SURRENDER OF WATER WORKS AT VERA CRUZ IS DEMANDED

Force of Mexican Federals Approaches Tejeria, but Is Driven Off After Firing Few Shots at Americans.

REINFORCEMENTS SENT QUICKLY BY FUNSTON

Fearing Attempt to Cut Pipe Line by Night, It and Reservoir Are Guarded.

(United Press Landed Wire.)
Washington, May 2.—Details of a skirmish today at Tejeria, a suburb of Vera Cruz, between Mexican federal troops and a detachment of American marines, served to make officials apprehensive tonight. The Mexicans demanded surrender of the water works supplying Vera Cruz. When refused, they fired a few scattering shots. General Funston, reporting tonight, in two dispatches to Secretary Garrison, mentioned no casualties.

A reinforced body of American troops is vigilantly guarding the water works and the railroad tonight. A renewal of the attack is feared although the Mexican forces withdrew after firing upon the American forces. Tejeria, where the incident occurred, is 11 miles distant from Vera Cruz.

The water works, which supply the entire city of Vera Cruz, are located there and have been carefully guarded since the American occupation. The plant's safety is vital to the health of all in the city and its destruction would seriously undermine the success of the seizure of Vera Cruz by the marines.

A dispatch received by Secretary Garrison from General Funston this afternoon stated that under a flag of truce the commander of the Mexican forces, a detachment of General Maass' army, sent a courier to the commander of two companies of marines, who have been guarding the water works. The Mexican commander demanded that the Americans surrender the water works and retreat from their position within 10 minutes. The message stated that 500 Mexican soldiers were then in sight, massed for a demonstration against the two companies of American marines.

With the two forces facing each other and desperate fears of an overwhelming attack, the American officer quickly refused to surrender.

Executive Offices in Tent for Summer

President Wilson Plans to Spend the Warm Days in the Open on White House Grounds.

(Special to The Journal.)
Washington, May 2.—President Wilson will soon install his executive offices for the summer in a tent just south of the main building of the White House. Anticipating an all-summer siege in Washington, the president declared he could not remain indoors. The tent idea was suggested to him and he placed the order immediately.

The new offices will be situated in the beautiful flower garden between the White House proper and the executive offices on one of the highest points in the grounds. It will be equipped with a telephone, push buttons, electric lights, tables, chairs and every other office convenience. President Wilson will receive all his callers in the tent and it is possible the formal cabinet meetings will be done away with and his advisers will group about him informally whenever he desires to confer with them.

President Wilson will not sleep in the tent as the White House grounds are said to be quite malarial, especially in late July and August. Arrangements have been perfected for open air sleeping quarters under the roof of the White House. There he will be protected from mosquitoes and other summer insects and at the same time get the breezes if there are any.

Mrs. Borden Again Is Seeking Divorce

Wife of Condensed Milk Manufacturer Begins New Suit, Charging Desertion; Wants Child.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 2.—Mrs. Helen M. Borden, wife of Gail Borden, millionaire condensed milk manufacturer, today began a new suit for divorce and for the custody of her 18-year-old daughter, Ramona, who three years ago attracted national attention as the "poor little rich girl."

Mrs. Borden was refused a divorce in 1911 by Judge Houser. She applied to the supreme court, but was unsuccessful.

The suit begun today charges Borden with desertion. No alimony is asked. It was stated that an attempt had been made to obtain a property settlement out of court.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden have been separated for years. It was this separation that drew attention to the daughter. Borden placed the young woman in an eastern school and surrounded her with all the luxuries that money could buy.

She was taken, slightly ill and was placed in a sanitarium. She escaped and was finally found in Los Angeles with her mother.

May Be Lineup Monday on Toll Bill

Senator Borah Expected to Press a Roll Call on His Resolution Presented Late This Afternoon.

Washington, May 2.—A lineup on the tolls repeal bill in the senate will be obtained Monday if Senator Borah presses a roll call on his resolution introduced late this afternoon delaying the vote on the bill itself until after the November election. By fighting against the reference of the resolution to a committee where it probably will be buried until after the toll fight was over, a count of noses will be obtained. It is thought this is what Borah is after.

His resolution provides that no vote shall be taken to repeal the tolls exemption until after a referendum has been made by the people, which he says will be done automatically at the elections in November.

White House Silent On Wedding Plans

Miss Eleanor Wilson Has Taken Into Her Confidence, Only Few of Her Most Intimate Friends; Few Guests.

Washington May 2.—With the fourteenth White House wedding just five days off society tonight was still vainly trying to find out just what sort of ceremony would unite Miss Eleanor Wilson, youngest daughter of the president, to Secretary of the Treasury William Gibbs McAdoo. The White House was silent on the plans. Miss Wilson has taken only a few intimate friends into her confidence. Her plans are complete.

