

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH WILL CELEBRATE 25TH ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Archbishop Christie and Other Prominent Clergymen to Participate.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of St. Patrick's Catholic church will be celebrated in a jubilee tomorrow at the remodeled edifice at Nineteenth and S.W. streets with elaborate ceremonies. All arrangements for the event have been in the hands of the pastor, Father E. P. Murphy, who has been in charge of the parish for more than 10 years.

Archbishop Christie will pontificate at the high mass at 10:30. The Very Rev. Dr. J. Darby of London, head of the Benedictine Order in England, is to deliver the sermon. With the exception of the one who has died, all the rectors who have had charge of the parish, including the one who founded it, will be present at the services.

Father F. V. Gibney will be the dean of the clergy present. He is at present chaplain of the orphanage at Oswego, and was the founder of St. Patrick's church.

Bishop O'Day, of Seattle, succeeded him and he too will be one of the speakers. Bishop O'Day was succeeded by Father Edward Donnelly, of San Francisco. Father W. R. Hogan, now of Eugene, was next and Father John Demaris, who died, was the last before Father Murphy. The latter has been in charge for over 10 years.

Remodeling of St. Patrick's has just been finished after more than six months work. The auditorium has been beautifully finished and decorations are said to be more elaborate than in any other Catholic church west of Chicago. While this work has been going on, the services have been held in the small chapel. The work has cost more than 19,000, according to Father Murphy. It includes new altars and pews in addition to the remodeling of the sanctuary.

The services tomorrow will be the first public ones since the remodeling was commenced. The jubilee amounts in effect to a rededication.

Men's Supper Served.

A supper for "men only" was served Friday night in the parlors of the St. Patrick's church and 97 men of the community attended. A splendid "feed" served by the women of the church, with representation by numbers and speaking was given. Rev. D. V. Poling, pastor, acted as chairman, and spoke on the necessity for the church to enlarge the scope and extent of its endeavor.

The church of today, he said, exists for the community, and not the community for the church. He expressed the desire to cooperate with representatives of commercial and booster clubs present at the supper and to act first as a citizen and a man towards the community and afterwards as a minister.

H. Nolte spoke for the Rose Festival, Frank Deuster president of the Overlook Booster club, discussed the Interstate bridge and the proposed approach to Fairview. Mrs. M. Orth, president of the North Portland Commercial club, Samuel Orr, L. E. Wells, S. Boggs and Dr. M. D. Davis were other speakers. Rev. D. V. Poling spoke on the subject, "The Two Men."

Bible Class Gives Dinner.

One of the notable events in the work of Centenary Methodist church was the dinner given by the women of the church to members of the Bible class last Tuesday night. Mrs. D. H. Trimble, president of the women's class, acted as toastmistress. A short Adult Bible class was given by Mrs. Wilson, vice president of the women's organization. H. A. Killam, teacher of the men's class, voiced response. C. I. Weaver, superintendent of the Sunday school, spoke on the place of the organized class in the Sunday school. Dr. E. F. Rowland, teacher of the women's organization, told of his aims and the work that had been planned out.

At the dinner hour Friday the Men's Brotherhood was addressed by Mayor E. S. Albee on "The Commission Form of Government."

MUSICAL INTERPOLATIONS AID IN SERIES OF READINGS FROM OLD TESTAMENT

Dr. Henry Russell Talbot Gave Reading Wednesday on Poetry.

As the series of readings from the books of the old testament being given at St. David's Episcopal church, East Twelfth and Belmont streets, Wednesday nights during Lent draws toward a close more and more interest is being shown. Last Wednesday night, when Dr. Henry Russell Talbot, the rector, gave the readings on poetry, the church was filled.

The musical interpolations, or rather illustrations of the various readings, are played by Mrs. Lenora Fisher Whipp on the pipe organ, and these have proved very attractive. The combination is a unique one and so far the subject at hand has never been presented in this way in the city.

Dr. Talbot in each of the programs has from three to five readings, and Mrs. Whipp follows each reading with classical numbers illustrative of the same. Today at the next Wednesday evening the readings are being given, according to Dr. Talbot, to stimulate interest in the old testament as a literary as well as a religious study. In his first program Dr. Talbot read stories of love, of passion and the other episodes that occur in men's lives, the same today as in the past.

The great orations of the old testament are covered in the second program and in the third, last Wednesday night, beautiful readings were presented. Next Wednesday night Dr. Talbot will speak of the old testament prophecies, using three illustrations from the minor prophets. On the last Wednesday night he will conclude with a study of the rhapsodies, which he defines as a literary form midway between the poem and the oration.

SOME REMARKS ON SUBJECT OF RELIGION

By Rev. Delmar H. Trimble, D. D., Pastor Centenary Methodist.

Speaking of tithe-ing and religion, put a man and his God on the same 10 cent piece and they will not be very far apart.

The Sabbath is man's school day for highest things, a day given him to sit at the feet of God and learn.

Conversion is as scientific as magnetism, and the material for it lies where a man may touch God - anywhere - conditions being right.

The services of God's house are surely meet Him there.

The potency of all religion is in that a man may reinforce himself with God. Side by side with his weakness lies the omnipotence of the Almighty. For achievement in manhood he may lay hold of this by an act of faith and will.

If God is worth anything, He is worth everything.

Let us have faith in our reason, and reason in our faith.

Our pettiest service becomes divine when linked to the span and purpose of God.

In the deepest things of religion we do not know in order to believe, but we believe, in order that we may know.

A truth lived is the only kind of truth that is authoritative to the mind and conscience, and he who does live his truth rarely fails to find his truth.

Mrs. Lenora Fisher Whipp.

ets next week will consist of the following three numbers: Finale, Fifth Symphony, Adagio Molto, Sonata Op. 10, No. 1; Andante Con Moto, Fifth Symphony (Beethoven).

METHODIST PASTOR SURPRISED

Dr. Frank L. Loveland pastor of the First Methodist church, and Mrs. Loveland were greatly surprised Wednesday night when more than 200 of the young people of the church went to the paragon and spent the evening with them.

During the course of his sermon last Sunday Dr. Loveland commented upon the fact that his home here was a lonely one because of the absence of young people. The young men in the crowd each bore a white carnation, and these were presented to Mrs. Loveland. The young women gave Dr. Loveland red carnations.

The singing of some of the old familiar songs was the first warning of visitors the pastor and his wife had. Musical numbers were rendered, including a selection by the Epworth League young women's quartet.

We hold to the centrality of Christ to all light, power, truth, reformation.

"MAKING WATER WAGON"

"Making a Water Wagon" is the subject of an address to be given at the old Taylor Street M. E. church, Third and Taylor streets, tomorrow at 3 o'clock by W. S. Grathwell, who is the winner of several intercollegiate oratorical contests. He will be supported by a temperance chorus of 40 voices and a male quartet under the direction of Milton H. St. John.

This is the fourth in a series of educational lectures to be given under the auspices of the Out to Win Committee. The series is meeting with such approval that arrangements are being made to secure the Gypsy Smith tabernacle for a general Prohibition rally before the convention May 5 and 6. The meetings are free, and the public is invited.

DOINGS IN CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CIRCLES

St. Johns was organized as a district of the Portland Union Sunday afternoon church. Three churches make up the district.

The Sunnyside Congregational society will run on a $350 budget for the coming year. Last year's budget was $290.

To arouse interest in the temperance question, the Endeavor societies are going to take up a debate on prohibition. Each society will select one speaker to represent it in the district try-out. Each district will select a team from these representatives, and a series of district debates will be held for the championship.
