

EVENTS IN SOCIETY

talked on the board of fortifications. Mrs. Morrison, who expected to accompany him, found at the last moment that there was not transportation for her, so she has decided to remain at the post until Colonel Morrison returns. He will be absent one month.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Young of Hooper, Wash., who have been guests of Colonel and Mrs. Young for the past week, left Wednesday for Seattle.

The Bridge Tournament club met Tuesday evening at the quarters of Lieutenant and Mrs. John B. Richardson. Dainty refreshments were served.

Captain Edmund S. Sayer Jr. was host at a hop supper at the intimate hop which was given Friday night.

Captain and Mrs. George S. Tiffany gave a dinner Friday night at their quarters.

Captain Howland entertained at a prettily appointed dinner Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Young of Hooper, Wash.

Mrs. George S. Young entertained on Friday afternoon with a charmingly appointed tea in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard Young who passed the holidays with her.

Miss Polly Young, who is the guest of Miss Harriet Ramsey of San Francisco, will return to her home about the last of January.

Colonel Rudolph G. Ebert, who is in command of the western division of the medical corps, returned Tuesday to San Francisco, where he is stationed after spending Christmas with his mother in Vancouver.

Mrs. Herbert C. Gibber entertained at dinner Thursday night. The guests were Major and Mrs. Joseph C. Castner, Major and Mrs. Jere B. Clayton, Captain and Mrs. Samuel V. Ham, Lieutenant and Mrs. John C. Fairfax and Dr. and Mrs. Charles King.

The Christmas tree and exercises of St. Luke's Sunday school were held in the parish house on Friday night. Many of the children of the post were present and greatly enjoyed the program and tree.

There was merry making at the officers' club on the last night of the old year. Many of the officers and their wives were present and spent the evening in cards and in dancing. The orchestra of the Twenty-first regiment band furnished the music during the evening. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent.

Among the officers who attended the New Year's reception given by Colonel Charles H. Manning, United States army, retired, now commanding the Oregon National Guard, to the officers and friends of the Portland guardsmen, was Captain Edward McLaughlin, Captain McLaughlin was until very recently stationed at Vancouver Barracks.

Miss Ruth Kinnison, daughter of Captain Henry L. Kinnison, who has been spending the holidays as the house guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. George C. Rockwell, has returned to Corvallis, where she is attending school.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Rutherford S. Hartz and their two children are spending the holidays at their home, all, as the guests of Mrs. Hartz's mother.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Walter O. Boswell were hosts at Christmas dinner to the bachelor officers of the post. The guests were Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold H. Talbot, Lieutenant Gustav J. Gonsler, Captain Carroll F. Aemlin, Lieutenant Frank J. Riley, Captain Edmund S. Sayer Jr., Lieutenant Frank V. Schneider, Lieutenant Philip B. Fleming, who has only recently arrived and been in the company of C. P. engineers, and Lieutenant Lee B. Davis.

WEDDINGS

A very pretty home wedding took place Thursday evening, December 31, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Knudsen, whose daughter, Louise, was united in marriage to Wert Goodrich Broderick of Seattle, Wash., by Rev. J. G. Boyd of the First Presbyterian church. To the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Thya Knudsen, the bride came in leaning on the arm of her father. She looked charming in a beautiful gown of white crepe-de-chine with full overdress of white lace. Her full-length veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Bena Edwards of Seattle was bridesmaid and was crowned in pale pink mesalline with chiffon overdress and carried pink carnations.

Carl Knudsen, a brother of the bride, acted as best man. Congratulations were offered and a delicious supper was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Broderick left on a short wedding trip and will be at home in Seattle, Wash., after January 15.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Kibbe, the groom's parents, of 66 Lucretia street, at 8:15 p. m. Christmas day, Rev. Dr. Morrison of Trinity Episcopal church performed the ceremony that united in the holy bonds of wedlock Wallace Lea Kibbe and Miss Ethel Erickson. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. Mr. Kibbe is a member of the composing room staff of F. W. Bates & Co., and among the presents received by the happy couple was an elegant set of table silverware bearing the inscription, "To Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lea Kibbe from his fellow workers of F. W. Bates & Co." Mr. Kibbe is also a student of the University of Oregon law school. Miss Goff's home is at Salt Lake City, Utah. She has been visiting Portland friends for the past few months.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graber, at 188 West Webster street, Portland, Or., on Wednesday evening, December 31, at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Louise Emily, became the bride of Arthur McAllister, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McAllister, also of Portland.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Mrs. P. S. Reese sang "O, Perfect Love." The bridal couple entered the parlor unattended to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Henry Graber Jr., and took their places under a bower of ferns and evergreens, where the ring service was performed by the Rev. Bowersox.

