the Victoria, B. C., Y. M. C. A., and was offered the position with the local association at the annual meeting of the physical directors of the northwest Y. M. C. A. He will instruct in the boys' classes, both in the gym and in the swimming tank.

Victor Anderson, Jack Bates and A. W. Grant have entered the novice race in the annual Y. M. C. A. city run. It is expected that at least 25 runners will start in the novice race. No runners have signed the entrance list in the open event, but H. T. Smith expects that at least 10 runners will start.

The evening class competition in Liff-ball and volley ball games, which closed last night, was won by the Blues, who had a total of 182 points, not counting the points made last evening. The standings of the other teams are: Greens, 140; Yellows, 128; Pinks, 105; Reds, 87, and Blacks, 61.

Markham's team is leading in the hockey and basketball series of the 413 Commercial Students' basketball and hockey series. The points of the teams are: Markham, 208; Astor, 159; Sellers, 118, and Hartley, 103.

The McLaughlin team will play the Astoria, Or., team next Saturday night and on the following Saturday night the local club players will play either Forest Grove or Molalla. A game will be arranged with the Albany Athletics in the near future.

The Newsboys' basketball team, 129 pound title claimers, would like to arrange games with local teams. Write M. Lewis, Newsboys' Home, First and Hall streets.

WOODLAWN TO STAGE FIRST SMOKER TUESDAY

Abe Gordon, 100 Pound Newsboy, Will Appear Against Weston.

The Woodlawn Amateur Athletic club will stage its first boxing meet next Tuesday evening in its hall at Twelfth and Dekum streets. Manager Ambrose has arranged an excellent list of bouts, seven in number, and promises the fans that there will be some good contests.

Abe Gordon, the fast 100 pounder of the Newsboys' club, will appear on the program against Weston. Weston has never boxed on an amateur card before, but he looks like a corner.

The card is: 100 pounds—Abe Gordon vs. Joe Weston. 112 pounds—Wheeler vs. Carpenter. 126 pounds—Wheeler vs. Peak. 135 pounds—Wright vs. Martin. 145 pounds—Courtney vs. Sommers. 150 pounds—J. Jackson vs. Hiberg. 150 pounds—Sunderland vs. Rippen. Stanley McDonald has been secured to referee the bouts and the judges will be selected Monday.

RED WATTS SIGNS WITH VANCOUVER LEAGUERS

Ike Wolfer, Jefferson High Tossler, Is Wanted by Boise Club.

Walter (Red) Watts, the all-star shortstop of the Jefferson high school baseball team, champions of the Inter-scholastic league last season, today signed a contract to play with the Vancouver team of the Northwestern league. Watts has been playing baseball for three years. He will turn in his signed contract to Bob Brown when the Vancouver boys arrive in Portland tomorrow to attend the schedule pow-wow of the Northwestern league.

Jimmy Richardson, the boy scout, has been trying to get Ike Wolfer, another Jefferson star, to sign a contract. It is said that Richardson wants him to join the Boise, Idaho, team. Wolfer's parents are against him playing professional ball, so there seems to be little chance for Richardson to sign him.

The Canadian Snowshoe union will make application to the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada for recognition as the national governing body in Canadian snowshoeing.

IF WASHINGTON GETS GO WITH IDAHO ALL COLLEGE TEAMS MEET

Gem State Eleven Wants Bigger Guarantee for Playing in Seattle This Season.

OREGON HAS HEAVIEST SCHEDULE OF COMBINE

Archie Hahn of Whitman Gets Plenty of Rest Between Games.

Every Pacific Northwest intercollegiate conference team will meet all other teams of the conference, provided graduate manager Ralph Horr of the University of Washington schedules a game with the University of Idaho. It is now assured that the Oregon Aggies will battle against Washington in Albany, Or., Saturday, October 31. Horr will likely schedule the Idaho game for Seattle, but before he can get the game he must give Idaho a bigger guarantee than he has in past seasons. The best schedule of the whole conference was arranged by Coach Archie Hahn of the Whitman college. Hahn framed up a schedule which gives his team two weeks' rest between each game except the next to the last one against the Washington State team. Whitman meets the hardest teams of the conference first. On the opening day of the schedule it plays the University of Oregon team, and two weeks later it buckies up against Dobie's men in Seattle. After the Washington game it will play the Oregon Aggies, and will then meet the Washington State team. Whitman's last game is on Thanksgiving day with Idaho.

