

MARION 'PROHIBS' WILL HAVE ENTIRE TICKET AT COMING ELECTION

Will Select, as Far as Possible, Candidates of Other Parties Who Are "Drys."

CHAFIN IS THE SPEAKER

One Hundred Delegates Present; Committee Appointed to Report Later.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 30.—At the largest Prohibition party convention ever held in Marion county, it was decided yesterday afternoon to put a complete county ticket in the field, selecting as far as possible candidates in the other parties who will espouse the cause of the "drys."

A committee of nine was appointed on nominations and will report at an adjourned meeting of the convention, May 8.

By nominating candidates already in the race for office in the other parties, the "prohibs" hope that the combined forces will be able to elect practically a full ticket. They believe they hold the balance of power. Candidates endorsed by the prohibitionists must not only be out and out in favor of state and national prohibition, but they must agree to continue in the race on the Prohibition ticket in the event they are defeated at the primaries on the Republican or Democratic ticket, as the case may be.

Over 100 delegates attended the convention. Rev. Hiram Gould of Woodburn was elected chairman, and Rev. Mr. Bristol of Jefferson, secretary. Those appointed on the nominating committee were Julius Vogel, Salem, chairman; Mr. Livesley, Woodburn; A. J. Cook, Salem; Rev. Mr. Bristol, Jefferson; J. N. Smith, Salem; G. W. Farrie, Turner; Mr. Moore, Turner; Mr. Coulson, Scotts Mills, and J. M. Brown, Silverton.

The county central committee was reorganized at the election of S. S. Tamey, chairman; Miss Constance Bason, secretary, and J. A. Cook, treasurer.

Eugene W. Chafin, twice candidate for president on the Prohibition ticket, was the principal speaker of the afternoon. E. E. Taylor, state secretary of the party, also spoke.

A warm discussion was aroused over whether the candidates should be named before or after the primary election, with those in favor of taking early action in the majority.

Germans in Egypt Ask About Oregon

Commercial Club Will Send to Man at Fort Said All Publications Translated into Inquirer's Language.

Forsaking the lotus blossoms along the stately Nile, a party of German farmers who have for some years been sojourning in Egypt in planning to come to Oregon to begin life anew under the smile of Mother Nature. C. Schmidt, writing from Fort Said, has asked the Portland Commercial club to supply some literature to show where the choice farms and ranches lie, with pictures of the wheat and fruit and garden truck and cattle.

W. L. Crissey, head of the club's information department, is preparing to send a large consignment of Oregon almanacs, Oregon atlases and the other club publications so far translated into German.

Mr. Schmidt's address is 27 Boulevard de Ramlet, Alexandria, though the farmers who have the 500 reservations all along the fertile portion of the Nile valley. The number of prospective immigrants is not stated, though the party is believed that they are all prosperous people who have begun to realize the climatic and social limitations of their adopted residence.

Straw Hats Will Be Worn on Excursion

Straw hats newly brought from winter obscurity will be formally introduced to spring and summer and proudly serve as badges of the Ad club May day excursion to Oregon Agricultural college tomorrow.

A festival on wheels, the special train will be, for it is proposed to decorate the cars with flowers and banners; the big steel baggage car will be floored for dancing, pianos and Victrolas will make music in every coach. Stunts of many merry kinds have been planned to rob the journey of any possible monotony.

The excursion's serious purpose is to pay a return call to the faculty members and students of the college who were recently guests of the club at an O. A. C. day. The train will leave Portland at 8:20 o'clock tomorrow morning. About 300 reservations have been made. The round trip cost of transportation is but $2.60 and this is to be the only expense. The arrival in Portland again will be about 11 o'clock Friday evening.

VETERANS TO TAKE TRIP

Adjutant General C. A. Williams of the department of Oregon, G. A. R., has arranged with the Southern Pacific for a special train to carry the veterans to an annual convention to be held at Tillamook June 16, 17 and 18. About 400 old soldiers are expected to attend. The citizens of Tillamook will be hosts at an all-day excursion to the beach at Barview, paying all expenses.

Troutlake School Changes. Troutlake, Wash., April 30.—Miss Ethel Abby, who has been teaching the primary grades in the Troutlake school, has accepted a school near Goldendale and Professor Rollie Quackembush, who has been principal of the local school, has accepted the position of county school superintendent occasioned by the resignation of Professor F. M. Anderson, former county school superintendent at Goldendale. Mr. Anderson has accepted a position at Goldendale as city superintendent of schools.