The bride was prettily gowned in pale cream oharneau, embellished with silk chantilly lace and real pearl trimmings and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Miss Anna McAllister, sister of the groom, caught the bride's bouquet. A number of immediate relatives of the respective families and friends were present.

The rooms were charmingly decorated in keeping with the Yuletide. The bridal couple have taken apartments in the Godfrey court, where they will be at home to their friends.

A popular wedding took place in Concoctully, Wash., December 29, when Miss Rose Fries of this city was married to Mr. John P. Adam of Concoctully, Wash., the Hon. E. K. Pendergast, judge of the superior court of Okanogan county, Wash., officiating. Both parties are well known in Portland. Miss Fries is an accomplished musician and Mr. Adam is a successful merchant.

The happy couple expect to make their home in Concoctully, Wash., where Mr. Adam has business interests.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Marie and Robert T. Lines, which was solemnized on Thursday, December 25, at Saint Rose church, the Rev. Father Conaty officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Keating and the bride's brother, Robert W. Beck, acted as best man.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Bertel and a solo was sung by Mrs. H. J. Lambert.

The bride was most beautifully attired in a gown of white crepe meteor. The upper line of the dress was embroidered with orange blossom pattern. The corsage was entirely of point de Venise lace draped with satin cord and white silk ribbons. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hilgers, 1137 East Broadway. A reception was held from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock in the evening. The bride and groom stood in the receiving line under a canopy banked with rosebushes and red roses. The house was artistically decorated in the Christmas color scheme. Many beautiful gifts were received.

After January 1st Mr. and Mrs. Lines will be home to their friends at 606 East Alder street.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Hunt (Rhea Kiger), a bride and bridegroom of the past week.

which Mr. and Mrs. Broderick left on a short wedding trip and will be at home in Seattle, Wash., after January 15.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Kibbe, the groom's parents, of 66 Lucretia street, at 8:15 p. m. Christmas day, Rev. Dr. Morrison of Trinity Episcopal church performed the ceremony that united in the holy bonds of wedlock Wallace Lea Kibbe and Miss Ethel Erickson. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. Mr. Kibbe is a member of the composing room staff of F. W. Bates & Co., and among the presents received by the happy couple was an elegant set of table silverware bearing the inscription, "To Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lea Kibbe from his fellow workers of F. W. Bates & Co." Mr. Kibbe is also a student of the University of Oregon law school. Miss Goff's home is at Salt Lake City, Utah. She has been visiting Portland friends for the past few months.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graber, at 188 West Webster street, Portland, Or., on Wednesday evening, December 31, at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Louise Emily, became the bride of Arthur McAllister, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McAllister, also of Portland.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Mrs. P. S. Reese sang "O, Perfect Love." The bridal couple entered the parlor unattended to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Henry Graber Jr., and took their places under a bower of ferns and evergreens, where the ring service was performed by the Rev. Bowersox.

The bride was prettily gowned in pale cream oharneau, embellished with silk chantilly lace and real pearl trimmings and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Miss Anna McAllister, sister of the groom, caught the bride's bouquet. A number of immediate relatives of the respective families and friends were present.

The rooms were charmingly decorated in keeping with the Yuletide. The bridal couple have taken apartments in the Godfrey court, where they will be at home to their friends.

A popular wedding took place in Concoctully, Wash., December 29, when Miss Rose Fries of this city was married to Mr. John P. Adam of Concoctully, Wash., the Hon. E. K. Pendergast, judge of the superior court of Okanogan county, Wash., officiating. Both parties are well known in Portland. Miss Fries is an accomplished musician and Mr. Adam is a successful merchant.

