

IT LOOKS BAD FOR BOBBY DAVIS WITH BANCROFT HITTING THAT WAY

BANCROFT'S BINGLES GREATEST HELP FOR BEAVERS IN VICTORY

Derrick and Fisher Hit Behind Fleet-Footed Shortstopper and Game Is 5-4.

THIRD WIN FOR MARTINONI

Slipping Portlanders Hit Like Blazes Behind Tall Securit Pitcher From Northwestern League.

Los Angeles, May 12.—Fleetfooted Dave Bancroft, shunted into the shortstop position by Manager McCredie, while Bobby Davis is taking a rest, proved a menace yesterday with his four hits in four times up, including two triples, and he, with the aid of Derrick's home run, won the game from the hold-over Angels, 5 to 4. It was called in on Derrick's out, Los Angeles club catch a train for northern California. The Angels victory made the count four to three, which is not so bad considering that the Beavers are away from home.

Musser and Martinoni started the game, but were called during the heat of the battle. Perritt finished up for Musser and West took Marty's place in the seventh, when the sapling, wobbling, Bancroft began his deadly hitting right off the reel. He smashed a triple down the right field line and his speed enabled him to reach third. He did not attempt to come in on Derrick's out, Johnson to Abstein, but was able to trot home when Doane raised a long fly to Weller.

Portland made another run in the second, when Ryan started with a single and stole second, Musser fanned Kores, but Lober worked him for a walk, Fisher was there with a double and Ryan scored. Lober straddled third base in rounding the bag and was called out. Brooks threw Fisher out stealing third.

After Martinoni fanned in the third, Bancroft cracked out his second triple and it was an easy matter to score on Derrick's inside home run. It was a low, hard liner to left field and when Ellis came tearing in the ball eluded him and rolled out to the long left field fence. The fleet-footed Derrick did not have to put on a full head of speed to circle the bases. This blow, followed by Doane's single, knocked Musser out of the box and Perritt took up the work.

With two out in the fourth, Maggart was safe on Martinoni's error. Abstein tripled and scored Maggy and Ab came in on Ellis' single. Sawyer singled and Ellis went to third. He was picked off by Fisher on a sharp throw to Kores.

The Beavers made their fifth run in the seventh. Lober fanned and Fisher singled, but was forced by Martinoni. Bancroft singled and so did Derrick, the latter scoring Martinoni. Doane singled but was forced by Rodgers.

In the seventh Sawyer fanned, but Johnson walked and Brooks and Perritt singled. Scoring Johnson. West replaced Martinoni and Weller walked. Page forced Weller, Brooks scoring. Rodgers threw Maggart out and the scoring was over. With two out and one on first, for Los Angeles, the game was called.

PORTLAND'S NEWEST PITCHING HOPE

First pictures printed in Portland of Elmer Reiger, the Los Angeles boy Manager Walter McCredie purchased from the St. Paul club of the American association to help the Beavers climb toward the top of the percentage column. Reiger is a right hander and last year won more games than the St. Paul club, which finished near the bottom of the race. He is an experienced pitcher and ought to add considerable strength to the Beaver pitching department.

ANDERSON IS OFF FOR BARRIEAU BOUT TOMORROW

Vancouver Scrapper Says His Workouts Convince Him of Shape.

Bud Anderson will leave tomorrow at midnight for Vancouver, B. C., where he will begin preparation for his 15-round fight with Frank Barrieau Monday night, May 25. It will be Bud's first trip across the line and he is looking forward to it with much interest. It will also be his second meeting with Barrieau, whom he knocked out in 10 rounds at Vernon last winter.

Anderson will work out again this afternoon with Kendall, the big heavyweight, at the latter's gym in Woodlawn. Yesterday he boxed eight rounds with Kendall, two with Frank Dupuis and three with Harry Goat.

When he returns from the Barrieau fight Bud will take his mother on a trip to California, where he will take in the Coulton-Williams fight at Los Angeles next month, trade his old car for a new one and make a short tour of the southern state. He says he feels better than at any time since his appendicitis operation and is fast losing weight.

Tarilton Rolls Up 102 Runs at Cricket

Friday Rain Puts Wicket in Fine Shape and Churchley's Team Wins by 26 Runs.

A. J. Tarilton made the highest score yet recorded on a Portland cricket field, when he rolled up 102 points in a single innings. The game was played at the Portland Cricket park, sixty-seventh and Oregon streets Sunday. He was on the side captained by J. J. Churchley and his team won by 26 runs. The wicket was in splendid shape after the light rain on Friday. Score:

Cross Nears Frisco.

San Francisco, May 12.—Leach Cross was scheduled to reach San Francisco either today or tomorrow for his clash here the latter part of the month with Red Watson. Cross' bout with Watson will make his first appearance here since he was knocked out several years ago by "Fighting Dick" Hyland, after 46 rounds of fighting.

WILLIE RITCHIE GETS WHAT HE ASKS FOR BOUT

Andrews Told Him to Whip Murphy and Then He Could Demand.

By Hal Sheridan.
New York, May 12.—Willie Ritchie is referred to in New York as "that able bodied financier from San Francisco." Not only has the lightweight champion shown that he is able to hold up his end from a financial standpoint but he has convinced his enemies that he is a genuine fighter as well. And what a chance of the California crack-neck drying pool.

Middle west newspapers panned Ritchie to a fare-you-well for his demands for a Milwaukee meeting with Charley White. The fact remains, however, that he got just what he asked for and no more, and Harry Stout, the Milwaukee referee, says he is worth every cent he has made.

