

What Society is Doing BY NONA LAWLER

Miss Marshall Distinguished Visitor 188 H. E. MARSHALL of Oxford, England, the distinguished writer of history for young people, is a visitor in the city...

STUDIO DE LUKE Mrs. Don Hoyler (Fay Hendershott), whose wedding was an event of the week.

tastily decorated with dogwood, fern and Oregon grape, and the front porch ornamented with palms and hanging baskets...

Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Quinn of The Dalles, announce the engagement of their charming daughter, Marian Lucie, to Dr. W. H. Watson of Oakesdale, Wash.

Society Notes. Miss Irma Nelson of Oakland, Cal. is the house guest of Miss Ada Conry. Many social affairs are being planned in her honor while in the city.

HOME-MADE CEMENTS

By Mary Lee. Before beginning the spring cleaning it is a good plan to look up all the broken china, glass, and any ornaments that have been subject to misfortune...

Suspicious.

Mr. Brown had just registered and was about to turn away when the clerk said: "Beg pardon, but what is your name?"

FACTS! to Remember

That "CRESCENT" leavens under the same conditions as any Baking Powder, but let your baking stand five or ten minutes after mixing and you get Extra Fine Results

White shellac dissolved in alcohol to the consistency of molasses makes a good cement for cut glass. Half an ounce of alcohol and a tablespoonful of water is a good mixture...

When the pieces are numerous it is better to mend one piece at a time and let it harden before proceeding with the next. One can hold the edges together until they harden, when the mended article can be put away to finish.

For the Woman Who Cares It is the "glove of today"—the glove that has won and maintained its reputation under "today's" exacting conditions...