The happy couple expect to make their home in Concoctully, Wash., where Mr. Adam has business interests.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Marie and Robert T. Lines, which was solemnized on Thursday, December 25, at Saint Rose church, the Rev. Father Conaty officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Keating and the bride's brother, Robert W. Beck, acted as best man.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Bertel and a solo was sung by Mrs. H. J. Lambert.

The bride was most beautifully attired in a gown of white crepe meteor. The upper line of the dress was embroidered with orange blossom pattern. The corsage was entirely of point de Venise lace draped with satin cord and white silk ribbons. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hilgers, 1137 East Broadway. A reception was held from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock in the evening. The bride and groom stood in the receiving line under a canopy banked with rosebushes and red roses. The house was artistically decorated in the Christmas color scheme. Many beautiful gifts were received.

After January 1st Mr. and Mrs. Lines will be home to their friends at 606 East Alder street.

their home in Concoctully, Wash., where Mr. Adam has business interests.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Marie and Robert T. Lines, which was solemnized on Thursday, December 25, at Saint Rose church, the Rev. Father Conaty officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Keating and the bride's brother, Robert W. Beck, acted as best man.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Bertel and a solo was sung by Mrs. H. J. Lambert.

The bride was most beautifully attired in a gown of white crepe meteor. The upper line of the dress was embroidered with orange blossom pattern. The corsage was entirely of point de Venise lace draped with satin cord and white silk ribbons. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hilgers, 1137 East Broadway. A reception was held from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock in the evening. The bride and groom stood in the receiving line under a canopy banked with rosebushes and red roses. The house was artistically decorated in the Christmas color scheme. Many beautiful gifts were received.

After January 1st Mr. and Mrs. Lines will be home to their friends at 606 East Alder street.

On Wednesday evening, December 31, at 110 Omaha avenue, Bennett F. Hunt of 501 Rodney avenue and Miss Rhea C. Kiger of 411 Spokane avenue were united in matrimony.

The ceremony was officiated at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. J. Bowersox, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will be at home at the Peninsula apartments.

The early first hours of January 1, 1914, found Edward W. Countiss and Miss Pearl L. Bennett at the residence of Rev. J. Bowersox, who united them in marriage in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Clinton, Misses Abbie and Fawnie Bennett, sisters of the bride, June 24, Taylor, James and the bride and Alpha Bevans. The early hour lent cheer and enthusiasm to the well wishes given them.

They are at home to their friends at 110 East Simpson street, this city.

Attended by a large number of relatives and friends a pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Johnson, 484 East Twelfth street, north, when their daughter Esther Carabe and William T. Matson were united in marriage. Rev. B. Thoren officiated at the ceremony. The maid of honor was Mrs. George Teeters and the bridesmaids were Miss Mabel Thompson and Miss Esther Carabe. The bride's niece, little Alice Kahlen, and Helen Larson, were the flower girls. G. Carlson and Joseph Carabe were the best men. The rooms were artistically decorated with palms, ferns and flowers. The bride was attired in a becoming gown of brocade charmeuse and wore a well fitting tulle. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The wedding march was played by Miss Esther Larson. During the serving of refreshments Mrs. Yetta Nordstrom favored with piano solos, while Miss Fay Smith, Joseph Heden and Ernest Nelson pleased with vocal numbers. Miss Mildred Bennison served the punch. F. H. Haines expressed the congratulations on behalf of all present and read a number of telegrams from friends of the bride and groom. The presents were many and beautiful. The couple upon their return from their honeymoon in California will be at home to their friends at 110 East Twelfth street, north, after February 1.

In the first hour of January first, 1914, J. W. Lemmon of 1111 Michigan avenue and Juanita M. Taylor of 85 East Emerson street approached the marital altar and were by Rev. J. Bowersox, at 1170 Omaha avenue, united in marriage.

Present at the impressive service were, Alpha Bevans, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Countiss, Miss Abbie Bennett and Miss Fawnie Bennett.

