

SOCIAL EVENTS of the WEEK

guests of the governor of the island in his beautiful palace. While Lieutenant Meyer was a midshipman at Annapolis he became acquainted with the governor and his family. The second field artillery is stationed at Camp Stotsenburg but Lieutenant Meyer and Lieutenant Wilson were only there three weeks when they were transferred to Fort William McKinley, which is just seven miles from Manila and is considered the most beautiful of all army posts. Mrs. Meyer is planning on returning to her home in New York in February by way of Europe.

The Bridge club met Wednesday evening at the quarters of Lieutenant and Mrs. Robert L. Weeks. This club meets once each week at a member's quarters. The prize is played for five times in succession and the one having it at that time becomes the owner.

Plans are being made now for a combined military exhibition and wild west show to commemorate the ninetieth anniversary of the founding of Vancouver. As outlined now this great event will take place in the garrison on July 4.

Mrs. John H. Page Jr., wife of Captain Page, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. G. F. Winters who arrived yesterday from Kansas City, Mo., for a month's visit.

Mrs. F. L. Sizer and her two daughters, who have been visiting Mrs. Herbert L. Taylor, wife of Lieutenant Taylor of the Twenty-first infantry, have left for their home in Arizona.

Mrs. James Osewaarde, wife of Captain Osewaarde, received word Tuesday morning of the death of her mother, Mrs. J. Den Herder, of Zealand, Mich. Mrs. Den Herder had reached the age of 89 years and for some time had been in failing health.

The tango class met Thursday afternoon in the dance hall for the last of a series of three lessons, which have been given by a dancing master from Portland. The members of the class were Captain and Mrs. John H. Page Jr., Captain and Mrs. Herbert C. Gibson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Walter O. Boswell, Lieutenant and Mrs. James Hobson Jr., Lieutenant and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Rutherford S. Hartz, Mrs. Roy F. Waring of Vancouver, Miss Marjorie Page, Captain Ralph H. Van Deman, Lieutenant Gustav J. Gonsler, Lieutenant Frank V. Schneider, Lieutenant Robert T. Snow, Lieutenant Gibson and Captain Charles R. Howland.

A large and elaborate formal hop will be given in the new dance hall on Christmas night. The music will be furnished by the band of the Twenty-first infantry.

Captain Howland has returned from Tacoma, where he was for several days attending civil court.

Lieutenant Lester M. Wheeler of the Twenty-first infantry has been granted a sick leave of two months and will leave on December 22 for southern California, where he hopes to be much benefited by the climate.

Brigadier General Ramsey D. Potts has been placed in command of the Seventh brigade with headquarters here. General Potts was born on September 1, 1850, and was appointed second lieutenant of the Third field artillery on March 7, 1867. On January 31, 1903, he was appointed brigadier general and detailed as commander of the Army Staff college and Special Service schools at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He succeeded General Ralph W. Hoyt who was retired in the early autumn and is now living in Penn Yan, N. Y.

WEDDINGS

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Anna Berger and Dr. A. C. Van Cleave, which was solemnized at the Church of the Madeline, Twenty-third and Slakiyou, at noon Thursday. Rev. Father Thompson officiated. The wedding was a quiet one with only relatives and a few intimate friends being present. The church was decorated in cut flowers and evergreens, white and green being the color scheme. Dr. Emil Evans played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride entered the church on the arm of Mr. Werner Dorres and was attractive in her gown of ivory crepe metror embellished with rose point lace. Her full length veil was caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Rose Basler, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and wore a charming gown of pink crepe metror with a train with which she wore a dainty white hat. Her bouquet was of pink roses. Dr. Donald Jessop acted as best man.

After the wedding a buffet dinner was served to the bride and groom at the home of the bride, 449 East Fifteenth street north. Dr. and Mrs. Van Cleave left for a short honeymoon, and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 449 East Fifteenth north, after January 1.

Both young people are well known here. The bride is the oldest daughter of the late Joseph Basler of Pendleton and is an accomplished musician. The groom is a son of Colonel Call Van Cleave, deceased, and a graduate of both the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon. He is a member of the Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity.

The home of Mrs. N. J. Duncan on Sacramento street was attractively decorated Tuesday evening, December 9, with Christmas green and cut flowers in preparation for the marriage of her son, E. Ray Duncan and Miss Nellie M. Payne. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. James Diamond Corby, pastor of the First Universalist church, in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Both Mr. and Mrs. Duncan are popular young people and are heartily congratulated by all who know them. They will take up their residence on the east side in a home they have been preparing.

