BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN HAVE VOLLEY BALL TOURNAMENT

Banquet scene preceding volley ball tournament of Y. M. C. A.

Business and professional men who are regular participants in the gymnasium activities of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association, held a rally last Thursday night that was remarkable for the large number attending and the enthusiasm shown.

Letters From the People. (Communications sent to the Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 100 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender. If the writer does not desire to have the name published, he should so state.)

A German Woman Protests. Portland, May 2.—To the Editor of the Journal—I would like to answer some of the questions asked of April 27, as I know very well we do not pay taxes to keep up the churches. But what I mean, the churches take our and the children's money that is made in the liquor business. I do not know of one church that refuses the money, but always asks for more, and as to the writer saying we could send our children to private schools, perhaps we are not all financially able to do that.

Pupil Pleads for Playtime. Portland, May 2.—To the Editor of the Journal—I am a pupil in one of the Portland schools. I have to take my books home nearly every night, and I also practice music. I practice music one hour and a half and I do my home work for school for one hour. I get very little time to play. I have to do other things besides the ones mentioned. Roosevelt said, "Work while you work, and play while you play." I work in my school, and when I am out of school I ought to be free, but such is not the case. I wish this would come to an end, as I like to go out evenings. Yours truly, A. PUPL.

Homestead Right Limits. North Bend, Or., April 19.—To the Editor of the Journal—Is a man's homestead right exhausted when he filed prior to 1907? Is a man's right gone when he commuted on a homestead in 1907? J. N. HARKNESS.

Portland, May 2.—To the Editor of the Journal—Just a few lines in reply to a few of the prohibitionist letters appearing in your columns of today.

If C. M. F. was reared in an atmosphere noted for its "chivalry toward women" he has lost the effects of such training for in his remarks regarding Ella M. Finney he does not "sharply disagree" but on the contrary is positively scurrilous.
