SENTIMENT STRONG FOR MARION COUNTY GOOD ROADS BONDS Time to Buy!

Taxpayers Crowd Big Mass Meeting to Hear What Is to Be Said on Measure.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Feb. 14,-It is probable that the county court will issue within the next few days the call for the special election to vote upon the issuance of $850,000 bonds for building good roads. The petition has been checked and found sufficient.

For the purpose of feeling the public pulse, the county court invited those interested in the proposed bond issue to meet with the court yesterday after noon. Farmers and others from various parts of the county packed into the county court room until the meeting was adjourned to the Commercial club auditorium, where there was room for the crowd.

With but one or two exceptions all who had anything to say were in favor of the bond issue. Mrs. Pettyjohn, of St. Paul, speaking from the woman's st. Paul, speaking from the woman's lawpoint, talked for good roads. The question now concerning many is where the road building is to be done. A delegation from St. Paul presented a petition asking for a hard surface road between Hubbard and the Marion county approach of the Newberg bridge. Representatives from various parts of the county spoke in favor of roads in their section. The general sentiment seemed to be that the money, if voted, should not be spent on one main highway, but on a number of main trade routes. The sent! ment was also in favor of hard surfaced roads, something that will be permanent.

As soon as the question of location of the roads is settled, then it is expected the call for the election will be

Boosters to Eugene.

The Cherrians have joined with the Con mercial club in working up interest in the gathering, which is for the purpose of creating interest in an exhibit to be made by the various counties at Ashland during the Panama-Pacific expo ettion. The leaders in the movement here nope to take a large delegation to Eugene and then arrange for a similar meeting to be held here a little later. the plan being discussed is to run special train from Salem.

Mails Are Mixed. Salem, Or., Feb. 14.-Corporation

Commissioner Watson is receiving many statements from corporations in the state intended for the income tax coffector. He says it appears that many corporation officials are careless in not noticing that income tax matters are handled by the internal revenue officials of the government. The result is that the income tax statements, which are required to be in by March 1, are delayed and the corporation department is burdened with extra mall. Mr. Watson said he had taken the matter up with Collector M. A. Miller and suggested that the return address for income tax statements be made plainer for the benefit of the corporations.
