

Income Tax Returns Kept Confidential

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Again Sends Order That Tax Returns Be Kept Secret.

Milton A. Miller, United States collector of internal revenue, has received the following message from Commissioner of Internal Revenue Osborne:

"You will see that all officers of your force preserve as inviolably confidential, all income tax returns, as the slightest infraction of the law upon this subject will be severely punished.

"OSBORNE."

"We have received these warnings before," Mr. Miller said, "and this goes to show why no one in Oregon excepting myself and a few of my deputies know just what income tax is to be paid in Oregon, or how many returns have been filed."

Mr. Miller said that his deputies are filing the returns due on March 1, and who have not done so. Unless their excuse of absence or sickness was accepted by Collector Miller, they are delinquent and subject to fine when discovered.

Suit Is Started to Condemn Property

School Board Objects to Paying $6500 Demanded by Owners of Lots Adjoining Richmond School.

To secure eight lots belonging to Joseph H. Nash adjoining the playground of the Richmond school on East Forty-first and Caruthers streets, without paying the $6500 demanded, the school board has authorized the filing of a condemnation suit against Nash and his wife. The papers are prepared and will be filed at once. The complaint alleges that $5000 is a reasonable sum for the property, but School Clerk Thomas said $6000 had been offered. At present the school buildings occupy about two and a half acres and it is desired to secure the additional property to enlarge the playground. The city is made a party defendant because of street and sewer liens against the property aggregating $909.25.

Goelet Divorce Granted.

Newport, R. I., March 13.—Mrs. Elsie Goelet was granted a divorce Tuesday from Robert Goelet, millionaire, on grounds of cruelty and misconduct.

Tombstone Leads to Suit in Court

J. C. Echoltz Complains That Inscription Inspired by Divorced Wife Is Insult to Memory of Son.

Objecting to a tombstone erected over the grave of his son by his divorced wife, J. C. Echoltz yesterday filed suit in the circuit court asking that he be allowed to remove the body to his family plot in the Rose City Park cemetery and to do away with the tombstone. The present stone bears the inscription, "Fercy I. Echoltz, Son of N. C. and E. L. Ten Eyck, 1914-1909." This inscription Echoltz decries to be an insult to the memory of the boy and scandalous, disgraceful, improper and openly outraging public decency.

According to the complaint, Mr. Echoltz and his wife were divorced before the death of the boy. Two days after the boy died, Echoltz said, Mrs. Echoltz married Ten Eyck. He alleged that he paid all of the expenses of the burial of his son, and that the burial was made temporarily in "children's row" in the Rose City Park cemetery.

Union cigarmakers issued more than 26,000,000 labels in the year 1913.

Two Parties of Settlers Coming

One Group of 50 Enroute From Mountains of Tennessee; Another of 30 Coming From Missouri.

Two parties of homeseekers will arrive over the O-W. R. & N. tomorrow or Saturday from the east, with about 80 persons included in the groups. One bunch of 50 will come from the mountains of Tennessee, the other of 30 from the zinc region of Missouri. The colonists will be distributed over the state, though not all of them have yet found permanent locations. They are traveling in special tourist cars.

Mrs. Jacob Tinsinger of Mt. Jackson, Pa., having lost track of her sister, Mrs. James Van Hook, for several years, has appealed to the Portland Commercial club to help in her search. Mrs. Tinsinger says she heard indirectly that her sister was here. W. L. Crissey, chief of the information department, is looking up the possible Van Hooks in the city directory and will ask each one for information before he answers Mrs. Tinsinger's request.
