

Social and Personal

LARGE and fashionable audience gathered last evening at the Lincoln high school to hear the play by Oscar Wilde "The Importance of Being Earnest," which was given by a group of popular society people, members of the St. Stephen's Episcopal church, for the benefit of the Women's guild. The affair was a decided success financially, socially and dramatically, and will long be remembered by those present. The following people rendered their parts with splendid effect: Miss Elizabeth Carpenter, Miss Margery Hoffman, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Charlotte Bantfield, Guy Radcliffe, Fritz Behrends, Howard Broeyer, Henry Mears and E. T. Stevens.

Press Club Ball. About 200 guests gathered last evening at Cottillon hall to enjoy the hospitality of the Portland Press club. Dancing was enjoyed from 8:30 until 12 o'clock and light refreshments were served. A most enjoyable innovation was the singing during the evening of Stuart McGuire, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton Stowers. Mr. McGuire sang in splendid form, and was heartily received.

Thomas Lawson, Grandfather. Word has been received from Boston, where Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCall (Dorothy Lawson) are visiting Mrs. McCall's father, Thomas Lawson, distinguished author-financier, of the rival Tuesday morning of the baby daughter. Mr. and Mrs. McCall are frequent visitors here en route to their country home in central Oregon.

Mrs. Deering to Entertain. Mrs. Chester Deering has sent out cards for a breakfast and relay bridge party for Saturday, April 25, at her home, 484 East Twenty-third street north, in Irwinston. Bridge will begin at 10:30 a. m.

Iliabec Club "Barn Dance." Last evening the Iliabec Riding club entertained about 100 of their friends with a novel affair at the Portland Riding academy. The first gave an exhibition of class work in the ring with some jumping stunts, finishing the drill and later enjoyed an old-fashioned "barn dance" on the house floor of the academy. Punch was served from a galvanized iron tub and every other detail was carried out in keeping with old time barn dances. Green checked the walls and paper mache horses' heads were bridled with yellow and green ribbons, the club colors. Bales of hay furnished seats for the dancers. The occasion was a most enjoyable affair. The men wore riding breeches and white negligee shirts and the women were attired in their habits. The guests were street suits.

Surprise Enjoyable Affair. A most enjoyable surprise party was given April 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Blumh, 5410 Thirty-seventh avenue, southeast. The occasion was Mr. Blumh's birthday. Fifteen of his good wishes to the host a handsome oak rocker was presented. The evening was spent in playing 500. Card honors fell to Mrs. C. W. Hildebrand, J. L. Losey, Miss J. Buchler and C. F. Wagner.

Christian Church Members to Greet Minister and Wife. This evening the members of the congregation of the First Christian church will receive in honor of their new pastor and his wife, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hill. The band of directors and the Sisterhood of the church will receive the guests.

Wedding in Lent. A charming home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. T. E. Battin, Lent, Or., Thursday evening, April 9, when their daughter, Miss Florence Amy Battin, was united in marriage to Floyd D. Thompson by the Rev. J. E. Connors, of the U. B. church, Tremont. The home was beautifully decorated in white flowers, foliage and ferns, the color scheme being pink and white, a most artistic window of pink and white having been arranged where the bride couple stood. Miss Battin had charge of the decoration. About 75 guests witnessed the ceremony. The bride party entered led by a church warden by Miss Gertrude Keenan, of Rose City Park, the ring ceremony being used. Robb Spence, of Vancouver, Wash., a boyhood friend of the groom, acted as best man; and Miss Olive Battin, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. The bride was becomingly gowned in a white charmuse, with lace tulle. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was charming in a gown of pink crepe de chene, with lace. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The bride's father and mother and the bridegroom's mother received the guests. After the service a reception was held for the many friends of the couple, and a delicious lunch was served. Immediately after the reception they departed for their home at 629 1/2 Sixty-second avenue, Portland, Or., where they will be at home to their many friends.

Wilson Wedding to Be Small Affair

White House Says It Will Take Place May 7, With Only the Vice President and Cabinet Families Present. Washington, April 17.—The following statement was issued at the White House today: "President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson announce the wedding of Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson and William Gibbs McAdoo, to take place Thursday, May 7. In accordance with the wishes of Miss Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, the wedding will be small, only Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, the cabinet and the immediate members of the two families are to be present."

Thrifty Individual Borrows Automobile

Machine Used to Carry Loads of Fans to Baseball Game and Then Returned to Owner. Some one yesterday afternoon made good use of the auto belonging to W. B. Donahue, 829 East Thirtieth street. The machine was left at Alder and Fourth streets at 1:15 o'clock. Within a few minutes it was gone. At 1:30 it was seen at the ball grounds with a load of passengers. Fifteen minutes later it had another load of passengers. Three times the machine was used to unload ball fans, the driver having secured his passengers downtown. When the rush was over, the auto was left near where it was taken. No trace of the borrower could be obtained.

Mellen May Be Head Railroad Employees

Former President of New Haven Considering Offer to Direct Federated Council of Railroad Brotherhoods. Boston, April 17.—Ex-President Mellen of the New Haven railroad was reported to be considering a proposition to become head of a new organization to be called the Federated Council of Railroad Brotherhoods, representing 2,000,000 railroad employees.

McMinnville Masons. The Masons of McMinnville will soon enjoy meeting in newly furnished lodge rooms. Dr. LeRoy Lewis of McMinnville is now in the city for the purpose of buying new furnishings for the lodge rooms. He is stopping at the Oregon.

Closing Time Changed. The closing hour for accepting want ads for the Sunday Journal will be 8 o'clock Saturday evening instead of 9 o'clock as heretofore. Advertising for the "New Today" columns will be accepted until 9 o'clock.

Isabel Rand, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Rand, of Wilsonville, was operated on for hernia at the Good Samaritan hospital Saturday.
