

FORMER PORTLANDER SAYS BAY STATE WILL SUPPORT BAR DREDGE

Massachusetts Delegation in Congress Recognizes Importance of Columbia.

BANK COMMITTEE JOLTED

'Economist' at Harvard Declares That Principal Port on Pacific Coast Is as Yet Undetermined.

S. H. Brown, formerly of Portland, has written from Marlborough, Mass., that a majority of the Massachusetts delegation to congress has assented to support of the bill proposing an appropriation for a $1,500,000 dredger on the Columbia river bar.

'Considering the improvement at the mouth of the Columbia is of such national importance I think it will get strong support,' reads 'Mr. Brown's letter. 'The banking committee when in Boston on its tour of inspection' received quite a jolt from the economist at Harvard by his dissertation to them on the revolution in business to be occasioned by the completion of the many developments under way, and especially the Panama canal, and remarked to them that the port on the Pacific coast was yet undetermined, and an expenditure of $100,000,000 would be warranted and recouped by the central point which should be developed as that port.

ECZEMA ITCHED FOR 20 YEARS—RESINOL CURED

All Over Face, Arms and Hands. Would Walk Floor All Night. Dec. 8, 1913: 'I had eczema for 20 years. It started on me when I was but 13 years old and am now 34, and have suffered all these years. It started with small pimples all over my face, arms and hands. My hands would swell up so that I could not shut them, and I was almost blind. It would itch, then burn, and I had to keep the affected parts wrapped up so that I would not scratch them. I couldn't sleep at all—just walked the floor a whole night. 'I have tried many different remedies and spent a large sum of money, but had no relief. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment were recommended to me. They gave me great relief after the third application, and after using four jars of Resinol Ointment and three cakes of Resinol Soap I am completely cured.' (Signed) Mrs. H. E.
