Scheme Designed to Help All Who Come When Panama Canal Opens. "How to adequately prepare for the immigrants, a majority of them wage-earners of small means, who will flock to our ports during the opening years of the Panama canal, presents the most serious problem ever faced by the people of the Pacific coast."

After reviewing the character of probable immigrants, the likelihood that few will have learning, that there will be three men to every woman, that they will not have means to invest on high priced lands near towns, that they will not be available, probably, for industries, Mr. Wilson reaches the conclusion that there must be a way found of placing the immigrant on cheap lands, and of restraining inflated land values. He says: "To accomplish this there must be first of all a prompt and foreign steamship companies say upward of 300,000 tickets have been sold already in Europe for Pacific coast ports, to be used during 1915, and that the prediction is an immigration of about 200,000 people between May and September of that year."

FAMILY CATS FIGHT AND THEREBY START NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Two cats and a two-foot club brought F. J. Kupfer, 525 Market street, and Mrs. Janet Wilson, his neighbor, into the municipal court this morning, each charging the other with assault and battery. The Kupfer family cat and Wilson family cat first started the row, in which the Kupfer cat chased the other home.

Later in the day, Kupfer went to the Wilson home to protest against the language used by a son of Mrs. Wilson. A quarrel followed about the cat, in which Mrs. Wilson used a club on Kupfer, who attempted to take it from her. In the scuffle, she received a blow on the arm. Judge Stevenson asked both to go home and leave the other alone.
