WEST AND DOANE IN TROUBLE IN 8TH AND SEALS SNEAK AWAY

Hiram Hits Tobin and Walter Drops Schaller's Fly Ball and Then It Begins.

RODGERS GETS A HOMER

Beavers Chase Ralph Tozer From Box But Southerly Slants of Hub Pernoll Have Them Fooled.

San Francisco, Cal., April 8.—Hiram West was bowling merrily along until the eighth inning yesterday afternoon, enjoying a 4 to 2 lead, when his toe stumbled over an obstruction in the shape of Joe Tobin's bean, which got in the way of one of Hiram's slants. Before the Seals could be retired they had chased three runs across the plate and that was enough to win the contest, 5 to 4. Ralph Tozer started the game for the locals and lasted until the eighth inning, when with two on bases, one out, and Buddy Ryan coming up, Howard benched him and Hub Pernoll went in. He fanned Ryan and, although a run managed to be stolen, he got rid of Kores and the northerners were never dangerous after that.

When Hi hit Tobin in the eighth, it was followed by a single by O'Leary. Schaller hit a fly ball to Doane and Walter dropped it, filling the bases. Downs popped out to Speas, who was playing first base, because of Derrick's batting slump. Williams making a pretty play of it. Mundorff singled and Tobin and O'Leary scored. West hit Howard and the bases were again bulging. Corhan went out from Rodgers to Speas and Schaller scored. West threw Schmidt out.

Portland got into the run column in the third inning when Davis and Haworth singled, West sacrificed and Doane raised a long fly to Schaller. Rodgers' home run in the fourth inning gave them another.

San Francisco tied it up in the sixth when Schaller knocked the ball out of the lot with O'Leary on second base.

The Beavers made one more in the seventh when Kores and Lober bunched a pair of doubles. They made their fourth run in the eighth on Doane's walk, Speas' sacrifice, Rodgers' single and a double steal.

RACE MEETING AT JAMESTOWN IS CALLED OFF

Bookmakers Still in Custody and Authorities in Earnest Over Betting.

Norfolk, Va., April 8.—As a result of the determined attitude of the authorities to suppress betting, the race meeting of the Jamestown Jockey club was officially declared off today. Announcement that such action would be taken was made last night. The bookmakers arrested yesterday were still in custody today as a result of the absence of $2000 bail demanded of each.

The governor and attorney general of Virginia are behind the movement to suppress betting, and the racing officials called off the meet when they realized the futility of further resistance. The meeting opened April 1, and was to have ended April 17.

SEVENTEEN ROUNDS WITHOUT A VERDICT AT VAUGHN GRAUNDS

Helena Team Breaks Into the Limelight by Holding Portland Colts to 4-4 Score.

GRADY AND COLD DINNERS

Vigilantes Take Kindly to His Offerings and Tie Score Before Nick Can Get Him Out of Box.

A tall, thin young person, with the warm Irish handle of Grady, caused some 300 baseball fans to eat a cold snack off the shelf last night, when Helena got enough runs off him to cause the game with the Colts to go 17 innings without a decision. Umpire Burnside called the game on account of darkness with the score 4-all. Although it was replete with errors, the game was an interesting one and shows two things: That the Colts need coaching in base running and that Jesse Garrett has a pretty well balanced young team. Of course the Little Giant was in the game for nine full innings himself and he had the Class B aggregation eating out of his fist.

Southpaw Bromley started the game for the Colts and pitched great ball for five innings. One run was made off him but it was due to an error on the part of Coltrin. Then Grady took a whirl. Two more runs were made off the sapling and he was taken out with the bases full and none out in the eighth, Pat Callahan relieving. Cal was in rare form after retiring two men and uncorking a wild pitch that let Bogart in for the last run of the Vigilantes.

Blanchard scored in the fifth inning for Helena on his single, Reams' error and an overthrow by Coltrin. Amsbry scored in the sixth on a walk and singles by Conley and Lussi. Crittenden scored in the seventh on his single, Garrett's out and Rader's single.

Portland put over two in the first when McKune and Melchior scored on a hit, a couple of errors and Fulton's hit. They scored again in the second on Murray's walk, Whitt's first of four singles, and a double steal. Netzel reached second when Lussi dropped his fly ball in the eighth and scored on a sacrifice by Reams and a sacrifice fly by Coltrin.

From that time on there was no more scoring. Callahan got a double in the ninth and Netzel one in the 17th with one out, but was killed the third trying to stretch it. This was made off Krause, who fanned Reams for the last out. Score:

Sacramento, Cal., April 8.—The Oakland tail enders beat Harry Wolverton's Solons yesterday, 4 to 2. Five singles in a row in the ninth inning gave Devlin's players the game. Prough, former White Sox twirler, allowed the Senators but four hits, while the Oaks collected 11 off Stroud. Murphy and Arbogast were stars with the stick.

AL M'COY, MERE NOVICE, KNOCKS OUT GEORGE CHIP

Greek Steps Into Left Hook and They Carry Him Out.

New York, April 8.—Another middleweight championship claimant appeared here today in the person of Al McCoy of Brooklyn, hitherto considered a mere novice, who knocked out George Chip of Newcastle, Pa., regarded by many as the king of the middleweights by virtue of his two victories over Frank Klaus of Pittsburg.

After fighting less than two minutes in the first round of a scheduled 10 round bout there, McCoy sent a left hook to the jaw. Chip dropped on his back, and it was several minutes before he recovered sufficiently to leave the ring.

