In making the foregoing indorsements we have refrained from mentioning candidates where the number of candidates is less than the number of vacancies, or where there is only one candidate for an office. We have also refrained from making recommendations for many offices for the reason that we were unable to obtain sufficient information in regard to the candidates for such offices.

We have endeavored to recommend candidates who appeared, after investigation, to be the ones BEST QUALIFIED to fill such offices. Our failure to recommend any candidate does not imply any reflection on his integrity or standing.

WM. P. LORD

CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR

Attorney General

Wm. P. Lord announces his candi-facy for this office on a definite platform on something that means something to the people of the state Among other things, he pleages himself to enforce the public rights in waterfronts and tide-lands; to prosectify suits, to regain vast tracts of public land, wrested from the people, and to protect the rights of settlers on arid lands.

Mr. Lord further piedges almself to keep the office open at all times to the people and legislators alike, to furnish every assistance in formulating legislation for the reduction of taxation and the abolition of worthless commissions and offices.

No credit is due to an officer who has done his duty, whether for one year or for 18 years. He was paid to do his duty, and if he failed to enforce the laws he is defelict in nis duty.

What the people require of a candidate is a definate policy in the maintenance of the office, and Mr. Lord is a candidate who has made pledges to the people, which he will unswervingly fulfill.