In their new home, 1607 Portsmouth avenue, at 12:10 a. m., December 14, Henry Hackdahl and Miss Lora Gay Palmer were married in the presence of a few intimate friends. Rev. W. C. Kantner read the impressive ceremony. Mr. Hackdahl is a practicing pharmacist of University Park and the bride is a popular young lady of the same suburb.

Dr. William Carlisle Kantner, formerly of Salem, Or., and Miss Nellie Constance Thompson, of Everett, Wash., were married on Thanksgiving day in the latter city. Rev. W. C. Kantner, father of the groom, officiating. Dr. Kantner is a graduate of the medical department of Willamette university and is well known in Portland. He is practicing in Seattle. The bride is a graduate of the State university, of Washington, where she was one of the most popular students.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grabler Sr., the home of the bride, 128 West Webster street, on Wednesday, December 17, Arthur McAllister and Miss Louise E. Grabler were joined in marriage by Rev. J. Bowersox. Mrs. Reese favored the guests with a song, and Mrs. Bessie Grabler played the wedding march. A number of the immediate relatives of the respective families and friends were witnesses to the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McAllister are at home to their friends at the Godfrey court, 500 Vancouver avenue, this city.

A quiet family wedding was solemnized Wednesday, December 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Eastman in Irvington, when their daughter, Cora Marie, became the wife of Egmont Bernhard Hagedorn. The Rev. Marcott of the Presbyterian church officiated. After visiting the sound cities, Mr. and Mrs. Hagedorn will be at home to their friends January 1.

Friday evening, December 12, at the home of the bride's parents, 195 East Seventy-eighth street, a very pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. W. H. Hampton, when he united in marriage Myrtle Mae Willard and Frank Charles Anspach. The decorations of the house ton carried the ring in an Easter lily. The bride was gowned in cream champagne, cut on train and trimmed with pearl ornaments. Her tulle veil fell from a Juliet cap. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bride was attended by Miss Carmen Patterson, bridesmaid, and Miss Gladys Willard, sister of the bride, maid of honor. The bridesmaid wore a gown of apricot crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The maid of honor was gowned in apricot silk poplin and also carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by his brother, Herman Anspach. After the ceremony the 70 guests remained for an informal reception. After the reception the bride and groom left for a short tour on the Sound.

Married, December 12, at St. Paul's church, San Diego, Cal., Reverend Charles E. Barnes officiating, Rose Carolyn Kaiser to Pay W. Libbey. Miss Kaiser is a member of a well known pioneer family of Portland, a sister of L. S. and Dr. William F. Kaiser.

Mr. Libbey is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a prominent Arizona mining engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Libbey, after spending their honeymoon in Southern California, will be at home to their friends at The Vulture gold mines in Arizona.

EVENTS OF WEEK

A few young people enjoyed a pleasant evening at a "hard-time" dance Saturday evening, December 6, at Dr. Wadsworth's private hall adjoining his home. Among those present were Mrs. N. Balbach, Miss Brown, Edna Pennington, Hazel Ewson, Marie Balbach, Ramona Milligan, Loreen Schaffin, Elsie Wigginton, Flora Belle Parrott, Frieda Penblee, Harry Siltou, Ray Balbach, Elmer Quinn, Louis Lack, C. J. McAllister, Frank Watkins, Lee W. Wadsworth, Claude Kemp, Ed Freichel and E. M. Coal.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Tragilo of Salem celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary last Sunday afternoon and evening at their home on Seventeenth street of that city. About 30 guests were assembled for the occasion, enjoying the bountiful dinner which was served. There were six of the 14 relatives living present at the party, including the children and grandchildren of the old couple. Congratulations were received from far and wide, even from their old home in distant Switzerland.

They have resided in Oregon about 26 years and have here a wide circle of friends. Two grandchildren present who are known to many Portland people were the Misses Lucile and Berkeley Tragilo of the Baker Players. The house presented an attractive holiday aspect, with its decoration of Christmas evergreens and clusters of roses and chrysanthemums, the latter being cut from the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Tragilo.

