

REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S NEWS IN PICTURE AND PARAGRAPH

All the Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for the Information of the Busy Reader—Foreign, Eastern, Political and Congressional News Notes to Be Preserved for Reference.

Executive and Political.

THE Alaska road bill was the subject of spirited debate in the house, the opponents of the measure declaring that the cost of the enterprise would be much greater than had been estimated. Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, suggests that needy persons be sought out and that each member of the "Spurs" make such a person a happy Christmas. The movement is in line with the aim of the Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving.

The La Follette seamen's bill providing that lifeboats be furnished in greater number meets with the opposition of representatives of Puget sound shipping interests. The matter was discussed before the house marine committee.

Secretary of War Garrison has asked the attorney general to rule on the question whether John Burke, manager of the Panama railway commissary department, whose acts are under investigation, is an employe of the government or of a private concern.

Secretary of State Bryan, in a speech before the Christian Endeavor societies of Washington, said that Dr. Francis E. Clark, founder of the movement, had done as much for humanity as any other man of the present generation.

Secretary of War Garrison will not issue any more chocolate rations to the troops, because of the indigestible nature of the rations, and some other kind for emergency use will be adopted.

Prices of beef of American packers have been forced down, it is said, as a result of the purchasing of Argentine beef by the United States navy.

The Republican leaders in session at Washington, agreed to call a special convention next year to revise the basic of representation and make certain changes in methods of procedure.

Representative Donovan of Connecticut and Representative Hobson of Alabama, are at "it" again. The former now challenges the latter to debate the affirmative on the question, "The absence of a representative from congress is honest and justifiable."

Bills appropriating $3,000,000 for the construction of a drydock at Puget Sound have been introduced in congress by Senator Jones and Representative Humphrey of Washington.

Legal and Criminal.

PAROLE OFFICER WHITE of California declares that percentage of violations of paroles is not increasing in the state, but on the other hand he says that the 2481 persons released since the law became effective, only 597 have broken faith.

Oscar D. Olase, saloonkeeper of San Francisco, shot and killed his wife and committed suicide because the woman had started divorce suit against him. He declared he could not get justice in a court of law.

H. Luncheon and Charles Farthing were killed and W. D. Luncheon and Woodson Egar were wounded in a shooting affray that occurred at a dance hall near Edgewood, Texas.

The residence of Eugene Farrell of Portland was ransacked by a burglar. A woman inmate of the house fainted when the intruder shoved her back on to the bed, when she started to get up to sound the alarm.

The mystery of the death of Clyde Rudell of the Dalles, which occurred at Portland, will be investigated by the coroner of Multnomah county.

A clever co-operator, by means of a photographic reproduction of a $200 draft issued in Canada, passed the check on 18 banks in Philadelphia. Detectives are on a nation-wide hunt for him.

Car thieves in East St. Louis made away with several wagon loads of loot. The crew was held at bay while the goods were being removed.

New York grand jury is investigating the charge that a politician attempted to extort $50,000 from Anthony C. Douglas, a tunnel contractor, as compensation for obtaining him the job of building the Croton aqueduct.

Because he carried a blinding light on his automobile, a chauffeur in New York has been fined $10. The light is said to have been an annoyance to pedestrians.

State's Attorney Burdick of Williams county, North Dakota, states that he expects to have evidence that will convict the ringleaders who lynched Cleve Cubbertson, murderer of the Dillon family.

Federal Judge Bean of the United States court at Portland will number certificates of Chinese in order that there shall not be any violations of the immigration laws.

Mrs. Mary Erikson of Portland, trail-

Municipal and Legislative.

ECARDED of alleged cruelty to patients, James A. Marshall, physician of the state reformatory at Pontiac, Ill., has been removed from office by the state civil service commission.

The city of Chehalis, Wash., agreed to pay $350 to Mrs. Lottie Harper, and $100 to Mrs. Hannah Poulson, for damages received as result of defecating sidewalks, rather than fight the suits in court.

An army of 150 unemployed men found temporary food accommodations and shelter in Fresno, Cal., and the sick were cared for, but the men were compelled to move on without delay.

The auto license law of Boise, Idaho, has been bitterly attacked by the county commissioners in state session in Boise.

Tacoma is to have a new railroad office depot, the Oregon Washington corporation having purchased eight lots in that city.

Governor West's request for $50,000 to be used in giving work for unemployed men, has been denied by the state emergency board, and the governor declares that other means of obtaining the money will be undertaken.

It is asserted by Governor West that there is no need of a special session of the legislature to correct defects in the registration laws. He says common sense can remedy the defects.

