Secretary of the Interior Tells House Committee He Is Opposed to Paying Corporations Unearned Increment.

Washington, May 6.—Secretary of the Interior Lane told the house committee on public lands today that he was opposed to paying to corporations the unearned increment on the properties if the government takes over the hydro-electric plants 50 years hence, as provided in the Ferris bill.

If the government purchases the plants, he explained, he thought it should pay only what they were worth today, plus a reasonable profit to the investors. In support of his argument he cited an instance in which Great Northern railroad engineers raised the price of Montana lands which the government sought by $75,000,000. Defense At-torney Martin Manton moved that District Attorney Whitman be declared in contempt because of alleged interviews given to newspapers prejudician to Becker's cause.

Justice Seabury denied the motion seeking to declare Prosecutor Whitman in contempt of court. The ruling followed a scathing speech by Bourke Cohkran, in which he flayed Whitman fiercely. Mrs. Becker, the defendant's wife, was the only woman in the courtroom. District Attorney Whitman denied that he had given improper matter to the newspapers. He said that Becker both in the Tombs here and in Sing Sing prison, had given out statements prejudicial to the people's case.
