Portlanders Can Now Take Up Matters Affecting Them with Local Head Without Any Delays.

George M. McDowell, formerly right of way agent for the pregon Electric railway, and managers of the Ruth Trust company, has been appointed Portland representative for W. R. Grace & Co., and agent here for the Atlantic & Pacific line of steamships, known as the Grace lige, and operating between Pacific coast ports and New York. The appointment is a most im portant one.

Mr. McDowell is widely known here and extremely popular among the commercial people, and throughout the entire country, for during his term of six and one-half years' service with the must clearly remind you that it is com-mon knowledge that I have differed from President Roosevelt in his conser-vation policy (centralized in Washing-ton), my idea being that the resources of this state belong to the people of this state and that whoever wants his share, let him come to collect it and live with us. However, on this ques-tion I find myself in accord with the declaration in the Progressive national platform which provides for state or national control of natural resources. I wish to state, now that I have men-tioned Colonel Roosevelt, that I sin-cerely admire the stand he has taken for clean government, for betterment of the conditions under which people live and for the splendid service he rendered the nation in his support of the Panama canal project.

Candidate Is Progressive. It is also well known that I refused to stay on the Taft electoral ticket, on which my name was written in by a few of the voters, because I believed it was the ticket of "stand-pat," and was not progressive. I like the title "Progressive," and I assume it is a party of a movement, and not of a man; but, as I, after mature delibera-tion, supported Woodrow Wilson, I feel bound to him, and I believe him to be a progressive in the large sense—a couver, B.