The death of County Judge Basche of Baker, has created a vacancy which eight applicants are anxious to fill.

The scarlet fever epidemic in Union has been brought under control by health officers. No new cases have been discovered for a week, and the public schools will be reopened January 27.

Despite rumors to the contrary the number of unemployed men in Chicago this winter is smaller than that of former years, according to an investigation which has just ended.

Kansas has too many National Guard officers in comparison to the number of privates, and the state must dispense with some of the gold lice if it would receive the $65,000 fund from the federal government.

San Francisco has commenced a trial of the public street dance. The city furnishes the music and the lights, and the tango and the Boston dip are danced to the delight of the throngs.

Commercial and Industrial.

A HERD of 68 Arizona goats has been shipped from Corvallis to Sonora, Texas, the goats bringing an average of $17 each. The animals were raised on the W. J. Warfield place, near Corvallis.

The Evanston Index of Evanston, Ill., will be conducted by women. Miss Betty Cattell, a special writer of the Rock Mountain News, has been named as managing editor.

Beckopers are considering the plan of taking their bees south in the winter time in order that the honey-makers may keep busy the whole year. The plan was suggested at the meeting of the Northwestern Beekeepers' Association held at Chicago.

International labor unions will withdraw their deposits amounting to be-

Foreign.

ANNEXTION of the island of Crete to Greece has been effected. King Constantine personally raising the flag over the fort at Crete. Throngs of people attended the ceremonies.

The Haruna, the sister ship of the Kongo, a battle cruiser, has been launched in the yards at Kobe, Japan. Next year Japan will build three super-cruisers in her own yards.

Trade centers in Great Britain are looking forward to an increased trade following the passage of the Underwood tariff bill. Some gains have already been reported, says the London Times.

Ex-President Castro of Venezuela is in Germany, according to news from the Canary Islands. He is said to be preparing a proclamation to his partisans in the South America republic.

The aid of the financiers in the United States to solve the flood situation, is sought by the Chinese government. Plans have been forwarded to Washington whereby it is hoped a scheme of saving lives and property may be floated.

The British and East Indian governments are concerned over the opposition to legislation that is manifested among the East Indies, who demand that their people be given equal treatment in all parts of the empire of Great Britain.

Miss Zelle Emmerson, American suffragist, was the center of strife be-

General News.

HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER ROY of Washington has made a rule prohibiting employes in his department from smoking while on duty in order that they may devote all their time to the office.

Reuben D. Nevins, D. D., founder of more than 30 churches in the northwest, died at Tacoma, aged 84.

Colonel A. Andrews, oldest commissioned officer in the Civil war, and the oldest Mason in California, is dead at the age of 83.

Emmet Blackington of Potlatch county, Wash., was killed in a runaway accident, and Samuel Craig was injured.

Ex-President Taft is opposed to settlement of labor disputes by compulsory arbitration, preferring the court of public opinion as the best means, according to his statement before an audience at Yale, New Haven, Conn.

What would have been a head-on collision was prevented when the automatic device derailed a runaway freight train near Joliet, Ill., leaving a Chicago bound express to pass on in safety.

Heleen Keller was enabled to hear her own voice by means of a device invented by Edison.

Harvard university and the univer-

Local News.

Mrs. Elmer Black, New York society leader, who is arranging for a series of dances to be given at the Hotel Plaza, New York for the benefit of the Consumers' League.

General Villa, Mexican rebel leader, following the movements of his men in the field.

John D. Rockefeller poses for his photograph in golfing costume, and smiles too.

Miss Marjorie Graff of Newark, N. J., who alleges that an attempt was made by white slavers to make her their victim with the use of a needle dipped in some drug, while she was in attendance at a theatre.

General Villa shaking hands with a woman admirer, before leaving Juarez for Chihuahua.

Miss Mary E. Bell, Portland woman, who as special examiner appointed by Judge Bean, has been taking testimony at Philadelphia in the federal inquiry into the affairs of the American Telephone & Telegraph company.

Mendel Bellis, recently acquitted of the charge of "ritual murder" at Kiev, Russia, replying to letters of congratulation which poured in on him from all parts of the world.

Suffragist delegation entering the White House offices to interview President Wilson.

Other News.

held separate conferences with the grand visitor and demanded that he put in writing details of the role to be assumed by the Porte toward the German military mission.

As a result of the visit of American commissioners Australia will be represented, officially, at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Some of the Australian gunboats will go to San Francisco, also military organizations.

