

BRIEF REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S NEWS IN PICTURE AND PARAGRAPH

All the Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of the Busy Reader.

Executive.

The United States treasury department is worried over the mysterious disappearance of $5000 in bills, the first shortage of the kind that has occurred in 40 years. A commission has completed an examination of the affairs of the Carlisle Indian schools, with the result that certain recommendations for improvements, have been made. President Wilson will likely name the men to compose the new Federal Reserve Board by about March 1. He will confer with Secretaries McAdoo and Houston after those men have finished their tour of organization committee.

As a result of the signing of the Kenyon "redlight" bill by President Wilson, a moral crusade has been started in Washington, D. C. Police supervision of moving pictures shows is contemplated. The new appropriation bill provides for an army of 500,000 men. Changes in the articles of war which had not been disturbed for many years are provided in the measure which just passed the senate.

Temporary method of electing senators in states which have not been provided with the machinery for carrying out the seventeenth amendment to the constitution, is opposed by southern senators. At a congressional reception given by President and Mrs. Wilson the hesitation waltz and one step were danced. This is the first time in the winter series that dancing has been indulged in.

Lack of finances have interfered with the work of the National Drainage congress in the matter of guarding against floods. Red Cross associations have been warned to be ready to carry on the work in the middle states.

Speaker of the House of Representatives Champ Clark says that the world is getting better instead of worse, and adds that 99 per cent of the congressmen leave congress poorer than when they entered it.

It is likely that the 30th infantry will be relieved from duty in Alaska. Demands at the Mexican border may make it difficult to replace the full number of troops in the Alaskan field.

A small fire broke out in a theatre in Washington just after Secretary of State Bryan and Vice President Marshall and other notables had left the place. The blaze was quickly put under control.

Small percentages of land remaining open for entry in the districts of Seattle and Vancouver may cause the department to close the United States land offices in those cities and transfer the business to Olympia. Opposition to the plan may cause other arrangements.

A nation wide campaign will be waged by the associations opposed to woman suffrage. Promoters claim that the boasted strength of the suffragists is "mythical."

The senate committee will continue its consideration of the Burn immigration bill and report the same just as soon as possible in spite of opposition of certain democrats.

Disapproval of the agricultural extension bill is expressed by United States Senator Lane, because of the fact that too many agricultural experts are provided positions and not a single farmer has urged the passage of the bill.

Senator Brady of Idaho has been appointed a member of the committee on public grounds and buildings, which handles all public buildings legislation.

The senate committee has completed the postoffice appropriation bill, the measure being $5,000,000 in excess of the amount as it came from the house. Maximum salaries of rural carriers would be increased to $1200.

The following persons have been named postmasters in towns of the northwest: Mamie A. Gidney, Days Creek; Pearl B. Colvig, Galice; Lucinda Blackwell, Sparta; Cora M. Farnham, Waltherville.

The fortifications appropriation bill, carrying a total of $6,895,200, was passed by the senate and added nearly $2,000,000 to the house appropriation for field artillery and ammunition.

Commercial and Industrial.

Sixty thousand pounds of smelt have been shipped from the Columbia river district to eastern markets. Three carloads have been sent and other shipments are to be made.

The record of previous years may be exceeded by the citrus crop belt of California, according to E. O. McCormick, vice president of the Southern Pacific railroad. Secretary of the Interior Lane advised that governors of western states and persons interested in reclamation, meet soon to discuss plans for carrying out the reclamation schemes.

Evidence of criminal conspiracy was found by the commission which investigated the recent strike riots at Wheeland, Cal., which resulted in the death of several persons. Conditions in other hop yards will be investigated.

The Linn county grange has adopted resolutions urging the submission of an initiative measure regulating the courses and departments of the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college to prevent conflicts in studies.

Washington state is selling thousands of potatoes to California as a result of shortages there. To date more than 800 tons of spuds have left Seattle on steamers for the southern port.

Women workers in the Oregon City woolen mills won their request for payment of their wages twice a month, instead of once a month.

L. C. Gilman, head of the Hill lines in Oregon, made a tour of the electric system, visiting the principal cities and towns and meeting commercial clubs and other organizations along the route.

Money to the amount of $1,300,000 has been distributed for use in reclamation work in the Yakima valley. An additional storage lake has been planned at Clear Lake at a cost of $45,000.