Manager Dean H. Walker of the University of Oregon, who was in Portland last week, has arranged an excellent schedule for the lemon and yellow. Oregon meets Whitman, Washington State and Idaho, and then has a three weeks' rest before playing the University of Washington eleven in Seattle. O. A. C. plays its first game on October 10, against Washington State, and then it plays the other teams of the conference as follows: Washington, Whitman, Idaho and Oregon. There is only a week's rest between each game.

The complete schedule, with the tentative dates for the Washington-O. A. C. and Washington-Idaho games, is: October 10—Whitman vs. Oregon, at Eugene. October 10—Montana vs. Washington State, at Missoula. October 17—Washington State vs. Oregon, at Portland. October 17—Washington vs. Idaho at Seattle. October 24—Whitman vs. Washington, at Seattle. October 24—Idaho vs. Oregon, at Moscow.

October 24—O. A. C. vs. Washington State, at Pullman. October 31—Washington vs. O. A. C., at Albany. November 7—Idaho vs. Washington State, at Pullman. November 7—O. A. C. vs. Whitman, at Corvallis. November 14—Oregon vs. Washington, at Seattle. November 14—Idaho vs. O. A. C., at Portland. November 14—Whitman vs. Washington State, at Spokane. November 21—O. A. C. vs. Oregon, no grounds selected. November 28—Washington State vs. Washington, at Seattle. November 28—Oregon vs. Multnomah, at Portland. November 28—Whitman vs. Idaho, at Walla Walla.

Tickets for the game will be placed on sale at the local sporting goods stores Tuesday morning.

TWO FOOTBALL GAMES ON MULTNOMAH FIELD THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Winged M and St. James Teams Will Furnish Feature; Watkins and Arleta.

ROYAL NILES TO PLAY WITH VANCOUVER MEN

Jack Johnson, Idaho's Great End, Will Not Be in the Game January 1.

Two football games have been billed for Christmas Day on Multnomah field. The "Winged M" team will play the St. James team of Vancouver, Wash., and a preliminary game will be staged between the Frank E. Watkins team, winners of the Archer-Wiggins league championship, and the Arleta eleven. The preliminary game will start at 1 o'clock and the big game at 2:30 o'clock. The Multnomah players will practice this morning on the club field. Manager Stott is anxious to have all his players report for practice so that they will be able to get in condition for the struggle with the Idaho team on New Year's Day.

Multnomah will be minus the services of Bailey, Hickson and O'Rourke in Thursday's game, but Stott expects to have little trouble in beating the Vancouver stars. Clayton Patterson will likely be in the pivot position in the club lineup in place of Peter Rodes, who has gone east. Patterson played quarterback on the Lincoln High school team, champions of western Oregon during the 1911 season.

The Vancouver team has been strengthened by the return of Royal Niles, who played on that team before entering Whitman College. Niles was selected on the All-Northwest football team twice in succession and received mention on several teams at the close of the 1913 season.

The Multnomah-Idaho game New Year's Day is going to be a great one. Idaho had the best tackling team in the conference during the 1913 season and will give the Multnomah team a hard battle.

Jack Johnson, chosen as one of the All-Northwest stars this season, will not be in the Idaho lineup. His mother, who lives in the east, is very ill and it becomes necessary for him to go to her bedside. Idaho, however, has a substitute end who can play nearly as good. There is a possible chance of Christman, the crack O. A. C. tackle, playing with the Multnomah team. Christman graduates from O. A. C. in 1914, but Stewart thinks that he has a chance of making the basketball team and wants to retain him.

Tickets for the game will be placed on sale at the local sporting goods stores Tuesday morning.