The early New Year's morning lent cheer to the congratulations of their guests.

They will shortly be at home to their friends at 1240 Missouri avenue this city.

On Christmas eve, December 24, Flatoff P. Jenne and S. Belle Beard were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, 31 East Seventy-ninth street, north, Dr. S. W. Seemann of the Hope Presbyterian church performed the ceremony in the presence of a few near relatives and friends.

Mr. Jenne is the son of pioneer parents who crossed the plains in 1852. He is a native of West Virginia, but has lived in Oregon for the last 15 years. Mr. and Mrs. Jenne left for a trip to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C. and will be at home to their friends after January 15, at their new country home Jenne-Lynn Heights, Gresham, Oregon.

On New Year's day at high noon in the First Presbyterian church the marriage of Mr. Chester Wright Dewey of White Salmon, Wash., and Miss Henrietta Marguerite Murphy of Portland, was solemnized. Miss Murphy was dressed in white silk, with real lace trimmings and carried a corsage bouquet of white orchids. Mrs. Addie Jane Hubbard of 446 Belmont street acted as bridesmaid. Dr. John H. Boyd performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey will pass the rest of the winter in Portland, and in the spring will take up their residence at the former's ranch in White Salmon.

A simple home wedding took place at 940 Belmont street New Year's day at 4 p. m., when N. Bradford Hall and Lucille Haxl were united in marriage. Rev. W. O. Shank officiating. None but immediate relatives were present. A family reunion and dinner followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will be at home after January 15 at 949 East Salmon street.

At St. Johns Episcopal church the marriage of Orless Royce and Miss Alice May Newton, two popular young people of Sellwood, was solemnized the afternoon of New Year's day by the Rev. John D. Rice. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Newton, 1732 East Seventeenth street. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on a brief wedding trip.

A very pretty church wedding was celebrated on Wednesday evening, December 31, at Laurelwood Congregational church, Sixty-fifth street and Forty-fifth avenue, southeast, when Miss Lois Gertrude Snider, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Snider, was united in marriage to Arthur Edward Hanson. Rev. James H. Krodell, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Rev. William H. Meyer. The bride was daintily gowned in white silk with allover lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Agnes Clark as maid of honor, who was also attired in white lingerie, elaborately embroidered, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ring bearer and flower girl were the Misses Katherine and Dorothy Snider, sisters of the bride. The groom was attended by Jay Clark as best man. The ushers were Leslie Morgan and William Clark.

The bride was carried to the altar by Patience Woolworth and Mrs. Earl C. Arnold sang "O, Promise Me" very effectively.

The decorations were pink and white, which effect was also very beautifully carried out at the reception, which was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hanson, 4084 Sixty-third street, southeast.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Huffman of Gaston, Oregon, Tuesday, December 30, this being the bride's twentieth birthday. Miss Mabel G. Hoffman, their youngest daughter, was united in marriage to John L. Coatey of Los Angeles, Cal.

The bride and groom were both students of the Laurelwood academy. The bride was attired in net over white silk and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Elder Wyman of Meadow Glade, Washington, performed the ceremony.

The happy couple left for California, where they will make their home, amid wishes of love and best wishes of their many friends.

Miss Myrtle Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, and Bernard McNeil, an employe of the Standard Oil company, were quietly married December 24.

EVENTS OF WEEK

Miss Ethel Erickson entertained a number of her friends Monday evening with an old fashioned Christmas party. Appropriate presents were distributed from the Christmas tree, after which dancing was enjoyed. Among those present were: Miss Lela Johnson, Miss Carrie Johnson, Miss Blanche Waller, Miss Zella Rockett, Miss Olive Lindgren, Miss Nellie Wainne, Miss Maude Gullnas, Miss Ruby Nelson, Archibald Myers, Frank Soderback, Harold M. Colm, Albert Johnson, H. J. Pearson, A. B. Neller, Walter Erickson.

Miss Mary Hegardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hegardt, entertained at a prettily appointed dinner at her home Tuesday evening. The rooms were artistically decorated in the Christmas colors. Covers were laid for the following: The Misses Ruth Walter, Doris Mau, Rose Klesendahl and the hostess and Messrs. Vance, Ferguson, Joyce Kelly, Harold Schadle and Herbert Sessions. The evening was spent at cards and dancing.