Workmen while sinking a well at Stonewall, Ore., in paying quantities. Machinery for boring will be installed at once. The find has caused considerable excitement in the vicinity.

Dividends of the Adams Express company have been cut to $1.50 a share, the former dividends being $3 a share. Inroads of the parcel post is thought to have been responsible for the reduction in the earnings of the company.

Erection of a cannery at Junction City, Or., is planned by the Junction City grange. A meeting will be held February 14 to prepare plans for the enterprise.

Lela station on the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railroad is experiencing an industrial boom, among the new improvements planned being a high school building.

Work of paving the Central Point-Medford part of the Pacific highway will begin soon and it is expected that the work will be finished in 60 days. State Highway Commissioner Bowby has ratified contracts for cement work.

Legal and Criminal.

A warrant was obtained for the arrest of Principal Yowell of the Gig Harbor, Wash., public school, on complaint of former Director Sauness, on assault charges. The principal is said to have knocked Sauness down with the butt end of a gun.

Mrs. Julia McKenna, aged 54, common law wife of James McKenna, a Chicago capitalist, has petitioned the Cook county court, Illinois, to compel a six year old daughter of McKenna, whom she has never seen to support her. The girl inherited the $300,000 estate of McKenna.

The Mercantile bank of Memphis, Tenn., has been declared insolvent by the directors because of the alleged defalcations of the president, C. H. Rains. The shortage is estimated at $200,000.

The health department of New York has issued a warning against the practice of fake radium cure, it being explained that the cure is only in an experimental stage, as yet.

Maury I. Diggs and Walter J. Gilligan, of San Francisco, were held in bonds in the sum of $10,000, or $5000 cash, on charges preferred by Edward Teeddale, I. W. agitator, who was ordered out of San Francisco, and allowed a few days of grace in order that he might close up some affairs before taking his departure. He is said to have written an inflammatory letter to President Wilson.

Thieves robbed the residence of Robert Newell, in the outskirts of Berkeley, getting away with $3500 worth of jewelry, clothing and several hundred dollars in currency. Lopez, the slayer, is still at large. It is believed, following discovery of a rifle which Lopez formerly carried, at the Utah-Apex mine, in which the murderer was supposed to have taken refuge after killing J. Douglas Hulsey and Tom Manderlich.

Suit for $300,000 damages for breach of promise has been filed by Ida M. McNabb of Milwaukee, against John Kinney, millionaire millman of Escanaba, Mich. The defendant is 71 years old.

Two men were killed and two wounded in a battle between constables and negroes at De Sota, Ga. Martin Bass, a deputy constable, and Edwin Tyson, a negro, were killed. Two other officers were seriously wounded. The shooting followed an attempt to arrest Tyson.

The Pullman company at San Francisco sued State Treasurer Roberts for the difference between $28,243.65 and $44,955.11, it paid the larger sum in taxes under protest, declaring it was over-assessed on its 1913 corporate income in California.

Foreign.

Students of the universities at Stockholm, Sweden, to the number of 8000 paraded through the streets of the city and made speeches before the king's balcony, in support of his treaty with the Danes.

The reichstag authorized the German potash syndicate to spend $125,000 on an exhibit at the San Francisco exposition.

General News.

A plan may be adopted whereby votes at roll call in the house may be taken by an electrical device, in order to save time. It now requires 45 minutes to take down the names of the 435 members.

Chester H. Rowell, publisher of the Fresno Republican announces his candidacy for the United States senate on the Progressive ticket, in opposition to Francis J. Heney.

Silas Christofferson left San Francisco for San Diego, in a trial for the long distance aeroplane record. He is to have a companion, when she posed as the "sleeping beauty" at a pantomime ball.

The parliament building at Tokio was stoned by mobs agitated over the fight for lower taxes. They are bitter at the ministry of Osaka.

A young French aviator named Farman flew over the top of Mount Blanc, in a dirigible, at an altitude of 9000 feet and encountered a thick fog on the French side of the Alps.

Ingold, an aviator, broke the world's endurance record at Munich, Germany, by remaining in the air 16 hours and 20 minutes and covering 10560 miles.

A man suspected to have been a German spy was arrested at Toul, France, while in the act of taking pictures of the fortifications.