Peace lovers of Germany are elated over the favorable action by the American house of representatives on the question of a naval holiday for the nations of the world, during which time there will be no work on a war basis.

Life boats for all is the demand of the committee on life saving appliances of the international congress on safety to passengers, says a London report.

Spanish troops routed Moorish tribesmen, after army aviators had guided the approach of the gunners. The enemy fled amid disorder and great loss of life.

Otto C. Heinze, formerly a member of the banking firm of Otto Heinze & Co. went into bankruptcy. Debts are $2,500,000.

Junius S. Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, has been made president of the Delphi club of Harvard, the most exclusive club of that college.

Dr. Cecil F. Lavell, of Philadelphia, is missing, and the police have been asked to search for him. He is professor of history of the state university at Columbus, Ohio.

Ernest and Frank Williams, negroes, were lynched by a mob at Shreveport, La., following their confession of the murder of Calvin Ballard.

It is reported that the widow of former Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, will be married to William Allen Smith of Pittsburgh.

Although he was supposed to have escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Dan Carney was found hiding in the prison, where he had been given food by confederates.

The Kansas Humane society is urging a law whereby the horses may not be worked longer than 12 hours a day. City aldermen are working in behalf of the law.

Free lunches are being served in church at Cincinnati, by Rev. A. N. Kelly. Hot soup, coffee and sandwiches are served in opposition to the saloon luncheon.

Rev. Luther E. Todd, in a sermon at St. Louis, blames the introduction of the tango dances, and other animal im-between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 from the Indianapolis banks January 1, because of friction resulting in that city over labor troubles.

International.

What is declared to be the most valuable tree in the world—the Avocado, or Alligator pear—and owned by H. A. Woodworth of Whittier, Cal., has just been insured for $30,000 against frost and fire.

The East Jordan Lumber company's mill at East Jordan was destroyed by fire, causing a loss of many thousands of dollars.

The Somers valuation system by which the valuations of all lots in the city may be fixed, has been recommended by Assessor Reed. The county commissioners are urged to try the new plan.

The gasoline launch Mimare has been put on the run between Ridgefield and Portland and will make a round trip each day.

Oil fields of the Quinault Indian reservation will be developed by eastern capitalists, says an Aberdeen, Wash., report. Work is expected to commence in three months.

To grant the demand for increase in pay would mean bankruptcy for the road, declares an official of the Burlington road in a statement made to the board of arbitration.

The sum of $500,000 will be distributed among the stockholders of the United Wireless Telegraph company, says a report of the special master, which has been confirmed by the supreme court.

Ex-President Taft is opposed to the plan of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes. He prefers the court of public opinion for adjustment of differences.

The request of the Boston & Maine railroad for the privilege of making an advance in rates, was favorably received by the Massachusetts railroad commission, with the proviso that proper safeguards to the public be promised.

Other News.

—held separate conferences with the grand visitor and demanded that he put in writing details of the role to be assumed by the Porte toward the German military mission.

As a result of the visit of American commissioners Australia will be represented, officially, at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Some of the Australian gunboats will go to San Francisco, also military organizations.

Peace lovers of Germany are elated over the favorable action by the American house of representatives on the question of a naval holiday for the nations of the world, during which time there will be no work on a war basis.

Life boats for all is the demand of the committee on life saving appliances of the international congress on safety to passengers, says a London report.

Spanish troops routed Moorish tribesmen, after army aviators had guided the approach of the gunners. The enemy fled amid disorder and great loss of life.

Otto C. Heinze, formerly a member of the banking firm of Otto Heinze & Co. went into bankruptcy. Debts are $2,500,000.

Junius S. Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, has been made president of the Delphi club of Harvard, the most exclusive club of that college.

Dr. Cecil F. Lavell, of Philadelphia, is missing, and the police have been asked to search for him. He is professor of history of the state university at Columbus, Ohio.

Ernest and Frank Williams, negroes, were lynched by a mob at Shreveport, La., following their confession of the murder of Calvin Ballard.

It is reported that the widow of former Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, will be married to William Allen Smith of Pittsburgh.

Although he was supposed to have escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Dan Carney was found hiding in the prison, where he had been given food by confederates.

The Kansas Humane society is urging a law whereby the horses may not be worked longer than 12 hours a day. City aldermen are working in behalf of the law.

Free lunches are being served in church at Cincinnati, by Rev. A. N. Kelly. Hot soup, coffee and sandwiches are served in opposition to the saloon luncheon.

Rev. Luther E. Todd, in a sermon at St. Louis, blames the introduction of the tango dances, and other animal im-

Other News.

