Nebraskans to Pionic .- By unanimous vote last night the Portland Nebraska society decided to participate in the annual picnic to be given in June by the former Nebraskans of Newberg. The invitation to the Port-land people was extended through E. W. Mosher, president of the local organization. A program of music fea-tured last night gathering, which was held at Cotillion hall. The society expects to participate in the parade attending the opening of the public market, with several automobile loads of one-time residents of the goldenrod state. John Manning explained his Oregon, and dancing followed the forprogram. The society meets

The meeting will be free and nicipal Judge Stevenson to reopen the open to all men, but those desiring to case and allow Mosher his freedom, attend should notify R. E. Randall, Deputy District Attorney Deich strong- religious work director of the associaly opposed the move declaring that Mosher was paid to protect property, was an officer of the law, and pleaded guilty to taking the lumber. Reasons advanced for the deputy constable's release are that his wife needs his support and that he has been punished sufficiently. Deputy Deich insisted that Mosher has always esaped trouble by having friends, which influence has spoiled him, therefore he should be required to serve his entire time. Judge Stevenson took the matter under advisement.
