

Social and Personal By Nona Lawler

FOR General and Mrs. Potts of Vancouver Barracks the officers and women of the post will give a large ball this evening to which many of the society people of Portland have been bidden. This afternoon Mrs. Donald Ranney Munro presided at an elaborate tea and Mrs. John Daly entertained for the pleasure of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter M. Daly, giving a bridge with an informal tea following.

Portland Man Weds in California.

The following notice has been received of the wedding in Oakland, Cal., of Daniel Francis Campbell Jr., of this city, to Miss Miriam Irmine Clark of Oakland. Mr. Campbell is of an old and well known Portland family and has many friends in Portland who will be interested in the wedding. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock on the "Honolulan" in the Hawaiian islands. They will be at home after April 1 in Portland.

The marriage of Miss Miriam Clark and Daniel Francis Campbell of Portland, Or., took place last evening at St. Augustus church, Rev. B. J. McKinnon officiating.

"The bride was given away by her uncle, Judge R. M. Clark of Sacramento. She wore a gown of white satin with an overdress of lace and white pearl embroidery. Her tulle veil was arranged in a Juliet cap and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Alice Clark attended her sister as maid of honor. Like the bridesmaids and the flower girls, she was in yellow, her gown being made of a characteristic antique material. Her bridesmaid party included Miss Edith Clark and Miss Helen Hopper as bridesmaids, and Miss Alice and Miss Muriel Hopper as flower girls. A. Campbell was the best man and the ushers were Harry Hopper, Edward O. C. Ord, William Judge and George C. Clark. A reception and wedding supper at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Moore Barry, in Woolsey street, followed the church ceremony."

Portland Heights District School Entertainment.

A lively interest is being expressed in the district school entertainment this evening at the Portland Heights club. Herewith is published a quaint picture of Miss Graeta Butterfield in a costume 75 years old.

Miss Graeta Butterfield, in a museum print fashioned 75 years ago, which she will wear at District School entertainment at Portland Heights club.

A lively interest is being expressed in the district school entertainment this evening at the Portland Heights club.

Herewith is published a quaint picture of Miss Graeta Butterfield in a costume 75 years old. For the most part the costumes have been fashioned to appear grotesque rather than quaint, but those of the club's guests who are so fortunate to have antique costumes will wear them. There will be singing by an old time quartet, a spelling match and many other amusements of an extraordinary nature. The committee is Mrs. George Hoyt, Mrs. A. E. Butterfield, Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, Mrs. W. D. Jellison and Mrs. W. B. Mersereau.

Engagement Announced.

At a dinner given by Professor and Mrs. Charles Griffith at the Moana hotel, Honolulu, H. I., February evening, February 14, covers were laid for 65 guests. Decorations were in red hyacinths, carnations and hearts. The place cards were in the form of a document, with seal and signature of Daniel Cupid, and read as follows:

"Proclamation—Know ye all—Whereas, E. M. Spain and Mrs. L. B. Hegar, of the house of Evans, and Edith Rosslyn, daughter of Charles Griffith, of the house of Collins, having reached years of discretion and dearest hearts seek admission into the state of matrimony, I, Daniel Cupid, governor of said state, hereby proclaim them candidates for such admission, on or after May first, nineteen hundred and fourteen."

"Written under my hand and seal this fourteenth day of February, nineteen hundred and fourteen." (Signed) DANIEL CUPID.

Miss Collais is well known in Honolulu, having been head of the voice department of Oahu College for two years. Her beautiful voice was heard in symphony concerts as soloist; also in Central Union church as soprano. She was vice president of the Woman's Musical club and director of the Teachers' Choral society. Mr. Evans is a young business man of Portland, O. He is a buyer for Roberts Bros., of that city. He has obtained recognition in musical circles and received his musical education in Europe. He was adjudicator several years ago. Eisteddfods held in Wales and has also won medals in musical competitions. He is known in the coast cities as the Welsh baritone and is director of church choir at the First Congregational church of Portland.

D. of R. Reception.

Tuesday afternoon Willamette chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, gave a reception at the home of Mrs. G. Titus, in commemoration of Washington's birthday, at which Multnomah chapter were the honored guests.

Dinner at University Club.

At the University club last evening 25 local members, comprising the Alumni association and the Phi Kappa Phi fraternity of Portland, banqueted in honor of the founding of the organization.

Five Nights Club Dance.

The "Five Nights club," an organization formed by young business and professional men of the city, will give a dance this evening at the Women of the Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets.

Concert Planned.

A concert has been arranged under the auspices of the Welsh Cambrian society, to be held at the Church of Strangers, Monday, March 2. The following artists will take part: Misses Edith Rosslyn Collais, Sarah Edwards, Vera Smith, Mrs. W. F. Downing and E. Maltwin Evans, with Miss Marjorie E. Collais as accompanist.

Royal Neighbors at Home.

Oregon Rose Camp, Royal Neighbors, will be "at home" this evening to all members and visiting Royal Neighbors in the city, at Royal Academy hall, 85 1/2 Fifth street.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Stearns entertained informally Tuesday evening a few of their friends in honor of the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding.

Important Notice

The following article appeared in The Oregon Journal of February 25:

CORRECTION MADE TO RESTAURANT RATING

The rating of the restaurant in the department store of Olds, Wortman & King is hereby corrected to the same as that of the Portland Hotel, according to Dr. Charles A. Ballard, head of the sanitary division of the city health bureau, which did score the restaurant at 25 out of 100 in reporting the scores of the various restaurants of the city made an error and gave the restaurant a lower marking than it should have had.

It is hardly necessary to publish the above, as it is universally known that we have the cleanest kitchen in Portland. No preparation whatever was made by us for this inspection—our kitchen has always been open for visitors at all times.