Declaring that the terms of the sale had been misrepresented, the Earl of Devon refused to sell to Baron De Forest his Bootle estate, in the suburbs of Liverpool. The banter had been made during a political speech.

Assassinating at Barcelona attempted to kill the ex-governor. An innocent bystander was slain in the attack.

Friendlyness of Japan toward the United States is supposed to have been increased by the passage of the Burnett immigration bill in the house. The bill avoids the Japanese exclusion act of California.

Members of the Imperial family in Berlin are severely criticized in debates in the Prussian diet because of their habit of reckless auto driving. Lives of pedestrians are said to have been endangered by the speeders.

Attempts to compromise the difficulties arising at Zepher, as result of trouble between the military and civilians, have been made by high German officers. Most of the injured persons preferred to take their cases to court to accepting a small payment and dismissal of the suits.

A group of men were seriously wounded in a battle between constables and negroes at De Sota, Ga. Martin Bass, a deputy constable, and Edwin Tyson, a negro, were killed. Two other officers were seriously wounded. The shooting followed an attempt to arrest Tyson.

The Pullman company at San Francisco sued State Treasurer Roberts for the difference between $28,243.65 and $44,955.11, it paid the larger sum in taxes under protest, declaring it was over-assessed on its 1913 corporate income in California.

Chester H. Rowell, publisher of the Fresno Republican announces his candidacy for the United States senate on the Progressive ticket, in opposition to Francis J. Heney.

Silas Christofferson left San Francisco for San Diego, in a trial for the long distance aeroplane record. He is to have a companion, when she posed as the "sleeping beauty" at a pantomime ball.

The parliament building at Tokio was stoned by mobs agitated over the fight for lower taxes. They are bitter at the ministry of Osaka.

A young French aviator named Farman flew over the top of Mount Blanc, in a dirigible, at an altitude of 9000 feet and encountered a thick fog on the French side of the Alps.

Ingold, an aviator, broke the world's endurance record at Munich, Germany, by remaining in the air 16 hours and 20 minutes and covering 10560 miles.

A man suspected to have been a German spy was arrested at Toul, France, while in the act of taking pictures of the fortifications.

Declaring that the terms of the sale had been misrepresented, the Earl of Devon refused to sell to Baron De Forest his Bootle estate, in the suburbs of Liverpool. The banter had been made during a political speech.

Assassinating at Barcelona attempted to kill the ex-governor. An innocent bystander was slain in the attack.

Friendlyness of Japan toward the United States is supposed to have been increased by the passage of the Burnett immigration bill in the house. The bill avoids the Japanese exclusion act of California.

Members of the Imperial family in Berlin are severely criticized in debates in the Prussian diet because of their habit of reckless auto driving. Lives of pedestrians are said to have been endangered by the speeders.

Attempts to compromise the difficulties arising at Zepher, as result of trouble between the military and civilians, have been made by high German officers. Most of the injured persons preferred to take their cases to court to accepting a small payment and dismissal of the suits.

Declaring that the terms of the sale had been misrepresented, the Earl of Devon refused to sell to Baron De Forest his Bootle estate, in the suburbs of Liverpool. The banter had been made during a political speech.