—held separate conferences with the grand visitor and demanded that he put in writing details of the role to be assumed by the Porte toward the German military mission.

As a result of the visit of American commissioners Australia will be represented, officially, at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Some of the Australian gunboats will go to San Francisco, also military organizations.

Peace lovers of Germany are elated over the favorable action by the American house of representatives on the question of a naval holiday for the nations of the world, during which time there will be no work on a war basis.

Life boats for all is the demand of the committee on life saving appliances of the international congress on safety to passengers, says a London report.

Spanish troops routed Moorish tribesmen, after army aviators had guided the approach of the gunners. The enemy fled amid disorder and great loss of life.

Otto C. Heinze, formerly a member of the banking firm of Otto Heinze & Co. went into bankruptcy. Debts are $2,500,000.

Junius S. Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, has been made president of the Delphi club of Harvard, the most exclusive club of that college.

Dr. Cecil F. Lavell, of Philadelphia, is missing, and the police have been asked to search for him. He is professor of history of the state university at Columbus, Ohio.

Ernest and Frank Williams, negroes, were lynched by a mob at Shreveport, La., following their confession of the murder of Calvin Ballard.

It is reported that the widow of former Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, will be married to William Allen Smith of Pittsburgh.

Although he was supposed to have escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Dan Carney was found hiding in the prison, where he had been given food by confederates.

The Kansas Humane society is urging a law whereby the horses may not be worked longer than 12 hours a day. City aldermen are working in behalf of the law.

Free lunches are being served in church at Cincinnati, by Rev. A. N. Kelly. Hot soup, coffee and sandwiches are served in opposition to the saloon luncheon.

Rev. Luther E. Todd, in a sermon at St. Louis, blames the introduction of the tango dances, and other animal im-

Other News.

—held separate conferences with the grand visitor and demanded that he put in writing details of the role to be assumed by the Porte toward the German military mission.

As a result of the visit of American commissioners Australia will be represented, officially, at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Some of the Australian gunboats will go to San Francisco, also military organizations.

Peace lovers of Germany are elated over the favorable action by the American house of representatives on the question of a naval holiday for the nations of the world, during which time there will be no work on a war basis.

Life boats for all is the demand of the committee on life saving appliances of the international congress on safety to passengers, says a London report.

Spanish troops routed Moorish tribesmen, after army aviators had guided the approach of the gunners. The enemy fled amid disorder and great loss of life.

Otto C. Heinze, formerly a member of the banking firm of Otto Heinze & Co. went into bankruptcy. Debts are $2,500,000.

Junius S. Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, has been made president of the Delphi club of Harvard, the most exclusive club of that college.

Dr. Cecil F. Lavell, of Philadelphia, is missing, and the police have been asked to search for him. He is professor of history of the state university at Columbus, Ohio.

Ernest and Frank Williams, negroes, were lynched by a mob at Shreveport, La., following their confession of the murder of Calvin Ballard.

It is reported that the widow of former Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, will be married to William Allen Smith of Pittsburgh.

Although he was supposed to have escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Dan Carney was found hiding in the prison, where he had been given food by confederates.

The Kansas Humane society is urging a law whereby the horses may not be worked longer than 12 hours a day. City aldermen are working in behalf of the law.

Free lunches are being served in church at Cincinnati, by Rev. A. N. Kelly. Hot soup, coffee and sandwiches are served in opposition to the saloon luncheon.

Rev. Luther E. Todd, in a sermon at St. Louis, blames the introduction of the tango dances, and other animal im-

Other News.

—held separate conferences with the grand visitor and demanded that he put in writing details of the role to be assumed by the Porte toward the German military mission.

As a result of the visit of American commissioners Australia will be represented, officially, at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Some of the Australian gunboats will go to San Francisco, also military organizations.

Peace lovers of Germany are elated over the favorable action by the American house of representatives on the question of a naval holiday for the nations of the world, during which time there will be no work on a war basis.

Life boats for all is the demand of the committee on life saving appliances of the international congress on safety to passengers, says a London report.

Spanish troops routed Moorish tribesmen, after army aviators had guided the approach of the gunners. The enemy fled amid disorder and great loss of life.

Otto C. Heinze, formerly a member of the banking firm of Otto Heinze & Co. went into bankruptcy. Debts are $2,500,000.

Junius S. Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, has been made president of the Delphi club of Harvard, the most exclusive club of that college.

Dr. Cecil F. Lavell, of Philadelphia, is missing, and the police have been asked to search for him. He is professor of history of the state university at Columbus, Ohio.