A steady round of entertaining in honor of Mrs. T. S. Alexander, is being given by her friends. The various parties are in the nature of farwells, as Mrs. Alexander and family will leave Portland to join her husband, who is now engaged in business in Oakland, Cal. The final reception to Mrs. Alexander will be Friday afternoon by the women of Hope Presbyterian church, Montavilla, at the home of the pastor, Dr. Seaman. Much regret is being expressed at Mrs. Alexander's departure by her many friends in Montavilla.

Miss Dallas Moreland was the motif for a delightful dancing party Tuesday evening when Miss Delphine Goldstaub invited a number of guests in her honor. The dancing party was given at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Goldstaub, on the east side. The rooms were beautifully decorated in holly and evergreens, which suggested the cheerful aspect of the coming holidays. After dancing, 500 was played, and the guests holding the highest honors were Mrs. Viles and Miss Dallas Moreland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Krause were honored by some of their friends with a surprise party Tuesday night, that being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Sixty-five guests passed the evening with the happy couple, who were the recipients of numerous gifts, the tokens of the esteem in which they are held by their friends.

Portland Art club met Tuesday afternoon, East Sixth and Alder streets, Orient hall. Mrs. Roper was hostess. Prizes honors fell to Mrs. Purdue, Mrs. Cronkite and Mrs. Singer, and consolation prizes to Mrs. Walter Walling and Mrs. Hamilton.

One of the most successful events of the past week, was the party given by the Namyenoh club at Christensen's hall, the hall being decorated with holly for the occasion. The club members are

George C. Denholm, W. K. Slater, E. G. Kirkland, William L. Lightner Jr., Fred S. Johnson, Carl Rosengreen, Harold Wilson. The patronesses were Mrs. W. S. Johnson, Mrs. W. K. Slater and Mrs. G. Kirkland.

The "Oregonia Club of 1912" gave its first party last Sunday evening at the home of William Krause, in honor of the outgoing officers. Those present were entertained by a reading given by one of the members and by a mock trial. A feast was served by the committee in charge and toasts were given by several of the members.

Mrs. William Weyland was hostess at a theatre party at the Orpheum on Thursday afternoon. After the theatre the party was served with refreshments at the Cat N' Fiddle. The guests were: Mrs. S. J. Davis, Mrs. Edward Gullick, Mrs. Grover Kastly, Mrs. Eleanor Hill, Mrs. Peter Park, Mrs. Louis Sedgatt, Mrs. W. F. Reiner.

A pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Peter Oberle of 977 First street, Wednesday the 10th, this day being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. An enjoyable evening was spent, music being the feature of the evening, and reminiscent anecdotes. Several pieces of cut glass were presented to the couple and later a supper was served. The following relatives and friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Feldmann, Mr. and Mrs. G. Feldmann, Walter Feldman, Mr. and Mrs. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. G. Newnan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Deimel, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Klug, Miss Elaine Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. H. Baldwin, Miss Ridder, Mrs. Ernst, Master H. Oberle.

Mrs. Frank Walker complimented her husband with a shower of presents, with a miscellaneous shower on Saturday afternoon, December 13. Five hundred was enjoyed during the afternoon, Mrs. William Patterson winning first prize. After dainty refreshments were served Miss Hagemann was presented with many gifts. The guests were: Miss Jessie Hagemann, Miss Ella Newland, Miss Carol Hubbert, Miss Agnes McIntosh, Miss Emily Wackrow, Miss Gertrude Getty, Miss Connie Walker, Miss Anna Walsh, Miss Mae Hagemann, Miss Mildred Bryan, Mrs. F. G. Hagemann, Mrs. W. E. Benton, Mrs. G. G. Schmidt, Mrs. William Patterson, Mrs. Harold Lange, Mrs. Jesse Rainey, and the hostess.

Thursday evening, December 18, the Washington High School Alumni association held a hard times dance at Dawley's hall. About 30 couples enjoyed an old fashioned frolic, after which the girls provided basket lunches. The patronesses for the evening were: Mrs. J. Henry, Mrs. I. J. Smith, Mrs. John Duthie and Mrs. M. F. Royer. During the holidays the association will give a Christmas party, to which all of their friends are invited.

Harry Newell was given a pleasant surprise party in honor of his twenty-second birthday last Friday evening at his home, 5 East Seventy-sixth street north. During the evening Miss Helen Newell and Miss May Sisley rendered several piano solos. The following were present: Helen Newell, Melvin Stone, Clayton Lewis, Lester Parker, Rose Matson, Clara Anderson, Henry Matson.