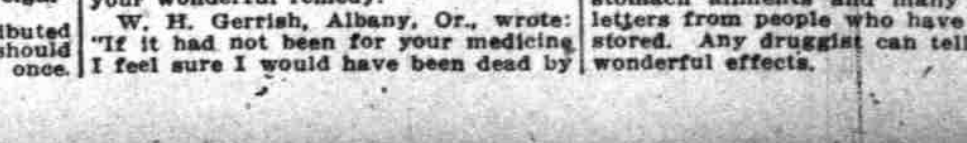

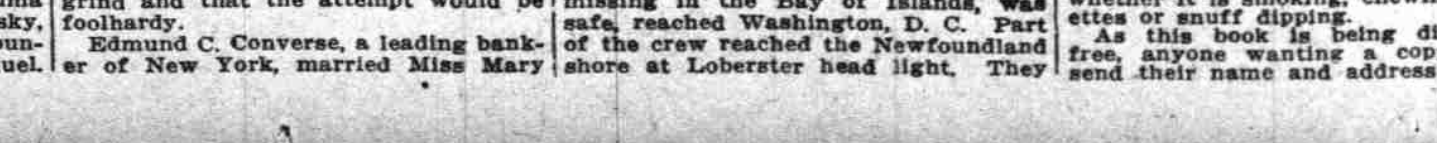

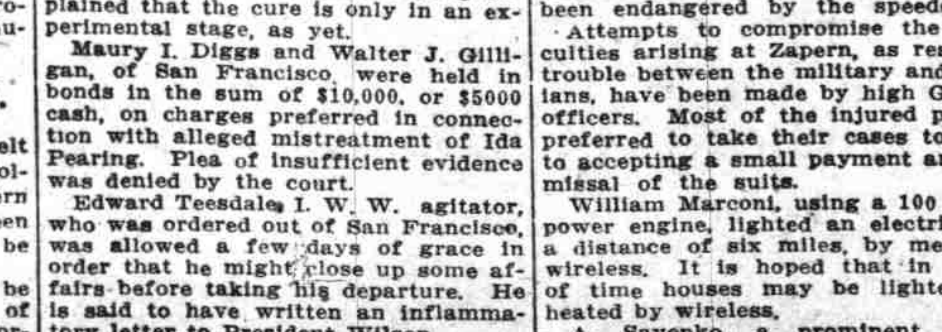

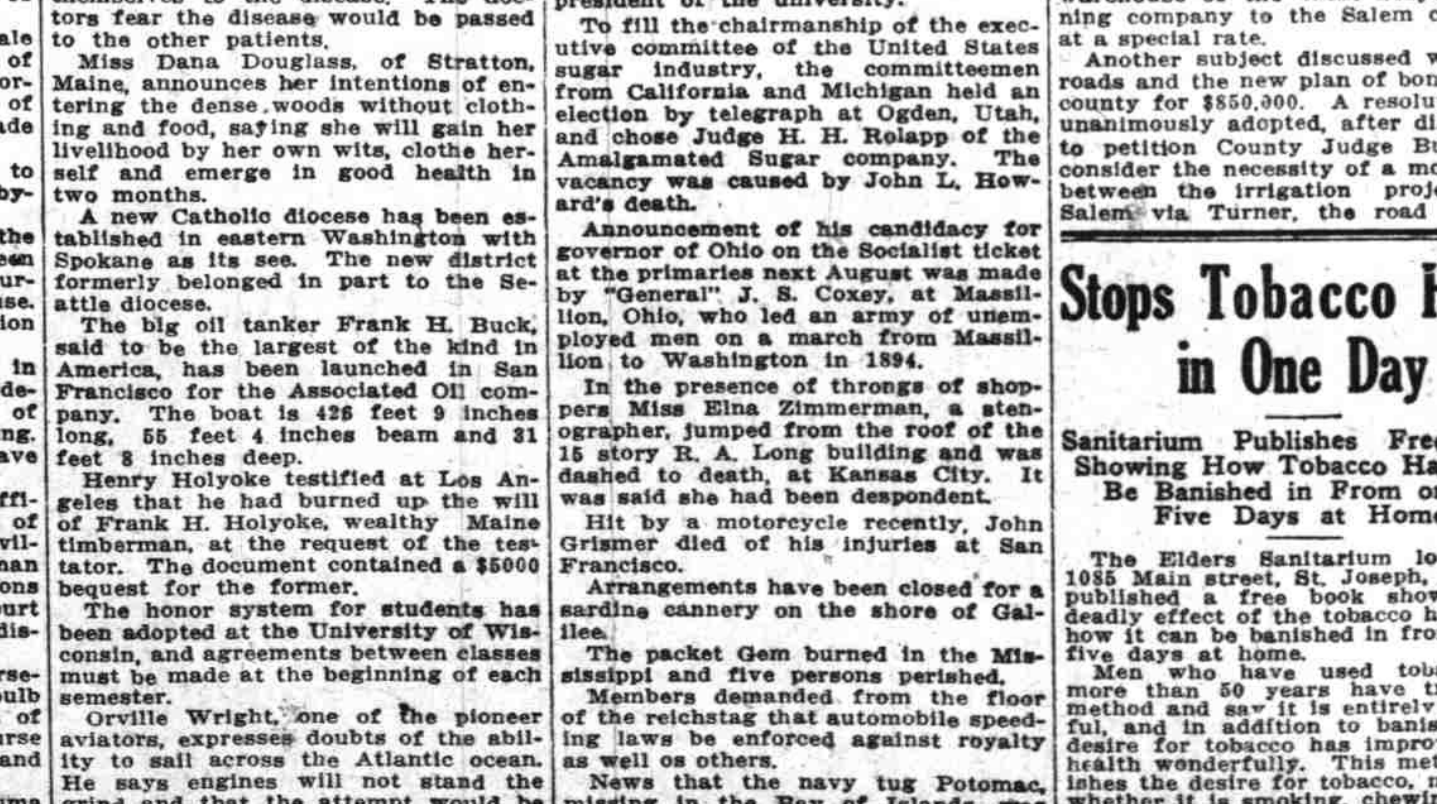

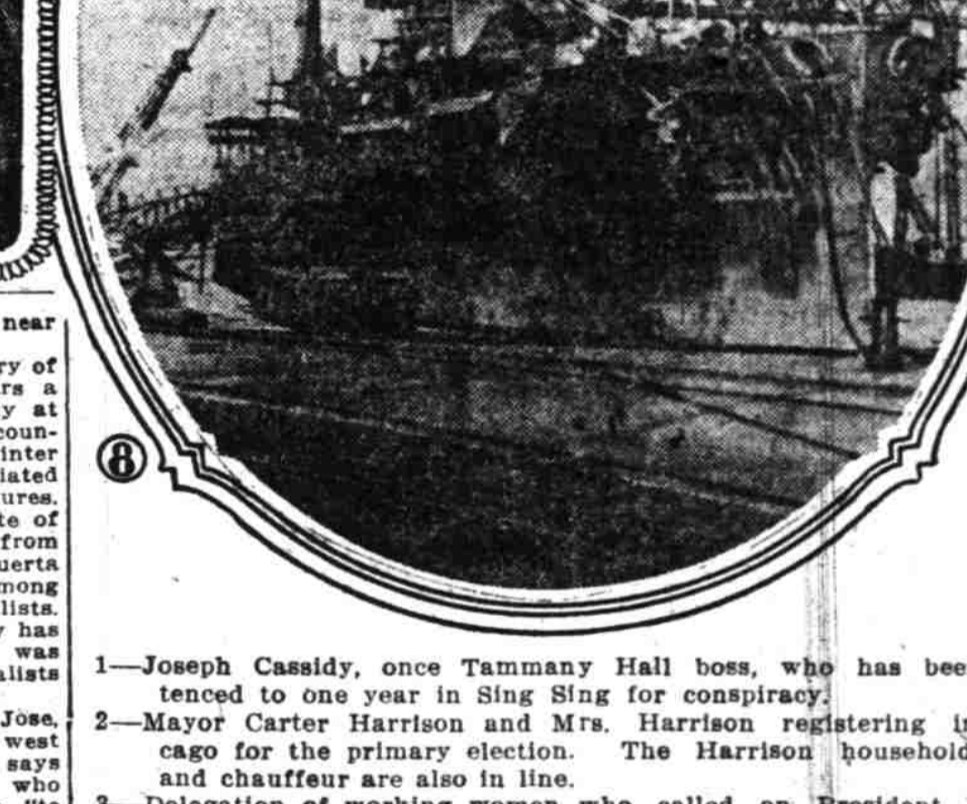

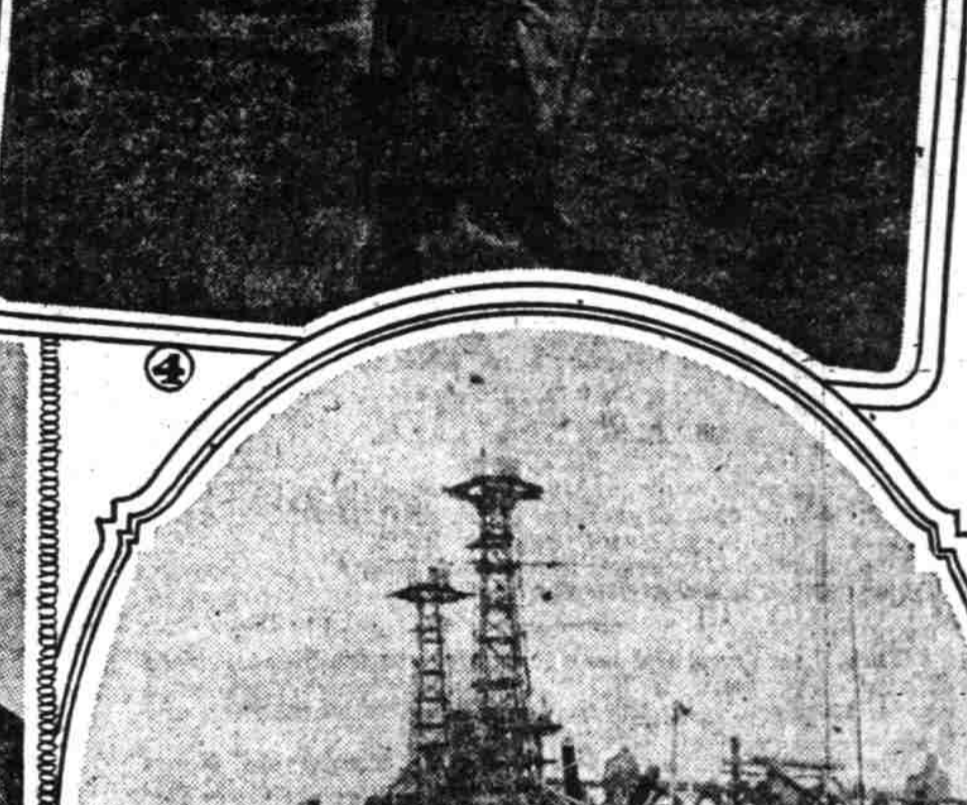

Assassinating at Barcelona attempted to kill the ex-governor. An innocent bystander was slain in the attack.

Friendlyness of Japan toward the United States is supposed to have been increased by the passage of the Burnett immigration bill in the house. The bill avoids the Japanese exclusion act of California.

Members of the Imperial family in Berlin are severely criticized in debates in the Prussian diet because of their habit of reckless auto driving. Lives of pedestrians are said to have been endangered by the speeders.

Attempts to compromise the difficulties arising at Zepher, as result of trouble between the military and civilians, have been made by high German officers. Most of the injured persons preferred to take their cases to court to accepting a small payment and dismissal of the suits.