It was understood that the wedding would take place at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, in the famous blue room of the White House. Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the president, will be her sister's only attendant, and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, United States navy, President Wilson's aide, will be best man. An official hint gave it as a very soft satin and lace of the more conservative type of present styles, with a V shaped neck and long sleeves of lace.

Less than four score guests will witness the ceremony—the family of the couple, members of the cabinet and Mrs. Marshall and a few very intimate friends.

Deeded Hotel for California Terrace

H. T. Griffith of Portland Gave 30-Acre Hotel Here for Seven Lots in Santa Rosa and Is Sorry.

Santa Rosa, Cal., May 2.—H. T. Griffith, a Portland hotelman, who recently bargained off a 30-acre hotel for seven lots at "Cloverdale Terrace," in this county, with a man he met in the northern city, arrived here to find that he had been bamboozled and that the piece of land on a hill fastness in the extreme northern part of the county was only fit for grazing and practically worthless. He retraced his steps to Portland and will either get back his property there or make things hot for the man who misrepresented things. Griffiths is not the first man who has been wronged over the same land.

Asks Chamberlain to Aid His Own Bill

Mrs. Dunway Urges Him to Support the Bristow Measure Giving Suffrage—He Drew the Original.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, D. C., May 2.—Replying to a telegram from Abigail Scott Dunway, inspired by a luncheon party in honor of Emma Smith, president of the National Council of Women voters, Senator Chamberlain assures Mrs. Dunway he will vote and work for the Bristow bill to give suffrage to women. There's a humorous feature to this for the Bristow bill is a copy of a bill Senator Chamberlain introduced at the beginning of the session, so that Mrs. Dunway is earnestly beseeching Senator Chamberlain to stand by his own bill.

Mediators Ask Three Factions to Send Representatives to Washington to Reach Basis for Bringing Mexican Affair to End

United States, Huerta and Carranza Asked to Unite in Drawing Up Peace Proposals—Mediators Said to Agree Huerta Must Go.

(By John E. Nevin, United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., May 2.—The outlook here for permanent peace in Mexico seemed improved tonight. The South American mediators have cleared the decks for action. They have decided to bring all of the United States—together, Carranza and the United States—together. From such a conference they hope to work out a general agreement whereby constitutional government will be restored in Mexico and a president elected who can be universally recognized.

The preliminary work is out of the way. The envoys themselves have worked out a plan of action. They will now submit this to the representatives of Huerta, Carranza and the United States for approval or disapproval. It is unlikely negotiations which can be carried on the initial proposition, but it is pointed out that it will form a real basis for negotiations which can be carried on under such restrictions as the mediators shall determine. Counter proposals can be made and the entire problem thoroughly threshed out.

The three representatives of the South American countries who are acting as mediators, are sending out Secretary Bryan at considerable length this afternoon. Tonight the following statement was issued:

"The mediators have delivered to this government and are sending out to General Huerta and General Carranza requests that representatives be appointed to confer with the mediators."

The mediators refused to add anything to this statement at this time. Secretary Bryan likewise was mute, stating that this reported all that could be announced for the present. He refused to say whether he or some one else would represent the United States or discuss where the mediation conference would be continued.

It is reported here that either John Lind, John Bassett Moore, David J. Hill or Hannis Taylor will be the American conferees in mediation and that the board will meet in Cuba or Canada.

The question of whether this action on the part of the mediators did not constitute a formal recognition of Huerta was also evaded by the secretary, who insisted that this was some-

TENT COLONY SET ON FIRE BY MILITIAMEN

Coroner's Jury Finds Soldiers or Mine Guards Responsible for Death of Women and Children at Ludlow.

Trinidad, Colo., May 2.—Responsibility for the killing of two women and 11 children in the destruction of the Ludlow tent colony of strikers two weeks ago was laid directly at the door of the militia and mine guards this afternoon by a jury which conducted the inquest called by Coroner Sykes. The jury returned a verdict that Mrs. Petra Valdez, Mrs. Cedelma Costa and 11 children "died through fire or asphyxiation, or both, from a fire set by militiamen under Major P. H. Hamrock and Lieutenant K. E. Lindbergh or mine guards, or both."

A second verdict was returned stating that Alfred Martin, militiaman, Louis Tikas and six strikers, killed at Ludlow, "died from bullet wounds received at a battle between militia, mine guards and strikers." The verdict did not state whether the strikers were shot by militiamen or the Ludlow militia.

FEDERALS ORDERED TO STOP OPERATIONS

War Minister Blanquet Directs General Maas to Cease Military Operations for Recovery of Vera Cruz.

Mexico City, May 2.—War Minister Blanquet tonight issued orders to General Maas, commanding the Mexican federal forces near Vera Cruz, immediately to cease all military operations looking toward the recovery of the seaport now occupied by General Huerta's fighting Fifth brigade of regular marines.

