

PUBLIC MARKET WILL BE THROWN OPEN ON SATURDAY, MAY 16

Place Will Remain Open From 3 to 5 P. M., Under Auspices of Association.

BASKET PARADE FEATURE

Citizens, Bearing Baskets Will March Through Streets; Music Will Be One Feature.

A public market will be opened Saturday, May 16, on Yamhill street from Third to Fifth streets, under the auspices of the Producers and Consumers' Public Market association.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the association held at the central library Wednesday afternoon at which all representatives of the various clubs interested in public markets were present.

H. A. Darnell, representing the Grange, and Eugene Brookings, who spent several days in Seattle inspecting the public markets, told of the enthusiasm among the farmers and said: all that remained now was for the consumer to go to the market and buy the produce.

In connection with the opening of the market it is planned to have a market basket parade. A committee on parade, W. J. Clemons, chairman, has been appointed and it will arrange for music, automobiles, special features and a long line of citizens who with market baskets on their arms will march through the principal streets to the market site on Yamhill street between Third and Fifth and buy fruit, vegetables, butter and eggs from the farmers assembled there.

CRANK SHOTS AT THE MAYOR OF N. Y. AND WOUNDS POLK

Mayor but was not admitted because of his queer actions. The prisoner said he was 50 years old. He was very shabbily dressed and wore a celluloid collar. Saloschein also said he was disappointed in not getting a city appointment.

The shooting occurred a few minutes after Mayor Mitchell, Corporation Counsel Polk and Police Commissioner Woods had left the city hall together. Woods had stepped into the machine. As the mayor put his foot on the step Saloschein fired. At that moment Duncanson, passed in front of the would-be assassin. The bullet entered his right arm and, glancing upward, plowed its way through Polk's jaw, knocking out several teeth.

Saloschein collapsed after firing the first shot. Detective George Neun and the mayor reached his side at the same time. Neun took possession of the revolver and Mayor Mitchell, assisted by Chauffeur Edward Freudiger, dragged him to the machine. He offered no resistance.

Polk Slightly Wounded. After receiving treatment at the city hall police station, Polk was rushed to the New York hospital. He was accompanied by Mayor Mitchell. At the hospital the mayor telephoned Polk's father: "Your son Frank has just been shot, but only slightly wounded. The bullet was intended for me, but poor Frank got it."

Several letters were found in Saloschein's pockets. One was addressed to Mayor Armstrong of Pittsburgh, and two others to Mayor Mitchell. Although the prisoner was grilling by the detectives, they were unable to learn anything of his past. He appeared to be suffering from hallucinations. "Everything will come out all right," he said over and over. "But you will learn nothing from me."

Do You Suspect Your Kidneys?

If So, Warner's Should Be Taken at Once.

Pains in the back are not the only symptoms of kidney trouble. A much more frequent indication is general weakness—while other common symptoms are durred tongue, distaste for food, headache and general depression of spirits. When the kidneys fail in their work, from inflammation or bright disease, the impurities inevitably return to the blood, and that is the beginning of impaired digestion and falling health, with nervous irritability and a dropsical condition. For 37 years Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy has been restoring health to sufferers in all stages of kidney complaint, and here's another man who appreciates the immense amount of good it has accomplished in his case. "About 7 years ago I was so weak and worn out that I could hardly work. After trying other things without relief, I tried Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy. In a short time the pain left me, my urine cleared up and the rheumatism and dyspepsia vanished. We have used Warner's ever since with great success in our family."—O. F. Rose, Brooksville, Ky. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy is sold everywhere by druggists in 50c and $1.00 sizes. Don't put it off until tomorrow; get it today. MAYOR OF NEW YORK CITY WHO ESCAPES BULLET

John Purroy Mitchell.

Inquest Into Roseburg Crime

Morrison Campbell, Slayer of John Becker, Said to Be Unaffected by Crime; Gave Himself Up.

Roseburg, Or., April 17.—An inquest is being held today over the remains of John Becker, the Cleveland farmer who was shot and killed Thursday by a neighbor, Morrison Campbell, during a quarrel over land matters. Campbell, who is being held in jail here, seems entirely unaffected by the crime he has committed.

Although Becker's body was found soon after the shooting, nearly five hours passed before it was known that he had been killed. It was supposed he had dropped dead from heart failure. Campbell arrived in Roseburg and told of the murder at about the same time the coroner arrived at the scene of the crime.

Will Bury Buckaroo.

Walla Walla, Wash., April 17.—The body of "Bert" Kelly, who was one of the best known buckaroos in the northwest, for two years winner of the bucking contest at the Pendleton Round-Up, arrived in Walla Walla this morning from Arizona. Mr. Kelly died there early in the week as a result of injuries received while riding two years ago. The funeral will be tomorrow afternoon.

BIG HOOK AND LADDER TRUCK PLUNGED INTO RAILROAD EXCAVATION

One Ladderman Painfully Hurt in Accident at Fourth and Stark.

Traveling at an estimated speed of 18 miles an hour early today, in response to an alarm of fire, hook and ladder wagon No. 1, stationed at Fourth and Yamhill streets, one of the city's big 12,500 gas-electric machines, plunged into an excavation for a railroad crossing at Fourth and Stark street.

The front end of the car was badly smashed, the steering gear was torn out and H. J. Hutton, sub ladderman, who was standing on the running board was hurled from his position and painfully injured by falling on exposed railroad ties. There were eight men on the hook and ladder, but the others, warned by Driver Harry Watts, who shouted that they were going into the ditch, grasped the guard rails and stayed with the machine.

The excavation, which is 18 inches deep, is about 25 feet wide and is directly in the middle of the street intersection. The firemen claim that the hole was not protected by barricades and that they found four of seven red danger lanterns around it were alight. The lanterns which were burning, it is claimed, were not seen because the glasses were badly smoked. The excavation was made by the United Railways company.

"We saw no lights and there was no barricade," said Lieutenant W. H. Ring, who, with Driver Watts, occupied the front seat. "We did not see the hole until we were almost in it. Then Watts yelled and the boys grabbed hold of the rails."

The hook and ladder weighs 18,000 pounds, and the force of the impact against the cross rails was so heavy that the solid rubber tires of the front wheels were cut through. With the steering gear out of commission, the firemen, by dint of many maneuvers, managed to back the machine to the firehouse, using the steering gear attached to the rear wheels. There it was jacked up and workmen began repairing the damage. It is estimated that the machine will be out of commission for at least two days. The fire was in the basement of 55 North Fourth, and was extinguished with chemicals.
