STREETCAR OVERTURNS IN ROUNDING CURVE

A Woodlawn street car sturned half turtle this morning at 6:30 o'clock at Union and Dekum avenues, when it attempted to make the corner at too high a speed. Frank Russell, the motorman, escaped infury, but Edward Moilenhaur, conductor, received bruises that kept him from work the rest of in conductor. in connection with the controversy and most of them counseled "harmony." The car was making its first trip to the end of the line. On account of darkness, the motorman did not notice the curve until it was too late to avoid an accident. The car toppled to the north side of the track on Dekum avenue, completely clearing the rails, so later traffic was not delayed.