The same order contained instructions for General Maas to suspend his army throughout the republic to suspend further mobilization of forces. Minister Blanquet explained that the order was a result of the agreement of an armistice.

Railroad Treasury Looted by Federals

Took $150,000 From Tehuantepec National Offices Following Fall of Vera Cruz, Say American Refugees.

New York, May 2.—Mexican federal soldiers helped themselves to $150,000 they found in the offices of the Tehuantepec National railway after the fall of Vera Cruz, according to William B. Ryan, vice president of the road, who with 33 other refugees arrived here today on the liner Oregon. The men of the party were in working clothes, and the four women and eight children wore the clothes they were in when they started their flight.

Ryan said that when the news of Vera Cruz spread through distant sections, threats of bloody reprisals were made. Ryan and the others of his party, all employees of the railway, were arrested by rurales and to be shot under the law of flight, when intervention by the British consul saved them.

SIX THOUSAND WOMEN MARCH FOR SUFFRAGE

They Cheerfully Face a Chill Lake Breeze in Typical Chicago Spring Day, for Votes for Women Spectacle

(United Press Landed Wire.)
Chicago, May 2.—Six thousand women, drawn from every rank and file in Chicago, this afternoon silently marched for two miles in view of over 100,000 spectators along the lake front on Michigan avenue, as a demonstration of their faith in universal suffrage.

Society leaders, scrub women, coeds from the University of Chicago, and Northwestern, waitresses, old, care-worn, toothless women, rosy-cheeked girls, little children and negroes were a part of the motley crowd in line.

MENTION OF SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN'S NAME BRINGS LOUD CHEERS

National Suffrage Rally at Lincoln High School Is Rousing Affair.

The climax of last night's national suffrage rally at the Lincoln High school was an ovation for Senator George E. Chamberlain. Other candidates who spoke received their need of applause and favor, but it needed but the bare mention of Chamberlain's name by E. F. Irvine, who spoke in his stead, to bring forth a volume of cheers and applause that continued for nearly five minutes.

"The man who placed national suffrage on the map needs no promise from me," said Mr. Irvine. "His performance is his pledge."

Mr. Irvine showed how Senator Chamberlain as a young man of 23, back in 1840, advocated woman suffrage, how he had fought for it in this state until the women were finally given the vote, and now, on April 7, 1914, he had introduced senate joint resolution providing for a constitutional amendment granting the right of franchise to women, and how in March last he spoke for the national suffrage cause and eulogized Abigail Scott Dunway on the floor of the senate.

All Shades Represented.
The applause for Chamberlain was unequivocally a demonstration, although all shades of political opinion were represented at the meeting. Mr. Irvine devoted a large portion of his remarks to a review of the wrongs of the whole evening. It was not votes for "us" women, but rather votes for "you" women, a pledge of support to the women who are the stars on the suffrage cause, and the unfortunate of other states.

Dr. Esthel Pohl-Lovejoy presided, while the candidates were introduced by the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, Mrs. T. B. Neuhausen for the Progressives and Miss Emma Wolf, former president of the College Equal Suffrage League, for the Republicans. The "congressmen-to-be" were taken (Continued on Page Four, Column Two)

Is Minister's Son Leader of Bandits?

"Jinks" Starling Has Been Keeping Bank Company and Is Accused of Bank Robbery.

(Special to The Journal.)
Little Rock, Ark., May 2.—Is J. J. Starling, better known as "Jinks" Starling, a bandit, or has he fallen under suspicion by reason of association with a notorious gang of robbers? That is the question which the courts are endeavoring to answer. Starling is the son of a minister residing at Coweta, Oklahoma. If all the talk about "Jinks" Starling is true, he is a most daring leader of a band of robbers.

He was only a few days ago acquitted at Washington, Ark., of a charge of having assisted in the robbery of the Bank of Fulton on the night of October 3, 1913. Immediately following his release from prison, he was rearrested on a charge of complicity in the robbery of the First State bank of Dardanelle and taken to the Little Rock penitentiary, where he is being held in connection with the robbery of the Dardanelle bank, headed by an elephant that carried the Stars and Stripes aloft only at the behest of a couple of sharpshooters, and the largest collection of men marching, 100 members of the Hamilton club being in line.

1000 Police Guard Route.
Fearing that attempts might be made to break up the line of march by factions in Chicago opposed to suffrage, the police department detailed 1000 patrolmen along the line of march. In addition there was a platoon of 60 patrolmen a short distance behind the "presidential escort" of mounted police. There was no trouble. The costumes of the women were more and more than striking because of their dissimilarity. Middle class, riding habits, women's secret society regalia, ordinary street clothes were seen. The police were impressed that Pandora's wardrobe had been exhausted by the last garment to give away.

A negro women's band, one of the 20 musical organizations that marched, led with Scottish bagpipers in kilts for first fiddlers. The procession was (Continued on Page Four, Column Three)
