

THE JOURNAL

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER... PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING... TELEPHONE—Main 7175; Home, 4-001. All advertisements placed by these means...

ward. It means that Oregon will be without a continuous transcontinental system via the gulf route. If there is reason for the attorney general's resistance in pressing the dissolution, it is a difficult reason to discover.

RESCUE FOR THE WEAK

THE Remedial Loan Office opened its doors in Portland Monday. The clamor for loans was so great that there is prospect that its $20,000 of capital will be exhausted within a comparatively few days.

THAT DARKLING PILOT

THE OREGONIAN is in a panic. It is highly nervous over the game commission. It has darkling suspicions of a diabolical Democratic plot.

A PORTLAND FAILURE

H. B. MILLER recently declared that Portland is not properly functioning in finding markets for the land products of Oregon. He is right.

REVOLUTIONS IN PERU

PERU is having another revolution which is remarkable chiefly because of its suddenness. President Billinghurst has been deposed and the government taken over by rebels.

IN PENNSYLVANIA

REPRESENTATIVE PALMER is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States senator from Pennsylvania. He has the backing of President Wilson, which gives the situation national importance.

UNEMERGING BEGUN.

THE attorney general has filed the suit for unmerging the Central and Southern Pacific. There is nowhere on the Pacific coast a single demand for the action.

strate what the people themselves will do when they are given the opportunity to elect a United States senator without intervention by the bosses.

WHEN OVER HIGH

IN NEW YORK, there is suggestion of limiting the height of buildings to the width of streets that serve them. High buildings bring congested population and all the attendant evils of insufficient capacity in streets, sewers and water mains.

Very few high buildings pay a profitable return on the investment, and real estate men favor limitations of height. Already, 43 office buildings there are above 20 stories and 11 hotels above 16.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

She—Here's a story of a man out who had traded his wife off for a horse. You wouldn't trade me for a horse, would you, darling?

THE DEMONSTRATION TRAIN

INCREASING crowds and multiplying interest attend the hog and dairy special on its way through western Oregon. Nothing can be more effective in spreading the gospel of good farming.

A RICH SMUGGLER

TWO rich smugglers, former Congressman Lucius N. Littauer and his brother William, were freed in United States district court at New York last week after they had paid fines of $1000 each.

MEDICAL MEN ON ALCOHOL

Newport, Or., Feb. 10.—To the Editor of the Journal.—In the Journal of February 7, "Fertile" asks some very pertinent and fair questions, asks, first: "In a large whiskey advertisement in the Sunday morning Oregonian, statements are made that whiskey is a medicine."

THE MODERN CHURCH SPIRIT.

From the Oakland Tribune. Church architecture of the olden time was a thing of beauty. It was a "frozen music." This term was applied also to the magnificent temples, glorious without as well as within.

THE RAGTIME MUSE

Now and then a ragtime wonder At the universal blunder. If I struck and stood from under Would things fall? Would things fall? Would the whole creation crumble? Not at all!

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

Consisting of Comprehensive news reports. Weekly reviews from many fields. Varied features invitingly presented.

post roads. The vote was 282 to 42. How infinitely preferable is such an appropriation to huge expenditures on armaments and militarism!

A FEW SMILES

A famous labor leader got into an argument with a banker. At the end of one of the banker's assertions the labor leader retorted: "It is possible to say a good word for anybody who is sure of his time."

SMALL CHANGE

Almost time to begin that gardening. Why should the average schoolhouse cost more than a good, large house—about $6000? Prevention is better than cure; don't let the flies breed.

PERTINENT COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGON SIDELIGHTS. Baker Herald: A report comes from Sumpter that a nugget worth $1500 was found in the Sumpter dredge company's workings there. A $1000 nugget was the largest nugget ever found in this section.

A LEADER

From Harper's Weekly. The reception given to Woodrow Wilson's trust policy by the business world is one of the most significant and interesting developments of recent history.

ETERNAL VIGILANCE

Portland, Feb. 10.—To the Editor of the Journal.—I am much interested in your editorial under the heading, "Not for February Lawyers, in the Journal of February 7, 1914."

HEAVEN AND HELL BEHIND BARS.

From the San Francisco Bulletin. From a description of the state prison at Gretna, New York, raises some questions as to how humane a prison should be.

THE MODERN CHURCH SPIRIT.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The "Book of Job" will be staged by the University of Wisconsin Dramatic society this season.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

An excess of "bracers" will unbrace anybody. One can't get the best of a citizen who hasn't any. Some men are always getting busy; but they don't keep busy.

DISCOVERED.

From the National Monthly. A stern old preacher had issued to his people a command against dancing, believing it to be a device of the devil.

THE Multnomah County Progressive club has adopted resolutions favoring a non-partisan judiciary. The action befits the party name.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

She—Here's a story of a man out who had traded his wife off for a horse. You wouldn't trade me for a horse, would you, darling?

THE DEMONSTRATION TRAIN

INCREASING crowds and multiplying interest attend the hog and dairy special on its way through western Oregon. Nothing can be more effective in spreading the gospel of good farming.

A RICH SMUGGLER

TWO rich smugglers, former Congressman Lucius N. Littauer and his brother William, were freed in United States district court at New York last week after they had paid fines of $1000 each.

MEDICAL MEN ON ALCOHOL

Newport, Or., Feb. 10.—To the Editor of the Journal.—In the Journal of February 7, "Fertile" asks some very pertinent and fair questions, asks, first: "In a large whiskey advertisement in the Sunday morning Oregonian, statements are made that whiskey is a medicine."