Ernest and Frank Williams, negroes, were lynched by a mob at Shreveport, La., following their confession of the murder of Calvin Ballard.

It is reported that the widow of former Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, will be married to William Allen Smith of Pittsburgh.

Although he was supposed to have escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Dan Carney was found hiding in the prison, where he had been given food by confederates.

The Kansas Humane society is urging a law whereby the horses may not be worked longer than 12 hours a day. City aldermen are working in behalf of the law.

Free lunches are being served in church at Cincinnati, by Rev. A. N. Kelly. Hot soup, coffee and sandwiches are served in opposition to the saloon luncheon.

Rev. Luther E. Todd, in a sermon at St. Louis, blames the introduction of the tango dances, and other animal im-

Other News.

—held separate conferences with the grand visitor and demanded that he put in writing details of the role to be assumed by the Porte toward the German military mission.

As a result of the visit of American commissioners Australia will be represented, officially, at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Some of the Australian gunboats will go to San Francisco, also military organizations.

Peace lovers of Germany are elated over the favorable action by the American house of representatives on the question of a naval holiday for the nations of the world, during which time there will be no work on a war basis.

Life boats for all is the demand of the committee on life saving appliances of the international congress on safety to passengers, says a London report.

Spanish troops routed Moorish tribesmen, after army aviators had guided the approach of the gunners. The enemy fled amid disorder and great loss of life.

Otto C. Heinze, formerly a member of the banking firm of Otto Heinze & Co. went into bankruptcy. Debts are $2,500,000.

Junius S. Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, has been made president of the Delphi club of Harvard, the most exclusive club of that college.

Dr. Cecil F. Lavell, of Philadelphia, is missing, and the police have been asked to search for him. He is professor of history of the state university at Columbus, Ohio.

Ernest and Frank Williams, negroes, were lynched by a mob at Shreveport, La., following their confession of the murder of Calvin Ballard.

It is reported that the widow of former Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, will be married to William Allen Smith of Pittsburgh.

Although he was supposed to have escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Dan Carney was found hiding in the prison, where he had been given food by confederates.

The Kansas Humane society is urging a law whereby the horses may not be worked longer than 12 hours a day. City aldermen are working in behalf of the law.

Free lunches are being served in church at Cincinnati, by Rev. A. N. Kelly. Hot soup, coffee and sandwiches are served in opposition to the saloon luncheon.

Rev. Luther E. Todd, in a sermon at St. Louis, blames the introduction of the tango dances, and other animal im-

Other News.

—held separate conferences with the grand visitor and demanded that he put in writing details of the role to be assumed by the Porte toward the German military mission.

As a result of the visit of American commissioners Australia will be represented, officially, at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Some of the Australian gunboats will go to San Francisco, also military organizations.

Peace lovers of Germany are elated over the favorable action by the American house of representatives on the question of a naval holiday for the nations of the world, during which time there will be no work on a war basis.

Life boats for all is the demand of the committee on life saving appliances of the international congress on safety to passengers, says a London report.

Spanish troops routed Moorish tribesmen, after army aviators had guided the approach of the gunners. The enemy fled amid disorder and great loss of life.

Otto C. Heinze, formerly a member of the banking firm of Otto Heinze & Co. went into bankruptcy. Debts are $2,500,000.

Junius S. Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, has been made president of the Delphi club of Harvard, the most exclusive club of that college.

Dr. Cecil F. Lavell, of Philadelphia, is missing, and the police have been asked to search for him. He is professor of history of the state university at Columbus, Ohio.

Ernest and Frank Williams, negroes, were lynched by a mob at Shreveport, La., following their confession of the murder of Calvin Ballard.

It is reported that the widow of former Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, will be married to William Allen Smith of Pittsburgh.

Although he was supposed to have escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Dan Carney was found hiding in the prison, where he had been given food by confederates.

The Kansas Humane society is urging a law whereby the horses may not be worked longer than 12 hours a day. City aldermen are working in behalf of the law.

Free lunches are being served in church at Cincinnati, by Rev. A. N. Kelly. Hot soup, coffee and sandwiches are served in opposition to the saloon luncheon.

Rev. Luther E. Todd, in a sermon at St. Louis, blames the introduction of the tango dances, and other animal im-

Other News.

PERFECT HEARING FOR THE DEAF

The Little Gem Ear Phone and Auto Massage

The simplest, smallest and most effective hearing device ever shown. It is used under all conditions—in church, theatre, general conversation. Message stops head noise and improves hearing.

Call for Free Demonstration.

Woodard, Clarke & Co.

SOLE AGENTS

Exclusive Agents Write for Booklet.