Majority of Delinquents in Multnomah County, Where No Pees Will Be Charged Against Them.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 17.—Assistant Attorney General James Crawford ansounced today that the attorney general would decline to bring any more suits for the dissolution of corporations, as requested by Corporation Commissioner Watson because of the expense that might be incurred. He said the corporation commissioner had sent in the names of over 300 corporations, and if suits were brought each suit would cost about $10.

Crawford said that over half of the corporations were over two years delinquent in their fees, and therefore could be dissolved by proclamation of the governor, and the rest would be delinquent the required two years within six months. Commissioner Watson denied that a single one of the corporations were over two years delinquent. He said he was making an effort to clean the records of his office of all dead corporations, and that the governor had dissolved all that could be dissolved by proclamation.

Watson said also that he had instructed the attorney general not to bring any suits in any county where fees against the state would be charged. He said he was advised by the county clerk of Multnomah county, where the majority of the corporations were, that no fees would be charged and he had so informed the attorney

Lease of Soda Lakes.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 17.—Governor West told J. H. Haak of Portland, who said he controlled 51 per cent of the stock of the American Soda Potash comstate on Abert and Summer lakes, that after the company's lease expires May any more time with promotors and if anyone wants to negotiate with the state for the privilege of taking the have to make a better financial showing than has been made in the past. The governor said the board would consider any proper proposal for lease new, although no contract could be made until after May 1.

A few days ago Jasper Moore, representing New York interests, made a proposition to the board to pay $1,000,000 at the rate of $50,000 a year for the lakes.

Presbytery Joins in Prohibition Contest

Resolution Is Passed Pledging Enthusiastic Support to Movement to Make Oregon Dry Next Fall.

Following a resolution pledging enthusiastic support to the movement to make the state of Oregon dry next fall, the Portland Presbytery of the Presbyterian church, in session for two days and meeting at the First Presbyterian church, adjourned at I o'clock yesterday afternoon. Sixty ministers and elders from the hurches of the denomination in Tillamook, Columbia, Washington, Mult-nomah and Clatsop counties, at-tended the meeting. Meeting Wednesday at the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church in the Mount Scott district, the Presbytery elected Rev. John H. Boyd, of the First Presbyterian of this city and Rev. L. M. Boozer, of the Orence Presbyterian church, as pastoral dele gates to the general assembly of the beginning May 21. The lay delegates to this meeting are Elders Frank D. Baum of Anabel Presbyterian church and Elton Shaw, of the Millard Ave-

Lecture on Holy Land Repeated

Professor Morner to Talk Before Odd Fellows on Jerusalem, Jericho and Old Historic Boad.

J. B. Horner, professor of history at the Oregon Agricultural college, will repeat his illustrated lecture on Jerusalem, Jericho and the old historic road that connect these two cities of the Bible, this evening at an open meeting of Hassalo I. O. O. F. lodge, First and Alder streets.

Professor Horner has also been invited to deliver the lecture before the Sunnyside M. E. church Sunday even-