THE MODERN CHURCH SPIRIT.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The "Book of Job" will be staged by the University of Wisconsin Dramatic society this season.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

An excess of "bracers" will unbrace anybody. One can't get the best of a citizen who hasn't any. Some men are always getting busy; but they don't keep busy.

DISCOVERED.

From the National Monthly. A stern old preacher had issued to his people a command against dancing, believing it to be a device of the devil.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

Consisting of Comprehensive news reports. Weekly reviews from many fields. Varied features invitingly presented.

THE RAGTIME MUSE

Now and then a ragtime wonder At the universal blunder. If I struck and stood from under Would things fall? Would things fall? Would the whole creation crumble? Not at all!

THE Multnomah County Progressive club has adopted resolutions favoring a non-partisan judiciary. The action befits the party name.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

She—Here's a story of a man out who had traded his wife off for a horse. You wouldn't trade me for a horse, would you, darling?

THE DEMONSTRATION TRAIN

INCREASING crowds and multiplying interest attend the hog and dairy special on its way through western Oregon. Nothing can be more effective in spreading the gospel of good farming.

A RICH SMUGGLER

TWO rich smugglers, former Congressman Lucius N. Littauer and his brother William, were freed in United States district court at New York last week after they had paid fines of $1000 each.

MEDICAL MEN ON ALCOHOL

Newport, Or., Feb. 10.—To the Editor of the Journal.—In the Journal of February 7, "Fertile" asks some very pertinent and fair questions, asks, first: "In a large whiskey advertisement in the Sunday morning Oregonian, statements are made that whiskey is a medicine."

THE MODERN CHURCH SPIRIT.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The "Book of Job" will be staged by the University of Wisconsin Dramatic society this season.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

An excess of "bracers" will unbrace anybody. One can't get the best of a citizen who hasn't any. Some men are always getting busy; but they don't keep busy.

DISCOVERED.

From the National Monthly. A stern old preacher had issued to his people a command against dancing, believing it to be a device of the devil.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

Consisting of Comprehensive news reports. Weekly reviews from many fields. Varied features invitingly presented.

THE RAGTIME MUSE

Now and then a ragtime wonder At the universal blunder. If I struck and stood from under Would things fall? Would things fall? Would the whole creation crumble? Not at all!

THE Multnomah County Progressive club has adopted resolutions favoring a non-partisan judiciary. The action befits the party name.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

She—Here's a story of a man out who had traded his wife off for a horse. You wouldn't trade me for a horse, would you, darling?

THE DEMONSTRATION TRAIN

INCREASING crowds and multiplying interest attend the hog and dairy special on its way through western Oregon. Nothing can be more effective in spreading the gospel of good farming.

A RICH SMUGGLER

TWO rich smugglers, former Congressman Lucius N. Littauer and his brother William, were freed in United States district court at New York last week after they had paid fines of $1000 each.

MEDICAL MEN ON ALCOHOL

Newport, Or., Feb. 10.—To the Editor of the Journal.—In the Journal of February 7, "Fertile" asks some very pertinent and fair questions, asks, first: "In a large whiskey advertisement in the Sunday morning Oregonian, statements are made that whiskey is a medicine."

THE MODERN CHURCH SPIRIT.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The "Book of Job" will be staged by the University of Wisconsin Dramatic society this season.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

An excess of "bracers" will unbrace anybody. One can't get the best of a citizen who hasn't any. Some men are always getting busy; but they don't keep busy.

DISCOVERED.

From the National Monthly. A stern old preacher had issued to his people a command against dancing, believing it to be a device of the devil.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

Consisting of Comprehensive news reports. Weekly reviews from many fields. Varied features invitingly presented.

THE RAGTIME MUSE

Now and then a ragtime wonder At the universal blunder. If I struck and stood from under Would things fall? Would things fall? Would the whole creation crumble? Not at all!

THE Multnomah County Progressive club has adopted resolutions favoring a non-partisan judiciary. The action befits the party name.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

She—Here's a story of a man out who had traded his wife off for a horse. You wouldn't trade me for a horse, would you, darling?

THE DEMONSTRATION TRAIN

INCREASING crowds and multiplying interest attend the hog and dairy special on its way through western Oregon. Nothing can be more effective in spreading the gospel of good farming.

A RICH SMUGGLER

TWO rich smugglers, former Congressman Lucius N. Littauer and his brother William, were freed in United States district court at New York last week after they had paid fines of $1000 each.

MEDICAL MEN ON ALCOHOL

Newport, Or., Feb. 10.—To the Editor of the Journal.—In the Journal of February 7, "Fertile" asks some very pertinent and fair questions, asks, first: "In a large whiskey advertisement in the Sunday morning Oregonian, statements are made that whiskey is a medicine."

THE MODERN CHURCH SPIRIT.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The "Book of Job" will be staged by the University of Wisconsin Dramatic society this season.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

An excess of "bracers" will unbrace anybody. One can't get the best of a citizen who hasn't any. Some men are always getting busy; but they don't keep busy.

DISCOVERED.

From the National Monthly. A stern old preacher had issued to his people a command against dancing, believing it to be a device of the devil.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

Consisting of Comprehensive news reports. Weekly reviews from many fields. Varied features invitingly presented.

THE RAGTIME MUSE

Now and then a ragtime wonder At the universal blunder. If I struck and stood from under Would things fall? Would things fall? Would the whole creation crumble? Not at all!