

GUARDSMEN COULD
MOBILIZE IN 48 HOURS

Adjutant Finzer Answers War Department; Sees No War Cloud Ahead.

Adjutant General Finzer of the Oregon national guard has received a written inquiry from the war department concerning the time it would take the guard to mobilize. Many of the guardsmen are in the inquiry possible steps preparatory to intervention in Mexico.

Although General Finzer admits that he has things in his mind so the guard throughout the state could be mobilized at the state camp at Clackamas station, within 48 hours, he cannot see any war clouds.

Departmental matters, such as communications from the war department are confidential generally, said General Finzer, "and while this is the first time within several years that any inquiry has been made, outside of routine reports, I do not see anything to base a prophecy that the federal executives are getting ready for intervention."

"At the present time there are approximately 1500 trained militiamen enrolled in the infantry, field artillery, cavalry and coast artillery, and are fully equipped for actual service, from ammunition to blankets. At the present time the mobilizing camp at Clackamas station is not in the best condition. Recent rains have made it wet."

MAN BELIEVED TO BE DYING, GIVES EVIDENCE

Flat on his back on a low stretcher Jack Sach, dying, it is believed from tuberculosis, testified this morning before a jury in Circuit Judge Bradshaw's court. Sach is suing the O. W. R. & N. company and J. B. Ward, superintendent of the Albina shops, for $35,000 damages. In his complaint he alleges that he developed tuberculosis from working as a glass grinder for the company because the machine was not properly constructed and threw out sand and particles of glass. The company alleges he had tuberculosis before he began to work as a glass grinder. He has a wife and two children. Manix & Sullivan, attorneys, represent Sach, and A. C. Spencer, C. E. Cochran and W. A. Robbins are attorneys for the company and Ward.

FURNITURE INSTALLED IN DEPOT BUILDING

New furniture will be installed in all the waiting rooms of the Union depot in a few days. The first piece was installed this morning. It is a massive hardwood bench of the type now being used in the modern depots of the east.

Manager Edward Lyons of the North Pacific Terminal company, stated this morning he expects to have the new furniture installed in a few days, and with that he declares Portland has as neat appearing a depot as is found anywhere. In spite of the fact that it is some time since the building was erected.

The new train shed in the passenger yard has just been completed and the entire area from the depot to the opposite side of the yard is now practically under roof.

DREDGE PROGRESSING IN EAST FORK WORK

Woodland, Wash., Feb. 26.—The government dredge operating on the east fork of the Lewis river at the present time, making a channel from there to the main river, has completed about 300 yards of the work from La Center toward the forks of the river and from now on the work will progress rapidly. When the east fork is finished the dredge will come to Woodland and work down from there to the forks, dredging and putting in jetties at needed points, after which it will work from the forks toward the Columbia. These improvements will enable navigators to reach both Woodland and La Center all through the low water season.

COURT WOULD SERVE
ALL PERSONS ALIKE

Accused Man's Prominence Makes No Difference in Case, Says Judge.

"It's the prominent man who escapes, but the poor fellow without influence that is haled into court and has to take his medicine," said Municipal Judge Stevenson this morning when a request was made that he not force a man giving the name of Vaul Beach and a girl giving the name of Bessie Smith to appear in court. The couple were caught last night in a raid on the Majestic hotel.

The girl is a public stenographer and was released on her recognizance last night, while the man gave $20 bail and had his attorney appear for him. The judge did not like it, as he has made a ruling that all persons arrested must appear before him. Attorney Arthur Moulton appeared for Beach, the judge stating that the man is a prominent traveling salesman and pleaded guilty, traveling a $20 fine in order to avoid publicity of the matter. The girl was allowed to go free.

The raid was made at 2 o'clock. A man giving the name of E. C. Collins and a girl giving the name of Maggie Smith were also caught in a room, both being charged with a statutory offense. J. J. Parker and wife, proprietors of the hotel, were arrested for conducting a disorderly house. Their case will be heard later, as will the case of the other couple.

In another raid on the Ohio hotel, T. Sumida, the Japanese proprietor, was arrested for conducting a disorderly house, while C. Fealey was arrested for white slavery. Three girls and one man were also taken into custody.

Michael Rodovich, proprietor of a coffee house at 28 1/2 North Second street, was arrested in a raid on his place in a few days. He is charged with allowing liquor to be brought into his place. He is said to have no license. Five other men of foreign birth were each fined $10 for taking liquor there.

