

TOWN TOPICS

AMUSEMENTS.
HEILIG—Eleventh and Morrison.
BAKER—Broadway and Morrison.

Weather Conditions.
Portland and vicinity—Unsettled tonight and Saturday.

Osteopathic to Meet—The Oregon Osteopathic association will hold its usual mid-year meeting tomorrow at the Hotel Oregon.

"Les Miserables" which comes to the Peoples Theatre for one week, beginning next Sunday, January 11, is probably the biggest film production ever attempted.

Opportunity for Teachers—The municipal council of Munich, Germany, has invited 25 American teachers of manual training and industrial subjects to study in the industrial and continuation schools of that city from April 15 to July 15, 1914.

O. A. C. Club Election—Balloting is in progress for officers of the Portland Oregon Agricultural College club, the polls to close January 12, so the results may be made known at the meeting of the club the following day.

Sentenced to Rockpile—Chris Jim, a prominent agitator in the recent street troubles and a leader in the restaurant "rushings," was before the municipal court yesterday afternoon for not paying his meals.

Services This Evening—Services will be held at the congregational Alvarado Shoten, Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Tigano Brings Suit—A second suit to annul the marriage of Alessandra and Giuseppe Tigano was filed yesterday.

Michigan Society Elects—Officers of the Michigan Society of Oregon were elected Wednesday night, as follows: A. Binkhorst, president; F. M. Knapp, first vice president; Mrs. R. H. Campbell, second vice president; Mrs. Harriet Hendee, secretary; and T. V. Williams, treasurer.

County Boys Cabinets—Based on the approval of County Assessor Reed, the county commissioners yesterday awarded the contract for the installation of steel filing cabinets in the assessor's office to Glass & Frubhonn company, which bid $584.

Aged Man Arrested—At the age of 74 years, John Hadley, grocer at 270 Fourth street, was arrested for contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl.

Detective Bureau Formed—Articles of incorporation of the Business Men's Detective Bureau were filed yesterday with County Clerk Coffey by C. C. Gubson, C. J. Crosby and A. W. Andrews.

Another Night School—Another free public night school will open next Monday night in the Shawer school building, Morris street and Mississippi avenue.

Services at Synagogue—Services will be held this evening at the Sixth street synagogue, Hall and Sixth streets, at 7:30 o'clock.

Fire Sale of Wall Paper—I bought the entire wall paper stock of the Pioneer Paint Co., and must close it off quickly.

Given Light Sentence—One year in the penitentiary for passing a bad check was the sentence imposed by Circuit Judge Gatz on J. H. Davis yesterday when Davis pleaded guilty to the charge.

Shoemakers Incorporated—Shoes rebuilt with waterproof bottom. Old shoes made into new ones.

Dock Workmen Hurt—D. B. Ulbrand, 1888 East Harrison street, fell Monday night in the dock while doing carpenter work there.

Son Files Petition—Two daughters and a son are heirs to the estate of Mrs. Anna Dilley, who died December 12, 1913.

Estate Valued at $2000—Mary C. Arata was yesterday appointed administratrix of the estate of her former husband, Louis Arata.

Five Positions Open—There are jobs open at the United States yard at Bremerton, Wash., for four shipwrights and one galvanizer, if they will apply immediately according to information given out by the Recorder of the Board of Labor at the yards.

MAN COURTS ARREST THAT HE MAY PURSUE HIS STUDIES IN PRISON

Self-Styled Lecturer and Promoter Commits Theft and Makes Confession.

Louis E. Jackson, who says he is a lecturer, author, student of things occult, and a financial promoter, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock for shoplifting.

Two attempts were made by Jackson, he declares, to break into jail. Wednesday afternoon, he walked into the Olds, Wortman & King store, picked up a suitcase and umbrella, walked out and stood in front waiting to be arrested.

Yesterday morning he started out to break into jail.

Shortly after 1 o'clock he entered the Meier & Frank store, and took from the show window a camera.

Next he walked to the dress goods department of the store, picked up the largest bolt of cloth he could find and then leisurely walked out.

"I want to get into jail, where I can continue my study," he said this morning. "To study outside is impossible. It requires the solitude of a cell, away from the noise and glamor of commercial life for a man to do his best. My study is along the line of metaphysics, philosophy, psychology, astronomy, and a universal language."

"For several years I have been studying and lecturing, and have also written considerably. The last active writing was for the 'Forward to the Land' movement, which was a regular contributor for 'Little Farms' magazine.

MAN COURTS ARREST THAT HE MAY PURSUE HIS STUDIES IN PRISON

Self-Styled Lecturer and Promoter Commits Theft and Makes Confession.

