cific Northwest Shippers Change System of Selling-Heavy Loss in Price Is Result.

The market for apples abroad is very poor, and prices generally are reported lower. Regarding the situation, the Northwestern Fruit Exchange says: "Cables from Europe today report a market about 50 cents per box under American parity. This regrettable situation has been brought about by market about 50 sessonably heavy shipments from this side, some of which nave been in more of less weak condition. One large cooperative agency has apparently become paricky and has been dumping large quantities of fruit into the European markets, and has contributed in the ropean markets, and has contributed in the largely to the resulting demoralization. Acland Quotes Bryan as Holding It Unwise to Make Investigation immediately.

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, March 2, -That Secretary of State Bryan, at Washington, and delayed the Benton investigation commission's departure feim El Paso, Texas, for Chihuahua City. Mexico, deeming it temporarily unsere, was stated in the ouse of commons this afternoon by Under Secretary or Foreign Affairs Acland

English Ambassador Sir Cecil Spring-Rice cable, from Washington that, when General Carranza objected to the investigation Saturday, General Villa acquiesced and asked that the commissioners await further word from his superiors Until Villa con-sented, Sir Cecil seld, the commission would remain at El Paso.

Word was also received that General Carranza had appointed Miguel Covarrubias, who held a diplomatic post under the late President Madero, the rebels' confidential agent in London. presumably to make it possible for communications to be exchanged be-tween the British foreign office and himself in cases such as the Benton affair, which has litherto been impossible owing to the lack of a channel brough which that might pass.

It was considered unlikely here, how-ever, that the foleign office would onsent to such partial recognition of the rebels as would be involved in transacting busiress with Covarrubias.

United States Olynsul Simpich remained in Nogalas, Arizona, during the morning, but it was reported that England, it was stated positively, the morning, but it was reported that would not communicate with Carranza, he would meet Carranza before night, presumbably to rinew discussion of the Benton matte Simpleh and mighbers of the Car-
