

THAW'S SANITY NOT QUESTION—JEROME

Problem Merely Whether He Can Be Extradited, Says New York Lawyer.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Jan. 9.—"The question of Harry Thaw's sanity has nothing to do with the case pending before United States Judge Aldrich at Concord," said ex-District Attorney William T. Jerome here today. "The question before Judge Aldrich is whether Thaw can be extradited on a charge of complicity in the conspiracy to get him out of Matteawan."
"I am not appearing before the commission engaged in looking into the case at Concord at present because I do not want to expose New York state to ridicule by taking part in a proceeding to determine whether to admit Thaw to bail. Besides, the limitations the commission imposed would have made it impossible for me adequately to show Thaw's mental condition."
"But I shall appear before Judge Aldrich later."

ORDERLY REQUESTS FOR FOOD TO BE PERMITTED

Orderly requests for bread and food supplies will be tolerated by Municipal Judge Stevenson, but demands and threats will result in rockpile sentences, and long ones at that.
This is the judge's idea as expressed this morning in the case of three men arrested yesterday by Patrolman Sims at the U. S. bakery on East Eleventh street. The men demanded bread at this place, said the officer, but the men said they merely asked for bread. The judge dismissed them, with the warning that decent requests would be allowed, but nothing offensive tolerated.
John Marshall, two months in Portland from Chicago, was in court as spokesman for the men. He is a member of the executive committee of the Unemployed league. He says he has been unable to get work. A statement signed by H. J. Plummer, M. G. Farrell, Edward F. Walsh and William Hunt was used by the solicitor, in which the appeal for assistance is made.
With money in his pocket, William Rogers sought to get a meal last evening for nothing in a restaurant at First and Madison streets. He ate, then refused to pay. Patrolman Sherwood came along at this time and made the arrest. A fine of $10 was imposed this morning in the municipal court.
Light Rays Are Blamed.
Ultraviolet light rays are blamed for the fading of specimens in European museums and a search is being made for a glass for cases that will cut off the rays and at the same time be colorless and inexpensive.

ENGAGED TO MARRY KERMIT ROOSEVELT

Miss Belle Willard, daughter of Joseph E. Willard, United States ambassador to Spain, whose engagement to Kermit Roosevelt, son of Theodore Roosevelt, is causing great interest in Richmond, Va., and was a complete surprise to her many friends. Although details of the wedding have not been received, letters to friends of the Willards, intimate that the ceremony will take place in Richmond early in the spring. Miss Willard is now in Madrid with her father, and before returning to this country expects to remain in Engand for some time and be presented at the Court of St. James.

SHERIFF MAKES RAID ON SALOONKEEPERS

Although District Judge Dayton yesterday afternoon dismissed complaints charging J. J. Russell, F. D. Shaeffer and Albert Hohde, saloonkeepers at Second and Burnside streets, with gambling, Sheriff Word and his deputies again raided one of Russell's saloons and arrested Mel Coffeen, the manager, and five players last night. Coffeen was released on $200 bail and each of the players put up $10 bail. Judge Dayton held as Judge Jones did last Tuesday that the evidence produced was insufficient to convict or hold to the grand jury. Despite the adverse findings of the courts, Sheriff Word intends to raid saloons where cards are being played until he is forced to stop or until the games are ended.

A sharpening machine which gives tools the rotary motion against a stone which is said to produce the best results, has been invented.

PORTLAND MAKES BID FOR ALASKA BUSINESS

Chamber of Commerce Invites Business Men of North to Get Prices.

Circular letters are being sent out today by the Portland Chamber of Commerce to 1000 merchants of southeastern Alaska, whose home cities are to be ports of call for the steamship company. The letter calls attention to the effort Portland is making to establish a trade foothold in the north and to the fact that direct service will begin no later than March 1.
The Chamber points out its guarantee to the Alaska fish canners that it will protect them in any arrangements they may make for handling their product through Portland, against any conditions that later may arise in competing cities.
"Portland may fairly ask of Alaska business interests a degree of patronage that will prevent the destructive reprisals of rival interests," the circular states.
The circular concludes by inviting the Alaskans not to place their contracts for the coming season until they have secured Portland prices and given Portland opportunity to bid. The steamship company will handle

LOCAL ELKS WILL GIVE DANCE FEB. 4

For the purpose of raising money to send the Elks' band to the grand lodge reunion of Elks next July as a representative of the lodge and of the city of Portland, the entertainment and "Denver" committees of the local B. P. O. E. last night decided to give an Elks' ball, at Ringler's hall on the evening of February 4.

It will be an Elks affair strictly, and informal. The only persons who will appear in evening full dress will be Andy Weinberger, floor manager, and his 12 assistants, and they will wear the "law hammer," not as a mark of distinction, but more as a sign that they are deputized for duty.
Music will be furnished by the Elks band of 42 pieces, and one of the features of the evening will be an exhibition of the tango, by Professor Ringler and a society woman whose name has not been divulged.

The committee decided to make a charge of $1 for each couple and 50 cents for each extra woman.