Declaring that the terms of the sale had been misrepresented, the Earl of Devon refused to sell to Baron De Forest his Bootle estate, in the suburbs of Liverpool. The banter had been made during a political speech.

1—Joseph Cassidy, once Tammany Hall boss, who has been sentenced to one year in Sing Sing for conspiracy.
2—Mayor Carter Harrison and Mrs. Harrison registering in Chicago for the primary election. The Harrison household cook and chauffeur are also in line.
3—Delegation of working women who called on President Wilson recently in behalf of suffrage.
4—Charles F. Niles, the New York aviator, who flew head downward for a mile in a Moissant monoplane, establishing a new dare-devil record in aeronautics.
5—Judge and Mrs. Ben Lindsey at a session of Denver's famous juvenile court.
6—Miss M. Mercedes Hanly, daughter of Edward A. Hanly of London, who will marry the Honorable Donald Forbes, brother and heir presumptive of the Earl of Granard in April.
7—Prince Tokugawa Iyeyasu, president of the Japanese House of Peers.
8—The dreadnaught New York, the world's largest battleship, nearing completion at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Turner and Salem being for the greater part in good shape.

MANY IN MONMOUTH HAVE SORE ARMS

Monmouth, Or., Feb. 14.—There are four cases of smallpox in this city and several homes are under quarantine. To prevent further spread of the disease, the district board of education recommended that pupils of the schools be vaccinated, and now the larger percentage have received the injection. Many citizens and normal school students are also receiving the vaccine. State Health Officer Calvin

Drilling for Oil.
Centralia, Wash., Feb. 14.—The Crescent Oil company began its oil drilling operations on the Sarver ranch near Tenino Thursday. The work of drilling is under the supervision of E. C. Miller, an engineer of long experience in oil field work. The first well is being sunk near the old Christopher well, drilled 12 years ago.