Wednesday evening the initial dancing party was given in Cotillion hall, the splendid new edifice at the corner of Fourth and Taylor streets. The dance was under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Park entertained the Priscilla Needle club at her home, 698 Irving street. Places were laid for eight. The house was decorated with colors of the season. The table decorations were carried out in holly. Those present were: Mrs. S. J. Davis, Elenor Hill, Mrs. Grover Kestley, Mrs. Louis Sedgast, Mrs. R. L. Walker, Mrs. William Weyland.

A pleasant event of the holiday season was a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Soderback on New Year's eve. Entertainment for the evening was furnished by the following: Miss Lela Johnson and Abraham Nelson, demonstrating the new dances; Myrtle Mrs. Hines, Louise Kelly, Rockett and William Johnson, presenting a pretty pantomime, "In the Shadows." Dancing, "500" and refreshments followed. About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. J. Schurr celebrated her birthday at 872 East Couch street December 30. The decorations were red and green holly and a beautiful Christmas tree. An elaborate dinner was served. Mrs. Ella B. Jones and Mary Schurr presided at the piano. Those present were: Mrs. Ludwig, Mrs. Lassalle, Mrs. Henrik, Mrs. Matthias, Miss C. Mathias, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Elsa Wagner, Dolly Degner, Raymond Williams, Mary Schurr, Ida Schurr and Ella B. Jones.

The Amateur Fencing club of Vancouver, Wash., entertained Saturday evening about 20 of their friends from Portland and Vancouver in Columbia hotel parlors, Vancouver. Five hundred was played the first of the evening. Miss Alice Brown and Carl Worner winning the honors. Miss Louise Lewis received the consolation prize. One of the features of the evening was a sphinx placed in the front parlor which everyone was supposed to visit during the evening.

Dancing commenced shortly after 10 o'clock and continued until midnight. The committee in charge was: Leslie L. Comer, president; Ralph S. Merrifield, Harold J. Roberts and Lawrence M. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marsh and Mrs. G. F. Comer were patrons and patronesses of the evening.

The hall was very attractively decorated with evergreen, holly and mistletoe.

The Portland Art club met Tuesday afternoon at East Sixth and Alder streets for a card party. Miss Roper was hostess and card honors fell to Mrs. Hattie Lampert, Mrs. Hamilton, Montrose M. Ringler and the patronesses were Mrs. Paul Van Fridach, Mrs. P. J. Irvine, Mrs. E. E. Jagger, Mrs. Robert Tegen, Mrs. F. L. Litherland, Mrs. H. G. Rice, Mrs. M. M. Ringler and Mrs. F. T. Collier.

The Illabees Riding club celebrated the New Year by extending their greetings in person to such of their friends as keep open house on New Year's day.

The club met at the Portland Riding Academy at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, where they took their mounts and proceeded on their journey to the many homes which have extended a cordial welcome. There were about 20 riders in all, with their bugler and two groomers.

Mrs. A. J. Bundy entertained the Harmony Public Improvement society at her home near Leas, Wednesday, December 31. The usual good dinner was enjoyed by the society, and 14 afternoon was devoted to business. The officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Emma Spooone was re-elected president; Mrs. Pearl Bundy was elected vice-president; Miss Orie Davis, who has served several years as secretary, was re-elected, and Mrs. Daisy Ulen was made treasurer. A very good literary program was given, after which the members employed the time until evening by visiting and preparing for the amusement of the visitors and children who had been invited for the supper and watch meeting. At 7 o'clock about 75 people sat down to a bountiful meal, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The evening was given over to games and music. A guessing contest was held for the older ones present, at which Miss Orie Davis and Mrs. E. R. Spooner won the prize. When the New Year arrived all cheered for their homes, feeling that a very pleasant evening had been spent.

