THIRTY DAYS IN JAIL

Because Ed Snow of Yamhill adopted heroic measures in determining the progress of the suit of a rival swain with his lady love, he is spending 30 days in the county jail on the order of United States District Judge Bean, made today.

Snow pleading guilty this morning, admitted he had stood in front of the combination lock boxes in the Yamhill postoffice for hours until he had gotten on to the combination. Then he proceeded to remove from the box, which contained mail sent to his sweetheart, several letters. His act was prompted, Assistant United States Attorney Johnson stated, by intense jealousy after his own suit had been discouraged.

Assistant District Attorney T. Ryan, who represented Snow, declared that his client and a brother was the sole support of a third brother, helpless cripple. No money was taken, and the gov-ernment attorney said Snow had no intention of financial gain by his acts.