Railroad Department Moves.
Owing to the congestion in the O. W. R. & N. offices in the Wells Fargo building, the company's mechanical drawing department is today moving into rooms in the old building at East street dock. The quarters there will be temporary only until the company completes a new building at the shops in Albina. Plans are to construct a new building there in the very near future. When completed some of the departments not closely affiliated with operation will find headquarters there.

PENDLETON STOCKMAN
KILLED IN A WRECK

Another Injured When Stock Train Breaks in Stampede Tunnel.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 26.—William Mickschanski, Pendleton, Or., was killed, J. B. Holden, Pendleton, was injured, and three trainmen barely escaped death in a Northern Pacific freight wreck in Stampede tunnel following the Cascades late yesterday.

According to the report received here today the train of 50 stock cars was broken in two when half way through the tunnel. The disconnecting of an air hose set the brakes suddenly and caused one of the big helper locomotives to plow through the cabooses and several of the cars. The stockmen were riding in the wrecked cabooses. Three members of the crew who were on the rear platform of the locomotive of the accident escaped by jumping.

Employed by Farmer.
Pendleton, Or., Feb. 26.—William Mickschanski, who was killed in a stock train wreck near Martin, Wash., yesterday, had lived near this city several years, and had been in the employ of A. Guderan, farmer, whose cattle he was taking to Seattle. His brother, living at Stanfield, left today for Ellensburg to claim the body.

B. Holden, who had his foot crushed in the same wreck, has lived here for some time.

WOULD RUN AGAINST
"BOSS"; LOSES HIS JOB

Hood River, Or., Feb. 26.—Kent Shoemaker, who has been the deputy county clerk for several years under Clerk Hansen, was dismissed from office yesterday, following his announcement that he would be a candidate for county clerk in the November election.

Mr. Hansen said relative to his discharge: "I know of no other reason for Mr. Hansen's action than the fact that I have announced myself a candidate for the position that he now holds. My hat is in the ring, and will make the run in the primaries this same."

Mr. Hansen said: "I discharged Mr. Shoemaker because we have not been getting along very well together lately, and in view of the fact that he has announced himself as a candidate for the position that I now hold and expect to run for again, I thought we would not be very congenial in the office pending the outcome of the campaign."

REGISTRATION FIGURES SHOW WOMEN ARE RESPONDING TO CALL

At last the women of Multnomah county have begun to show an interest in the registration for the coming primaries and yesterday their number fell but 77 less than the number of the men, the women numbering 529 and the men 606. The total of 1135 yesterday and the number of women were both records for the present registration. From the east side the women were particularly strong, outnumbering the east side men by 29, as there were 389 women and but 360 men from that district.

The total registration to last night was 31,793, men numbering 22,617 and women 9176. Democratic registration is slowly gaining on the Republican and is over one-third of the later registration in numbers. Party registration is as follows: Republicans, 20,592; Democratic, 6928; Progressives, 548; Independents, 1927; Prohibitionists, 956; and Socialists, 584.

RAILROAD ASKED TO SELECT NEW ROUTE

That the Portland & Oregon City railroad select a new route, entering the city east of Reed college, near Woodstock, run north on Thirty-fourth street into Kenilworth and thence to the Kenilworth improvement club to the road's president, Stephen Carver, at its meeting Tuesday night. Carver stated that this route would be acceptable and that engineers would be sent over it at once to seek the easiest grades.

A large delegation from the Kenilworth club and others interested will take before Commissioner Brewster at 10 a. m. next Wednesday a request that a swimming pool be installed in Kenilworth park.

Commissioner Dieck has been asked to speak on street work at the next meeting of the club, March 10.

AUTOMOBILE DRIVER
ARRESTED FOR SPEEDING

Controlman Young made the complaint. He timed Kirkland on Powell Valley road, reporting that the speed was 30 miles an hour. Kirkland claimed he was making about 23 miles an hour. The auto driver had been to funeral and was on his way back to the city.

FAMILY IS POISONED
EATING 'MUSHROOMS'

"Expert" Selector of Fungus Food Dies, Rest of Family Seriously Ill.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Pasadena, Cal., Feb. 26.—Taken violently ill after eating mushrooms gathered in the fields following the recent rains, Mrs. Emma Gascoigne, wife of a retired minister, died yesterday. Her granddaughter, Miss Bessie Simpson, is critically ill. Rev. Gascoigne and a neighbor are seriously ill, but physicians believe they will recover.