Wednesday evening the Misses Sallie and Agnes Loftus presided at a prettily appointed luncheon in the red dining room of the Mallory hotel, in compliment to Miss Rose Youngbluth of Spokane. Covers were laid for seven. Among those present were the Misses Rose Youngbluth, Mary Gene Smith, Frances Hines, Louise Kelly, Vinsen Gorman, Sallie and Agnes Loftus.

Mrs. Sarah Mayo was hostess to a dinner party Sunday, December 28, in honor of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wilkins of Corvallis. They will leave the first of the year to make their home near Santa Barbara, Cal. Mrs. Mayo's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Flora Bolter, Miss Mary Hoy, Miss Gladys Moore, Dr. Harry Stone and Dr. Frank Pirey.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Peter Park entertained the Priscilla Needle club at her home, 698 Irving street. Places were laid for eight. The house was decorated with colors of the season. The table decorations were carried out in holly. Those present were: Mrs. S. J. Davis, Elenor Hill, Mrs. Grover Kestley, Mrs. Louis Sedgast, Mrs. R. L. Walker, Mrs. William Weyland.

A pleasant event of the holiday season was a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Soderback on New Year's eve. Entertainment for the evening was furnished by the following: Miss Lela Johnson and Abraham Nelson, demonstrating the new dances; Myrtle Mrs. Hines, Louise Kelly, Rockett and William Johnson, presenting a pretty pantomime, "In the Shadows." Dancing, "500" and refreshments followed. About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. J. Schurr celebrated her birthday at 872 East Couch street December 30. The decorations were red and green holly and a beautiful Christmas tree. An elaborate dinner was served. Mrs. Ella B. Jones and Mary Schurr presided at the piano. Those present were: Mrs. Ludwig, Mrs. Lassalle, Mrs. Henrik, Mrs. Matthias, Miss C. Mathias, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Elsa Wagner, Dolly Degner, Raymond Williams, Mary Schurr, Ida Schurr and Ella B. Jones.

The Amateur Fencing club of Vancouver, Wash., entertained Saturday evening about 20 of their friends from Portland and Vancouver in Columbia hotel parlors, Vancouver. Five hundred was played the first of the evening. Miss Alice Brown and Carl Worner winning the honors. Miss Louise Lewis received the consolation prize. One of the features of the evening was a sphinx placed in the front parlor which everyone was supposed to visit during the evening.

Dancing commenced shortly after 10 o'clock and continued until midnight. The committee in charge was: Leslie L. Comer, president; Ralph S. Merrifield, Harold J. Roberts and Lawrence M. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marsh and Mrs. G. F. Comer were patrons and patronesses of the evening.

The hall was very attractively decorated with evergreen, holly and mistletoe.

The Portland Art club met Tuesday afternoon at East Sixth and Alder streets for a card party. Miss Roper was hostess and card honors fell to Mrs. Hattie Lampert, Mrs. Hamilton, Montrose M. Ringler and the patronesses were Mrs. Paul Van Fridach, Mrs. P. J. Irvine, Mrs. E. E. Jagger, Mrs. Robert Tegen, Mrs. F. L. Litherland, Mrs. H. G. Rice, Mrs. M. M. Ringler and Mrs. F. T. Collier.

The Illabees Riding club celebrated the New Year by extending their greetings in person to such of their friends as keep open house on New Year's day.

The club met at the Portland Riding Academy at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, where they took their mounts and proceeded on their journey to the many homes which have extended a cordial welcome. There were about 20 riders in all, with their bugler and two groomers.

Mrs. A. J. Bundy entertained the Harmony Public Improvement society at her home near Leas, Wednesday, December 31. The usual good dinner was enjoyed by the society, and 14 afternoon was devoted to business. The officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Emma Spooone was re-elected president; Mrs. Pearl Bundy was elected vice-president; Miss Orie Davis, who has served several years as secretary, was re-elected, and Mrs. Daisy Ulen was made treasurer. A very good literary program was given, after which the members employed the time until evening by visiting and preparing for the amusement of the visitors and children who had been invited for the supper and watch meeting. At 7 o'clock about 75 people sat down to a bountiful meal, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The evening was given over to games and music. A guessing contest was held for the older ones present, at which Miss Orie Davis and Mrs. E. R. Spooner won the prize. When the New Year arrived all cheered for their homes, feeling that a very pleasant evening had been spent.

