OREGONIANS MAKING PROTEST AGAINST CU IN THE MAIL SERVICE

Rearrangement of the Star reply: Routes Brings New Problems of Curtailment.

Washington, Jan. 2 .- In attempting apointment as soon as practicable. to Frarrange the star routes in Oregon

New bids for transporting the mail on star routes will be let July 1, and bids for the service will be invited in a very short time. Meanwhile appeals are being received by the senators and representatives of Oregon from all over the state to have the service improved rather than curtailed. Both Senator Chamberlain and Senator Lane have had a large amount of correspondence with the postoffice de partment and have made a number of personal calls on this subject.

The Baker Commercial club and many business men of Baker, acting independently, have taken up the ques tion of giving better rural mail service in that part of the state. Senator Lane has been informed by the department that shortly after January 20. proposals will be invited for special and Miller.
