A Custom The World Over

Thousands of persons who know the advantage of pure, wholesome, easily digestible food have a dish of Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast.

Grape-Nuts fod, made of whole wheat and malted barley, is ready to eat direct from the package. It comes to your table in the form of golden brown granules-crisp and nut-like-the delicate sweet taste due entirely to grape-sugar developed by the processes of manufacture.

Every year tens of thousands visit the Pure Food Factories of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., at Battle Creek, Mich., and see for themselves every step in the making of this famous food.

First the milling of wheat and barley; the mixing and kneading into a sort of dough-formed, for convenience, in handling, into huge 10-pound loaves; then the baking, slicing, rebaking and grinding; and finally the filling, sealing and packing of the well-known, air-tight, yellow packages-all accomplished without the food being touched by hand.

Yes, visitors are taken all over the place-up-stairs and down. There is considerable to see, and

"I have a boy, two years old, in per-fect health, who has been raised on Grape-Nuts and milk. "This is an ideal food and evidently furnishes the elements necessary for a baby as well as for adults. We have used Grape-Nuts in large quantities and greatly to our advantage, One advantage about Grape - Nuts food is that it is partially pre-digested in the process of manufacture; that is, the starch centained in the wheat and barley is transformed into a form of sugar by the same method as, this process is carried out in the human This is accomplished by the use of moisture and long exposure to moderate warmth, which grows the diastase in the grains and makes the remarkable change from - starth to

Therefore, the most delicate stomach can handle Grape-Nuts and the food is quickly absorbed into the blood and tissue, certain paris of it going directly for building and nourishing the tissue cells of body, brain and nerves. Made at the pure food factories of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle
