BOARD OF EDUCATION SELECTS BOOKS FOR COMING FOUR YEARS

Recommendation Made by Principals, Officers of Superintendent's Department.

BIDS HAD BEEN INVITED

Representatives of Publishers Had Been Given Private Hearings Before School Committee.

Textbooks for the use of pupils in the Portland High schools were se lected last night by the board of education for use during the coming four years. The only courses yet to be provided for are music, German and writing, books for these subjects to be decided upon later. A committee composed of the principals of the high schools and the officers of the city superintendent's department made the ecommendation. ## Tomorrow Is the Opening Day of the Home Industry Exhibit at Meier & Frank's

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIA-TION OF OREGON.

Colonel David M. Dunne, president of the Manufacturers' Association of Oregon, will formally open the Home Industry Exhibit tomorrow morning. The entire Morrison street side of our mammoth Basement has been given over to the exhibit, nearly forty handsomely decorated booths, having been erected to house the fifty or more exhibits. Great is the interest manifested in this important and interesting event, whichis extremely educational in character. Made-in-Oregon products will be attractively displayed, and the various methods of manufacture interestingly explained — in some cases the actual process of manufacture being in operation. The exhibitors include concerns from all over the state of Oregon, and the exhibition promises to be a success in every respect. and the exhibition promises to be a success in every respect. -Basement, Main Building.
