MANAGER MAC BURNS WIRES SEEKING TWO SEASONED GUNNERS

Cleveland Unable Right Now to Offer Help Necessary to Strengthen Pitching Staff.

SALVESON TO HELENANS

Youngster Needs More Experience and Would Learn Rapidly Under Instruction Wise Little Manager.

"I never used the telegraph wires so much in all my life as I am doing right now in an effort to land a couple of pitchers," said Walter McCredie of the Portland club this morning.

"I have offered terms to half a dozen major league ball clubs and as many minor league clubs, and I hope to be able to land something pretty soon. I wouldn't have let Hagerman go had I known that I would have been up against it for pitching talent. But I guess Cleveland is pretty much in the same boat, and can't spare anybody for a few weeks. That has caused me to seek elsewhere for pitchers. I have some pretty good friends in the major league, and I am ready to pay hard cash to have a twirler sent my way.

Manager McCredie yesterday offered Jesse Garrett, manager of the Helena club, the services of Pitcher Herbert Salveson, and Jess will take the husky young Californian provided he will go to the Montana club. Sal needs a lot of experience, and he can get more of it by sitting on the bench, with the probability of finishing up a game two or three times a month. Under wise old pitcher like Garrett he will have a chance to learn a great deal about fooling the batters.

Salveson will make known his decision in the next day or so. If he goes he will probably have a companion shortly in the person of Fred Frambach, the Idaho youngster, who also needs more seasoning. Just now Hanson is looking best of the young flingers, and McCredie had him warming up all last week to send into the game.

Little Duke Whit, the Visalia kid, shouldn't be criticized too much for his attempt to throw Nik Perrine out of the plate, when he scored from third with one out and a man on first. The logical thing, in view of the fact that he momentarily fumbled, was to start a double play on second, the shortest to head the batter off at first.

Here is a play that is seen mighty few times nowadays. The writer can recall but one or two times that it was used last year on the local lot. It was quite common a few years ago, when Ivan Olson and Pearl Casey worked around the keystone sack, and Dick and Bill Rodgers covered that territory. Invariably under these conditions the play is now made on the plate, so that it is no wonder that it followed out what he had seen others doing time after time.

Dicky Bayless, the great little outfielder of the Venice Tigers, has had only one bad year with the stick since he started with the fast minors at Wichita in 1907. His bad year was with Atlanta in the Southern league in 1910. His best year was in 1912, when he led the Coast League with the average of .321. In the two years he has been with Venice he has led in the charmed circle. He is one of the best fielders and base runners in the league and any club would be glad to own him. Bayless started his professional career with the Springfield club in 1902. He went to Joplin in 1904 and was there three years; in the fall, he makes it his home town and is the proprietor of a billiard emporium that brings in the kale. In 1907 he went to Wichita and the next year he hit .296 for Dayton of the Central league. Cincinnati grabbed him and after a brief trial sent him to the Southern league. In 1912 he was secured from Mobile by Venice. Here is Fifty-seven members of the Portland Rowing club signed up for the 1914 crews at the annual pre-season smoker, which was held in the clubhouse last evening. It was the most enthusiastic meeting held at the clubhouse in a number of years and a good number of the old time oarsmen were present and gave short talks in the first round with a fearful poke on the jaw.

HAWKINS PICKS HIS TEAM FOR SATURDAY MEET WITH 'ARSITY

M'CLURE RUNS FOR CLUB

Former Oregon Captain Will Give Services to Winged M in Closed Meet on Old Stamping Ground.

Manager Martin Hawkins of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club track and field team this morning picked the "Winged M" athletes who will compete in a dual meet with the University of Oregon squad Saturday afternoon in Eugene. Ten athletes will wear the club colors in the meet.

The lemon and yellow and cardinal and white athletes tied for second place in the Columbia university meet last Saturday afternoon and Manager Hawkins is hopeful of administering a defeat to the Oregon squad.

The club team has been strengthened by the addition of Walter Muirhead, the crack Columbia university hurdler and jumper, and Walter McClure, the former University of Oregon distance runner. Hummel's performance in Saturday's meet and Holman's return to form also gives Hawkins hopes of a victory.

Captain Philbrook is expected to do much better, as he has recovered from his recent illness. Multnomah for the first time in several years has a very good sprinter in Cohn, the former University of Michigan athlete, and he will likely make the lemon and yellow athletes travel in the 100 and 220 yard events.

The Multnomah representatives and the events they will enter are: Philbrook—Shot, discus and high jump. Hummel—Hurdles, sprints, broad jump, javelin. Cohn—Sprints, broad jump. Muirhead—Hurdles, jumps. Brace—440, 220. Holman—Pole vault, high jump. McKay—Mile and half. Magone—High jump, pole vault. Nell—Javelin, discus. McClure—Mile and half. Beliah—Pole vault, broad jump, shotput. Fox, Norris.

Williams' Youngsters Make Whole Flock of Errors; Bedakins Take Advantage of Erratic Work.

Spokane, April 21.—Spokane made a farce out of the first victory of the season over the Portland Colts here yesterday when hits and errors gave the locals a total of seven runs to one made by the visitors. Frank Deas pitched well enough, but his work could not be classed with that of Stanley Covalieskie, the Spokane gunner, who held the Oregonians to three hits.

The Colts had not been able to score up to the seventh, while the Indians put over two in the second without earning them. Lewis walked in the second, stole and scored on Holke's infield hit and Murray's error in dropping a perfect throw ball by Guigan. Holke went to second on the play and scored when Coltrin threw badly to first to stop Wulfrin.

The Colts prevented a shutout in the seventh when Netzel opened the inning with a triple to left and Heine Melchor came right back with a triple to right center that let Netzel walk home.

Spokane drew clear out of reach in the seventh. Netzel's error gave Lynch a life, but he was forced by Holke. Wulfrin double but Holke was thrown out at the plate by East-Covalieskie singled and scored Wulfrin. Then Powell walked. Butler singled and scored Shea and Cove. Powell and Shea scored on Wagner's single over second.

M'ALLISTER MUST WEIGH

San Francisco, April 21.—A match between Bob McAllister and "Fighting Billy" Murray was sought here today by Promoter James W. Coffroth. The only hitch is the weight difficulty as Murray is a legitimate middleweight. McAllister has grown into the light-heavyweight class and it is doubtful if Manager Kearns will allow Murray to fight unless McAllister will make 155 pounds at 8 o'clock.

DUFFY WINS MARATHON

Boston, Mass., April 21.—James Duffy of the Rambler Bicycle club of Hamilton, Ont., won the eighteenth annual Marathon race of the Boston Athletic club. pay nearly $40,000 more than any other club in the new organization. It has been generally supposed that the Giants and Boston Red Sox teams received top notch salaries, but the payroll of the Brooklyn Federals has made another record. If three more stars can be captured, the Wards say they will give their money even more exercise in order to give Brooklyn a first class team.

An even fight for the new organization is predicted by James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, who is jubilant over the way the fans are turning out to see his clubs play. He declared all the clubs in his organization were about evenly matched and that the race for the pennant will be a torrid one. In contrast the outlaw leader said the Athletics and Giants would repeat again and that the National and American league race would be over by August 1.