The mushrooms, or toadstools, were eaten Sunday at noon. Recently, when warned of the danger of the practice, Mrs. Gascoigne asserted that she was an expert on mushrooms and had no fear of mistaking the poisonous for the edible variety.

The family was accustomed, after each rain, when the fungus growth was plentiful, to partake freely of the mushrooms.

OFFICIAL WEIGHING OF MAILS TAKING PLACE

Government employees and the railroads are now busy weighing all incoming and outgoing mail at the depots for the purpose of checking up for the year. The weighing will continue for 105 days. During that time every truckload of mail will be put on the scales and the weight recorded to the very fraction of an ounce.

This is the time of year when the mails are lightest, it is said by those keeping closely in touch with the mail movements, and hence the showing will not be as big as were the weights taken during the month just before Christmas when the postoffice forces were buried to the heads in work and trains compelled to carry extra baggage cars to accommodate the overflow.

INDICATIONS THAT
4 WERE DROWNED

Two Bodies Found Near North Yakima With Evidence of Other Deaths.

North Yakima, Wash., Feb. 26.—The bodies of a man and a little girl, believed to have been drowned in a freshet last Friday night or Saturday morning, and evidence that a woman and a younger child perished at the same time were found late yesterday by John Logan, a rancher, on Selah creek, a dry creek bed at a point 15 miles north of North Yakima. The broken body of a two seated buggy was found half a mile below a bridge washed out in the freshet. Half a mile further down the little canyon were the bodies of two horses near that of a six year old girl and a mile further down was found the body of the man. All of them lay in the sage brush, high and dry, after the receding of the water brought from the snow in the lower valley by the warm rain that fell in the Yakima valley Friday night.

In the body of the buggy was a woman's hat, a shirt, a waist, a hand bag containing a watch and a bag filled with an infant's swaddling clothes. The only identification is from a note stamped in the man's pocket with the inscription "J. H. Shaw's book, bought in Bolivar, Wash." The two bodies were brought to North Yakima last night by the county coroner, who returned to search for the other two. Selah creek is ordinarily dry. The road the family is believed to have been traveling when the unexpected high water carried it away leads to Ellensburg from the East Selah valley.

Residents of Selah last night were unable to determine the number, who are about 40 years old, and six feet tall.

Paint Without Oil

Remarkable Discovery That Cuts Down the Cost of Paint Seventy-Five Per Cent.

A Free Trial Package Is Mailed to Everyone Who Writes.
A. L. Rice, a prominent manufacturer of Adams, N. Y., has discovered a process of making a new kind of paint without the use of oil. He calls it Powerpaint. It adheres to any surface, wood, stone or brick, spreads and looks like oil paint and costs about one fourth as much. Write to Mr. A. L. Rice, Manufacturer, 66 North Adams, N. Y., and he will send you a free trial package, also color card and full information showing you how you can save a good many dollars. Write today.

Substitution and Cut Prices

usually go hand in hand
They comprise the greatest evils that are practiced on an unsuspecting public. Do you know why dealers attempt to sell you their own article or something "just as good" in place of what you call for? It's a matter of profit—they make more money on that article regardless of your health. It is not fair to your judgment nor to us as manufacturers, who have told you through truthful advertising the immense amount of good has done for others and will do for you.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

How It Is Done!

A retailer advertises Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey (which is made to sell at $1 a bottle and well worth every penny of it) at a cut price, sometimes below cost, to attract trade to his store, and when you ask for Duffy's, finds out what you want it for, then tries to sell you some unknown something "just as good." He does not spend his time trying substitution for nothing! Not he! If he sells the substitute he is the one who profits, not you. He makes money on this article and is willing to chance a loss on the genuine hoping to sell you. His clerks are probably getting a bonus for pushing the substitute as well.

The retailer (and there are many of them) who gives you what you ask for without quibble, is the one who has your interest, as well as his own in mind—he should get your business. You feel comfortable while trading with him.

We do not approve of price cutting—for cut prices, along with substitution, means destruction—not competition. But if prices are cut to attract your attention—insist on what you ask for. Get Duffy's and benefit yourself and possibly an unworthy product.

Remember—The concern that can advertise a reliable article year in and year out for many years, has something of worth to sell you or they couldn't advertise.
Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed packages—never in bulk. The Company signature is on the label—the Company name blown in the bottle. Get the Genuine, sold by most druggists, grocers and dealers at $1.00 a bottle.