ing a pretty pantomime, "In the Shadows." Dancing, "500" and refreshments followed. About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. J. Schurr celebrated her birthday at 872 East Couch street December 30. The decorations were red and green holly and a beautiful Christmas tree. An elaborate dinner was served. Mrs. Ella B. Jones and Mary Schurr presided at the piano. Those present were: Mrs. Ludwig, Mrs. Lassalle, Mrs. Henrik, Mrs. Matthias, Miss C. Mathias, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Elsa Wagner, Dolly Degner, Raymond Williams, Mary Schurr, Ida Schurr and Ella B. Jones.

The Amateur Fencing club of Vancouver, Wash., entertained Saturday evening about 20 of their friends from Portland and Vancouver in Columbia hotel parlors, Vancouver. Five hundred was played the first of the evening. Miss Alice Brown and Carl Worner winning the honors. Miss Louise Lewis received the consolation prize. One of the features of the evening was a sphinx placed in the front parlor which everyone was supposed to visit during the evening.

Dancing commenced shortly after 10 o'clock and continued until midnight. The committee in charge was: Leslie L. Comer, president; Ralph S. Merrifield, Harold J. Roberts and Lawrence M. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marsh and Mrs. G. F. Comer were patrons and patronesses of the evening.

The hall was very attractively decorated with evergreen, holly and mistletoe.

The Portland Art club met Tuesday afternoon at East Sixth and Alder streets for a card party. Miss Roper was hostess and card honors fell to Mrs. Hattie Lampert, Mrs. Hamilton, Montrose M. Ringler and the patronesses were Mrs. Paul Van Fridach, Mrs. P. J. Irvine, Mrs. E. E. Jagger, Mrs. Robert Tegen, Mrs. F. L. Litherland, Mrs. H. G. Rice, Mrs. M. M. Ringler and Mrs. F. T. Collier.

The Illabees Riding club celebrated the New Year by extending their greetings in person to such of their friends as keep open house on New Year's day.

The club met at the Portland Riding Academy at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, where they took their mounts and proceeded on their journey to the many homes which have extended a cordial welcome. There were about 20 riders in all, with their bugler and two groomers.

Mrs. A. J. Bundy entertained the Harmony Public Improvement society at her home near Leas, Wednesday, December 31. The usual good dinner was enjoyed by the society, and 14 afternoon was devoted to business. The officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Emma Spooone was re-elected president; Mrs. Pearl Bundy was elected vice-president; Miss Orie Davis, who has served several years as secretary, was re-elected, and Mrs. Daisy Ulen was made treasurer. A very good literary program was given, after which the members employed the time until evening by visiting and preparing for the amusement of the visitors and children who had been invited for the supper and watch meeting. At 7 o'clock about 75 people sat down to a bountiful meal, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The evening was given over to games and music. A guessing contest was held for the older ones present, at which Miss Orie Davis and Mrs. E. R. Spooner won the prize. When the New Year arrived all cheered for their homes, feeling that a very pleasant evening had been spent.

Wednesday evening the Misses Sallie and Agnes Loftus presided at a prettily appointed luncheon in the red dining room of the Mallory hotel, in compliment to Miss Rose Youngbluth of Spokane. Covers were laid for seven. Among those present were the Misses Rose Youngbluth, Mary Gene Smith, Frances Hines, Louise Kelly, Vinsen Gorman, Sallie and Agnes Loftus.

Mrs. Sarah Mayo was hostess to a dinner party Sunday, December 28, in honor of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wilkins of Corvallis. They will leave the first of the year to make their home near Santa Barbara, Cal. Mrs. Mayo's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Flora Bolter, Miss Mary Hoy, Miss Gladys Moore, Dr. Harry Stone and Dr. Frank Pirey.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Peter Park entertained the Priscilla Needle club at her home, 698 Irving street. Places were laid for eight. The house was decorated with colors of the season. The table decorations were carried out in holly. Those present were: Mrs. S. J. Davis, Elenor Hill, Mrs