OREGON PEOPLE DISCOVER SHORT WAY BACK TO STOMACH HEALTH

Stops Tobacco Habit in One Day

Use of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy Brings Surprisingly Quick Results. Now, I feel like a new man. Thousands of others from all parts of the country have written in praise of the remedy. It is known everywhere because it brings results. Its record is astonishing. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and removes poisonous matter from the system. It brings swift relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many say that it has saved them from dangerous operations and many declare that it has saved their lives. Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitations, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to OVI company drug store and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing among people they know—of send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you the wonderful effects. (Adv.)

If you want to feel well quick be sure that your stomach is alright. A very large part of human ills are centered in the stomach and the digestive apparatus of Oregon people have found the way to health in the use of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy, a truly remarkable remedy. The first dose proves what it will do—and there is no long treatment. Here is what some Oregon people say of the remedy: Mrs. W. H. Helmsch, 222 Alsworth street, Portland, Or., wrote: "I am beginning to feel like a different person. I have been telling my friends about your wonderful remedy." W. H. Gerrish, Albany, Or., wrote: "It had not been long for your medicine. I feel sure I would have been dead by now."

The Elders Sanitarium located at 1085 Main street, St. Joseph, Mo., has published a free book showing the healthy effect of the tobacco habit, and how it can be banished in from one to five days at home. Members who have used tobacco for more than 50 years have tried this method and in addition to banishing the desire for tobacco has improved their health wonderfully. This method banishes the desire for tobacco, no matter whether it is smoking, chewing, cigars, pipes or snuff dipping. As this book is being distributed free, anyone wanting a copy should send their name and address at once.

Sanitarium Publishes Free Book Showing How Tobacco Habit Can Be Banished in From one to Five Days at Home. The packet Gem burned in the Mississippi and five persons perished as well on others. Members demanded from the floor of the reichstag that automobile speeding laws be enforced against royalty as well on others. News that the navy tug Potomac, missing in the Bay of Islands, was safe, reached Washington, D. C. Part of the crew reached the Newfoundland shore at Loberster head light. They said the tug was fast in the ice near Rocky Point. Peter P. Hansen, former secretary of state of Minnesota and for years a state senator there, died suddenly at Warner's Hot Springs, San Diego county. He had been spending the winter there. Hansen was closely associated with James J. Hill in railroad ventures. Six hundred lots in the townsite of Agua Prieta, Sonora, confiscated from Arturo Morales, said to be a Huerta sympathizer, will be apportioned among poor citizens by the constitutionalists. The apportionment made Sunday has been revoked because the claim was made that wealthy constitutionalists secured a choice of property. R. Mc Smith's saloon at San Jose, Cal., was "shot up" in true wild west style at 1 a. m. by a woman who says she is the proprietor's wife and who actually is suing him for divorce, "to show she was married," she said. Wage demands of coal miners presented by representatives of the United Mine Workers of America were rejected by the operators of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. The wage increase required would be ruinous, the mine owners said. The Wausau Paper Mill company's $1,000,000 plant at Brockaw, Wis., caught fire. Firemen and apparatus were sent to aid in the effort to save it. The Mexican federal gunboat Zaragoza arrived at New Orleans from Vera Cruz, firing a 21 gun salute as it passed Jackson barracks but without receiving any response.

WEST STAYTON HAS GOOD ROADS "BUG"

West Stayton, Or., Feb. 14.—The regular meeting of the West Stayton Commercial club Thursday evening was one of the largest ever held here, 75 attending. John H. Harting, of Portland, was the speaker and promised the settlers to install an auto truck daily service next summer to take their produce from the receiving warehouse of the West Stayton Cannery company to the Salem canneries at a special rate. Another subject discussed was good roads and the new plan of bonding the county for $50,000. A resolution was unanimously adopted, after discussion, to petition County Judge Bushey to consider the necessity of a model road between the Irrigation project and Salem via Turner, the road between

Stops Tobacco Habit in One Day

Sanitarium Publishes Free Book Showing How Tobacco Habit Can Be Banished in From one to Five Days at Home. The packet Gem burned in the Mississippi and five persons perished as well on others. Members demanded from the floor of the reichstag that automobile speeding laws be enforced against royalty as well on others. News that the navy tug Potomac, missing in the Bay of Islands, was safe, reached Washington, D. C. Part of the crew reached the Newfoundland shore at Loberster head light. They