The last sale of a car lot of onions was reported in the country at $4 a cental f. o. b. shipping station.

There are a few small lots of onions remaining unsold in farmers' hands, but very few of them. These are being held in some instances for more than 4c a pound in the country, with an additional express rate, because there is not enough to send by freight.

The onion famine forecast in these reports some time ago is surely compared general today at 18@ quality offerings are finding any call at all and these must be sorted more carefully than during any recent year. California is again buying a few of carloads of potatoes here, but the best price available is 40c a cental f. o. b. for extra fancy quality in good sacks. The latter are worth perhaps 8c each. Aside from this limited call for extra fancy quality, there is little trade showing for potatoes. Ordinary and poor stuff cannot be sold at any price.

Stock Market Hit By a Bad Rumor

New York, March 26.-The stock market was generally under pressure today. Rumor that the New York Central intended to cancel its inquiry for 3700 cars, gave some ammunition to the bears and while the selling was not heavy, it was pesistent. The fact that Pennsylvania is reported to be in the market for 150,000 tons of steel, gave that security a fair amount of steadiness today and en-abled it to withstand the general bearish pressure. Canadian Pacific was heavy on an-

MEXICO CITY REPORT

VERY LITTLE UNSOLD EI Paso Hears That Fighting Was Still in Progress at

> Mexico City, March 26 .- That General Villa and his rebel troops were routed with heavy losses at Torreon, Wednesday, was asserted at the war office today. It was added that today they were in full retreat northward.

Gomez Palacio Retaken. El Paso, Texas, March 26 .- Fight ing at Gomez Palacio was still in prog ress at midnight, according to a dis patch from General Villa received by General Chao at Juarez today. The mes sage, filed at El Verel, Villa's base, miles north of Gomez Palacio said the rebels had silenced severa federal batteries and expected to recapture Gomez Palacio today. dispatch was the only one received from the fighting line since early yesterday afternoon, the censorship hav ing prevented the news correspond ents from sending a word. The Mexico City claim that rebels had been routed was scoffed at by General Chao who pointed out that Villa's men were retreating in disorder, as the federals said, Villa himself could not be telegraphing from El

If definite news was lacking, rumors were not. There were dozens in circulation and they varied according to their federal or rebel origin. One of them had it that the federals defeated the rebels, put them to flight and chased them to Corralitos, 12 miles north of Torreon, in a single day Another account was to the effect that out of one battalion of 300 federals, 58 were killed and 200 captured. A third told of the execution by General Benavides of 200 federal prisoners. There was not the least reason, ac cording to General Chao, to believe an of these stories true.

Rebels Win at Guerrero. Brownsville, Texas, March 26 .- Reb els arrived at Matamoras today from Guerrero told of the overwhelming defeat at the latter place Monday of a force of 1200 federals under General Guardiola, who was on his way from Nuevo Laredo to attack the Mata moras garrison. Learning of his expedition a rebel detachment marched northwest along the Rio Grande to meet it. The federals had occupied Guerrero when the rebels arrived and attacked them. Guardiola lost heavily in the fight and only got off, the rebels said, b leaving about 100 of his men in the town, who delayed the constitutional ists until he had such a start on th return journey to Nuevo Laredo that it was hopeless to attempt overtaking The rear guard was reported to have blest seaman on any vessel is of more consequence than the profits of any corporation," said Secretary of Commerce Redfield, addressing members of the Commonwealth club. "Let me ask if it is possible that we are so backboneless in America that we can't make a law right until we kill some-