Louis E. Jackson, who says he is a lecturer, author, student of things occult, and a financial promoter, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock for shoplifting.

Two attempts were made by Jackson, he declares, to break into jail. Wednesday afternoon, he walked into the Olds, Wortman & King store, picked up a suitcase and umbrella, walked out and stood in front waiting to be arrested.

Yesterday morning he started out to break into jail.

Shortly after 1 o'clock he entered the Meier & Frank store, and took from the show window a camera.

Next he walked to the dress goods department of the store, picked up the largest bolt of cloth he could find and then leisurely walked out.

"I want to get into jail, where I can continue my study," he said this morning. "To study outside is impossible. It requires the solitude of a cell, away from the noise and glamor of commercial life for a man to do his best. My study is along the line of metaphysics, philosophy, psychology, astronomy, and a universal language."

"For several years I have been studying and lecturing, and have also written considerably. The last active writing was for the 'Forward to the Land' movement, which was a regular contributor for 'Little Farms' magazine.

At one time I earned a $12,000 promotion fee, but gave the money to the promoters. I didn't want it. As for money, I have no desire to accumulate any more than what I actually need. My health is such that I can do heavy work, or I would be glad to go to the rockpile. I want to be confined in jail or prison.

I took the goods yesterday. I took some of the day before, but no one caught me. Yesterday, I thought I would take something so large and in such a manner that they could not fail to see it. My home is in the east, my wife is dead, and there are no children.

The case was continued for one week.

Jackson is a good looking man, rather tall, and exceedingly well dressed.

OLD AND NEW TAXES TO BE COLLECTED JOINTLY

Joint tax collecting departments have been decided upon by Sheriff Word and County Treasurer Lewis in order that the county may save expense, estimated at $10,000 a year, under the new tax law which provides that Treasurer Lewis shall collect the new taxes and Sheriff Word the delinquent taxes.

ALLEGED WOMAN USED WORTHLESS CHECK

Mrs. Ike Crutch was arrested yesterday charged with passing a worthless check for $110 on the Olds, Wortman & King store.

The check was given to her husband by Thomas Harry Richardson to pay a gambling debt as the result of a poker game and that payment was later stopped on the check by Richardson.

Mrs. Crutch alleges that her husband put the check in his pocket when he found it dishonored and that she took the check without her husband's knowledge and without knowing it was worthless and had it cashed at the store. Crutch has disappeared and is believed to be in British Columbia.

EVERY DAY Proves to us the efficacy of keeping faith with the public. Our goods, our prices, our January Sale have met with hearty response. Benjamin Clothes at interesting reductions.

Table with 3 columns: Item, Price, Price. Suits: $15.00, $22.50, $18.75, $26.25. Overcoats and Raincoats: $15.00, $26.25, $18.75, $30.00, $22.50, $37.50.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Underwear: $1.00, $2.40, $1.25, $2.80, $1.50, $3.20, $2.00, $4.00, $2.50, $4.80.

Buffum & Pendleton Morrison Street, Opp. Postoffice

HERE IS A POINTER

which perhaps you have not heard—three-quarters of all the headaches in the world proceed from disordered view, weak eyesight. It is my business to properly fit glasses, to relieve those complaints, and that only. I have no other occupation but fitting glasses, and I know how.

J. D. DUBACK EYESIGHT SPECIALIST Sixth Floor — Selling Building

Back in the Early 60's, Jewelry meant Henrichsen's and Henrichsen's Jewelry meant quality. Through three generations this Quality Standard has come down to you.

Henrichsen's 1861 Oldest Jewelry House in Northwest Washington Near Tenth

Lennon's Cleanup Sale at High Tide! The time of all times when prudent women look ahead and supply Groves, Hosiery and Umbrella needs for the year!

The Best Way to protect your interests when closing a real estate deal is to have us handle it in Escrow. It protects buyer and seller alike.

Men, Here's a Sale You Cannot Afford To Overlook-- $20, $25, $27.50 and Even $30 Suits, in a Great Big Clearance at $14.85

Olds, Wortman & King Great Millinery Sale in the Basement Tremendous Sweeping Sale Beautiful New Trimmed Hats Hats Worth Up to $7.50 Your Choice $1.00

PAUL C. YATES Thousands Know Me ASK THEM

BOSTON DENTISTS We are now located between Fourth and Fifth on Washington street.

RUPTURE RUINS HEALTH and PLEASURE Don't Neglect It

Automobile School $10,000 Equipment I. Shop Repair Practice II. Theory Instruction III. Road Lessons

SCHWAB PRINTING CO. BEN F. GREENE, PRESIDENT 245 1/2 STARK STREET