BIG SHOW TO BE STAGED

Essay Contest Heralds Approach of Sells-Ploto Circus Which Will Bemain in Portland Two Days.

for his contributions to the magazines. Years of experience is, of course, behind that price. Yet here is an opporlunity to get nearly 10 cents a word for your writing-and you don't even have to be a contributor to a Sunday School weekly. As to the reason; Monday and Tuesday, May 18 and 19, there will echo the shout of the cowboy, there will sound the sizzling swing of the lariat and the snort of the 'unbroken horse" in a great tent out at Twenty-sixth and Raleigh streets. Buffalo Bill will be there. with his riders and ropers and sol diers and Indians as a part of the Sells-Floto circus and Buffalo Bill (himself) which is coming to Portland for a two days stay.

And because of the interest in the famous scout, The Journal is holding a contest for the best essays on the subject, "Buffalo Bill-What Has He Done for America?" And those essays are pouring in t the office of The Journal now. The prizes are worth seeking, a first prize of $15, second prize of $12.50, a third of $7.50 and a fourth of $5. Fifteen fourth prizes of two reserved seat tickets each to the Sells Floto-Buffalo Bill show and 26 prizes of one ticket each. It seems that plenty of persons in Portland want them. And there is another incentive also.
