

SPLENDID MUSIC WILL BE HEARD AT BENEFIT FOR POOR TOMORROW

Best Singers of State Will Be Heard; Collection Taken Will All Go to Needy.

With most of the highest popular appeal and singers who are numbered among the best of Oregon, a concert for the benefit of the needy at this Christmas time will be given, beginning at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening in the First Presbyterian church. Among the soloists to be heard are Mrs. Elfrida Heller Weinstein, Mrs. Delphine Marx, Stuart McGuire and Dom Zan. At the organ will be William R. Boone, and Mrs. Lucia Barton Gillhauser will render a selection on the violin.

Among the most delightful features will be the music of the Ad Club quartet, ranked by many as the best quartet on the Pacific coast. Its members are N. A. Hoose, first tenor; Dr. R. M. Emerson, second tenor; H. G. Whipp, baritone, and M. L. Bowman, bass.

No admission fee is to be charged, but a collection will be taken. As all the program contribute their services, and there is no charge for the use of the church, every cent of the collection will be used in helping those who need help. The program, as it has been arranged, reads as follows:

JAPAN CONTRIBUTES TO STRING OF DANCES

Washington, Dec. 20.—The "no mal," the classic dance of Japan, was introduced in Washington today by Mrs. Elsie J. Blattner and her daughter, Miss Clara Blattner, and many dance-lovers in the audience at once decided to take lessons. The "no mal," which is a leading feature of the Japanese drama, "No," will have to be modified to be danced by American girls. As danced in Japan, the costumes are handed down from one generation to another and the dancer must be sewed in it. But several debutantes are already having costumes made which embody the same effect, and in place of the heavy busie, which is a leading feature of the costume, they will wear a broad, heavy, looped satin sash.

French Funeral Takes Place Today.
The funeral of James M. French, who died a few days ago, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Finley Undertaking parlors. The remains will then be taken to the crematorium. The deceased was aged 63 years, being a native of Indiana. He moved to the west 17 years ago, locating at Elsworth, Clarke county, Wash., where he established a fruit farm. During the gold rush to Alaska several years ago Mr. French spent several months in the Winters' Slayer Asks New Trial.

A new trial is asked for Lloyd H. Wilkins, convicted several weeks ago of the murder of Lou L. Winters, a musician, in a motion filed yesterday by Attorneys Edward D. Williams and Wilson T. Hume. Insufficiency of evidence and errors are the grounds for the motion. The motion will come up before Circuit Judge Morrow who convicted Wilkins. Wilkins is to be sentenced next Tuesday. The only sentence for first degree murder, of which he was convicted, is death.

gold fields. Six years ago he came to Portland where he established a real county. He is survived by a wife and estate office in the Abington building, two children.

CHRISTMAS CARD IS UNUSUALLY HANDSOME

The Christmas card—fancifully shaped, gaily colored and significantly lettered, bearing everything from the two magic words, "Merry Christmas" to verses breathing the tenderest sentiment—has been a part of civilization for hundreds of years.

The simple bit of pasteboard of early days has evolved itself into something really beautiful, and this season Raphael Tuck & Son have brought out cards, folders, Christmas stationery, booklets, etc., that are nothing short of genuine works of art—bits of exquisite color and holiday verse that cannot fail to be appreciated by anyone fortunate enough to receive one of them.

Calendars which have long been a strong point with the Raphael Tuck company, are this year more beautiful than ever. An especially pretty one is based on Longfellow's "Children's Hour," and for each month of the year there is a verse from this beloved poem and a picture of a beautiful child. Another, "My Ain Fireside," contains verses from Bobbie Burns and beautifully colored reproductions from paintings of Scotch studies. Then there are Tennyson and Wordsworth calendars, and one showing reproductions from the old masters.

Most attractive to the little people are some of the gaily colored volumes of children's stories, together with "cut-out" pictures of various kinds. Father Tuck's Annual, a substantial volume, done in color, would delight the heart of any child. Art and ingenuity have combined their best efforts in producing dainty cards and folders as Christmas reminders. They range from the simple, inexpensive postcard to superb studies bound in vellum.

Christmas stationery, which is one of the comparatively new things in holiday greetings, is to be had in great variety and chaste beauty from the Raphael Tuck stock. The Christmas tags, stickers, etc., put out by this firm are much sought because they are "different."

Butter-nut Bread

gets high rating and IS ONE of the THREE leaders!

WHY?

FACTS About Butter-nut Bread

Butter-nut bread is the result of careful study and scientific experimentation covering a period of 10 years. This loaf is made from the finest Spring wheat flour milled blended with the highest grade of Winter wheat flour. We also use milk and compressed yeast, which materials we have found from careful tests to be the best in the market for bread. All ingredients are accurately weighed by automatic scales, the flours carefully blended. Our machines are the latest type and we sift the flour three times and the doughs are thoroughly mixed by a giant two-arm dough mixer. The doughs are scaled and made up in the cleanest way, all by machines. The ovens are tiled and they are washed and shining—we fire them with oil from beneath—this does away with ashes and fumes in the baking chamber—the baking chamber is snow white. Our method of handling bread is so scientific and accurate that one dough has identically the same treatment as another—this making our Butter-nut Bread the finest and most uniform loaf manufactured. Our delivery service at present consists of 10 wagons, attractively painted, covering the center of Portland, and you find our men are courteous and taking pains in your wants. Give us a trial and be convinced.