When Ritchie fought Wolgast in Milwaukee he received 40 per cent of a $40,000 house, or $16,000. After the battle he was asked by Promoter Andrews to come back after he had fought Harlem Tommy Murphy in San Francisco and fight Charley White.

"All right, Mr. Andrews," he answered. "I'll come back but you'll have to do a little better from a financial standpoint than you did in the Wolgast bout."

"There won't be any hitch over finances," said Andrews, "with the privilege of accepting 50 per cent." He also demanded traveling and training expenses for two. Then certain sporting writers got busy with their hammer and likened the champion to Jesse James in the latter's palmy days.

Ritchie sat tight, however, and he got the $10,000 guarantee, with the privilege of accepting 50 per cent and traveling and training expenses for two. He did not ask the club to dig into Charley White's pockets and has been reported. Even Tom Andrews admits this.

Nevertheless they are admitting in Gotham that Willie Ritchie is some financial genius and again it may be remarked that the champion is not going to die poor.

Wolgast Asks Court To Hold Up Property

Former Champion Wants Rights Fixed in Property Worth at Least $20,000; Injunction Asked.

Venice, Cal., May 12.—Ad Wolgast, former lightweight pugilistic champion of the world, is a joint plaintiff today in a civil action involving property here worth at least $20,000. The fighter and his associates seek to enjoin the defendants in the suit from until the interests of the plaintiffs are fixed by the court. The plaintiffs allege that they agreed to pay $21,000 for one-fifth interest in property represented to be worth $105,000, but they claim the actual value was but $92,000.

San Francisco, May 12.—Accompanied by his manager, A. McLean, Gilbert Gallant is en route today for Boston, where he has been offered a May date for a 12 round bout with either Marty Blakey or Eddie Murphy. In case Gallant is wanted here in an elimination contest Promoter Coffroth is staging. McLean promised to return immediately to San Francisco with his charge.

BATTING AVERAGES

RITCHIE WHIPPED MURPHY and whipped him decisively. Then, a few weeks later, Andrews wired for his terms. "I want a $10,000 guarantee," wired Ritchie, "with the privilege of accepting 50 per cent."

That a batting average of .300 or better does not necessarily mean that the player in question is of any particular value in driving in runs is shown by the following list of players who boasted a batting average in the .300 class for ten or more games in the first five weeks, together with the number of runs they have driven in. Some of the players in the above list are repeated, but there are several with better batting averages who have not driven in ten runs.

Portland—Kores, 20; Ryan, 17.
Los Angeles—Ellis, 19; Page, 13; Maggart, 11; Abstein, 11.
Oakland—Ness, 12; Hetting, 11; Cook, 11.

Seattle, Wash., May 12.—Seattle won an easy game from the Tigers yesterday by the score of 9 to 1. Dell of the locals allowed five hits, while the Giants made a dozen off four of McGinnity's twirlers. Seattle scored five runs in the eighth inning. The batting of Killian, who made four hits in four times up, was a feature. The score:

JERRY DOWNS FOLLOWS IN SECOND PLACE, TENNANT THIRD AND KORES FOURTH.

BEST ONES NOT DRIVERS

Dick Bayless of Hap Hogan's Tigers led the league in the number of runs driven in for the first five weeks of the 1914 coast league race. Bayless drove 25 runs across the plate by hits, sacrifices, or infield outs, the latter being included in the count because of the fact that there is more or less skill required to place the ball so that there will be no play possible at the plate, even though the batter may not be able to fatten his own batting average with a safe hit.

Second to Bayless with his 25 runs driven in came Jerry Downs of the San Francisco Seals with 23 runs punted in. Tommy Tennant of the Sacramento Wolves came third on the list with 21 runs driven in, and Dutch Kores of the Portland Beavers, who drove in 20 runs in the first five weeks, was the only other player to reach the 20 mark.

Following are the players classified by clubs who are credited with driving ten or more runs in the first five weeks:
Venice—Bayless, 25; Leard, 16; Borton, 14; Elliott, 14; Kane, 13; Melan, 10; McArdie, 10.
San Francisco—Downs, 23; Schaller, 19; Mundorff, 18; Corhan, 16; Howard, 11; Tobin, 10.
Sacramento—Tennant, 21; no other players above the ten mark, although Moran, Shinn, Hallinan, Coy and Mohler were closely bunched, the first two with nine each, and the last three with eight each.

Chicago, May 12.—"We would be tickled to death to get him," said Charles H. Weeghman, owner of the Chicago Federal league baseball club, today, discussing a report that Ty Cobb, the sensational batsman and base runner of the Detroit Americans, was about to jump to the outlaws. "However, I know nothing of such a deal, and I don't think Manager Joe 'inker does, either."

WEEGHMAN WANTS COBB

"SNOWY" BAKER LEAVING TODAY FOR AUSTRALIA

Fight Promoter Reaches Understanding With Bob McAllister for Trip.

San Francisco, May 12.—After six months of travel in the United States and Europe, "Snowy" Baker, Australian fight promoter, will sail for Sydney today, on the steamer Sonoma. Baker has practically reached an understanding with Bob McAllister and the latter will sail for Australia within two months.

Baker yesterday received a cablegram informing him of the victories of two American boxers in Australian arenas. Young Saylor of Indianapolis knocked out Hughie Mehegan in the twelfth round, and Eddie McGoorty stopped Jerry Jerome, Australian negro middleweight, in the sixth round. Young Saylor has now knocked out Mehegan twice.

Baker also announced that Jimmy Clabby's first engagement in Australia has been postponed to June 6. Jeff Smith, the American middleweight, will be Clabby's opponent.
