Biffs and Errors Make Tacoma Outfit Take Short End of Score; Nick Thinks Ginz Is Gone.

Tacoma, Wash., April 28 .- Manager Nick Williams and his restive Colts have at last found somebody-they can kick the stuffing out of—Tacoma. After a disastrous were at Seattle and another at Spokane, in which they won but one game in each place, the Colts arrived on the scene yesterday morning, determined to do something. They went right out on the ball field and proceeded to wallop the tar out of Messrs. Helmicke, Boice and Kurfess. McGinnity used 15 men in an attempt to stay the massacre of the Colt slug-gers but to no avail. Manager Nick Williams believes now that the Colts have started to batting his culb will gradually climb toward the first di-

Tacoma made five errors, while the Colts fielded faultlessly. Helmicke was the especial fodder for the Colts. He was in there an inning and a third but in that time the Oregonians made four runs, and before long George Boice could get them out they had scored two more in the second, an error by McMullen helping to register two of them.

Boice in the fourth and fifth innings and added two more in the ninth on Spitballist Kurfess. Williams, seeing that he had the game in hand, took a chance and sent his recruit outfielders to work. Also as early as the fourth inning he withdrew Stanley from the box and replaced him with Indian Battiste in order to give the southpaw as much rest as possible.

SUMMARY. Stolen bases—Williams, Coltrin. Murry. Two base hits—Melchoir, Guigni, Williams, Abbot, Kurfess. Three base hits—Stanley, West. Home run—West. Sacrifice hits—Murray 2. Pitchers' summary—One hit 4 runs off Hel-

Why Drink WATER When You Can Get

The Most Popular Beverage on the Pacific Coast?

SALEM BEER is brewed in one of the most modern plants on the Pacific Coast. It is aged in steel glass-lined tanks. It is conveyed by modern pipe line system direct to the bottle house, bottled under pressure and therefore never comes in contact with the air from the time it leaves the fermenting tank until the bottle is opened by the consumer. The consumer is absoluely assured a beer of ideal effervescence, snap and purity.
