Our Store Will Be Open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Nights Until 9 o'Clock

The Enduring Gift of
Fine Gold and Silver
Expressed in a Wealth of Variety in Our
Jewelry Section

- Down the ages the glamour of gold has prevailed—as powerful today as when the Queen of Sheba brought precious gifts to King Solomon.
- Flashing gems and the rather more modern platinum—susceptible, singly or in combination, of the rarest effects.
- Little wonder that of all Christmas gifts the well-chosen piece of real jewelry enjoys pre-eminence. And here, fittingly displayed, is a collection of which we are justly proud.
- Many are of our own designing; all are excellent in taste; prices are consistently moderate. Price indications:
- German silver vanities with three coin holders. $1.25.
- $3.00 German silver mesh bags, special, $1.98.
- $8.00 German silver soldered mesh bags. $6.48.

The Gift Unusual
From the Gallery of Art Wares

—Art finds its expression in many ways, in a bit of sculpture, a curiously turned and colored vase, a beautiful plate, a bronze, or charming piece of bric-a-brac.

—Hidden away in odd corners of Europe are artists and art workers who give their lives to creating these beautiful things. Each year our Art Buyer spends months in going from studio to studio gathering a choice piece here or a few pieces there.

—These are gathered for your inspection in the Gallery of Art Wares, Sixth Floor. It is the home of the gift unusual—the things that every one does not give.

—And right now we are offering special

MEN
Like a London Shop

—A gentleman lately returned from London chanced in our Washington street entrance and found himself in the men's shop. When approached and asked if he wished to be served he replied with an air of astonishment, "Why I'm just back from London and by a curious coincidence your men's shop is draped with the identical mufflers, motor scarfs, and sweaters as I saw displayed in a smart Conduit street haberdashery."

—On further investigation he found that the knitted and crochet ties, lounging robes all bore the label of Allen & Solly and Welch, Margutson & Co., which was identical with those shown in London.

—We went further and showed this gentleman English gloves, English collars, English hosiery and English handkerchiefs.

—When through with his tour of inspection he paid us the high compliment that London offered no better selection in high-class haberdashery than shown in our store.

—Come tomorrow if you have in mind gifts for men. Nothing is held in higher esteem or appreciated more by men of good fashion and taste than English furnishings.

—English ties, $2 to $3. English collars, 35c or $4 dozen.
—English motor scarfs, $2.50, $3.50, $5.00 and $10. English hosiery, $1.75, $2, $2.25.
—English sweaters, $12.00 to $22.00. English handkerchiefs, 25c to $1.25.
—English vests, $6 to $10. English dressing gowns, $18.00, $20.00.

Exquisite Bibelots From Paris
Art Needlework and Other Things for the Boudoir

—Inimitable Paris! Where else but from that light-hearted city of the daintiest fancies could come so prettily conceived a pincushion as this one of the Marie Antoinette period—with its carefully moulded bisque face, appropriately gowned, standing on a cushion base trimmed with lace and galloon and French roses.

—Useful articles made in France—personally selected by our Paris office. In blue moire, rose silks, old tapestries and trimmed with silver and gold lace and galloon, and French roses in all shades and stages of growth.

—One large case is all draped with rich rose silks, among which gleam boudoir bibelots all in rose color and gold laces. A combination jewel box and pincushion—hatpin holder—waste paper basket—hat stand and round pillow—these exquisite things are as we said before of rose-colored silks, gorgeously trimmed with rose shades, roses and gold laces.

—A most unusual handkerchief case is of palest pink crepe de chine, finely pleated, and when closed swirls downward, showing a wreath of chiffon roses around the top. $7.50.

—Dainty opera bags of various colored moire silks with mirror at the bottom and galloon and rose trimmed.

—Useful though beautiful little sewing and toilet bags of silks, all fitted, in pink and blue. $2.00 each.

—An unusual jewelry tray and hairpin holder is of darkly colored wicker lined with puff silk, trimmed with gold lace, galloon and dull-colored roses. $6.50. —Second Floor