"It was a lucky punch," said Chip today. "McCoy caught me coming in. It was a hard blow, but when I fell I struck my head on the floor and it was this that rendered me unconscious. All I want is another chance."

McCoy's awkwardness was said by many to have been responsible for Chip's downfall. The Brooklynite fights with his right foot out and his right hand extended. This style completely baffled Chip and the only solid punch landed was the one that put the Newcastle man to sleep.

When the bout opened both men immediately started to spar. Then they clinched. As they broke, McCoy missed a wicked left for the head. Chip made a weak try for McCoy's stomach but his efforts were blocked. Then the Brooklynite brought over the knockout.

Chip's brother, several weeks ago, gave McCoy a sound beating at the Broadway club.

VENICE BATS HARK OUT

Los Angeles, Cal., April 8.—The Venice Tigers won their first game of the Coast league season before the home supporters yesterday by trimming the Angels, 5 to 2. Pat Harkins, Dillon's State league recruit, was batted out of the box in the first inning. Each of Hogan's outfielders secured two hits apiece.

LADIES' NORTHWEST BOWLING TITLE WON BY A LOCAL BOWLER

Mrs. Pike Carries Off Honors by Registering 353; Mrs. Wellington Wins Second.

HIGHER SCORES EXPECTED

Meeves' Team Makes High Score in 5 Man Team Games of 2d Night; Vancouver Rolls Tomorrow.

The Meeves team came within one point of tying the high score of the second annual Northwestern Bowling Congress in last night's matches. It registered the total of 2592 for three games, which is one point below the mark made by the Western Soda bowlers on the opening night.

On the whole the scores made in last evening's matches were much better than those made during the first night. Only three bowlers succeeded in rolling 200 games. Higher scores are expected from now until the end of the tournament. Some of the crack out-of-town teams are scheduled to roll this afternoon and this evening.

Tomorrow the Vancouver, B. C., teams will roll and some of the crack local squads will also be seen in action. It is likely that last season's single high score mark will be bettered within the next two days.

Mrs. Pike won the northwest ladies' title yesterday by registering the score of 353. Mrs. Wellington was second with the score of 332 and Mrs. Kruse fell below the 300 mark, but she won third prize.

The executive committee of the Portland Bowling tournament yesterday announced the division of the prize money. The winning five man team will get $350. Winners in other events will get cash prizes ranging from $5 to $1.50.

COFFROTH DECLARES J. CLABBY RAN AWAY FROM BILLY MURRAY

Hard Fists and Iron Jaw of Sacramento Boy Cause of Sudden Australian Trip.

BLUFFS ABOUT THE PURSE

Larney Lichenstein Makes Talk About Big Money to Promoter but Backs Down When He Is Called.

San Francisco, April 8.—Billy Murray of Sacramento, and not a reported offer of $25,000 for three fights in Australia, was responsible for Jimmy Clabby's sudden departure yesterday, according to Promoter James W. Coffroth.

"Clabby knew that it was up to him to meet Murray again and dispose of him decisively before he could convince the public that his claim to the middleweight title was justified," said Coffroth today. "And Clabby knows that in Murray he found a man who might put him away. After boxing Murray last Friday night, Clabby learned that he was up against a man who could take all Clabby had and be strong at the finish.

"In my opinion it is a clear case of Clabby being afraid and running out. I am willing to stake my reputation that no such offer as Larney Lichenstein, Clabby's manager, announced, was made to the Indianan by Snowy Baker, the Australian promoter. When I was in New York Baker told me he had offered Clabby $10,000 for five fights. He also said that he had advanced Clabby $750 in Los Angeles.

"Just before he was ready to sail yesterday Lichenstein called me up and tried to put through the bluff that he was to receive $15,000. Finally he admitted they were not to get that much. I argued that Clabby could get good money from me for a return match with Murray, and another bout with George Chip. Finally I offered to guarantee Clabby $10,000 for the two bouts. Lichenstein then wanted to know what would happen if Murray beat Clabby, and I told him, of course, that such a promise couldn't hold good. Then he refused to consider the matter."

Petroskey Challenges Again.

San Francisco, April 8.—Acting for Sailor Ed Petroskey, Manager Louis Parente announced his acceptance today of an offer by Jack Kearns, Manager of Billy Muray, for a Petroskey-Murray fight.

"I am sure that Petroskey can whip Murray any time they start," Parente said, "and if necessary we are ready to put up a $2000 side bet to clinch the match. We are willing to fight Murray any number of rounds."

Tacoma Beats Washington.

Tacoma, Wash., April 8.—The University of Washington baseball team was no match for the Tacoma Tigers yesterday, and the leaguers won, 7 to 2. With the game practically stowed away for a shut out, Belford eased up in the ninth inning, when, with an error and stolen base, coupled with two hits, the collegians chased two men across the plate. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
U. of W.	2	4	4
Tacoma	7	8	4

Batterits—Morrill, Bryant and Kerry; Kaufman, Helmicke, Belford and Harris.

DREW MAKES NEW MARK

Los Angeles, April 8.—Howard Drew, U. S. C. sprinter, has another record opposite his name today, having run an exhibition 90 yards in 9 seconds. The former record was 9 1-5 seconds. The new mark, however, probably will not be allowed, as the meet in which it was made was not sanctioned by the A. A. U. authorities.
