Americans left today in the competition for the amateur golf championship of Great Britain. Francis Ouimet, on whom the hopes of many Americans rested, was eliminated during the morning round when he was defeated, 2 up, by Tubbs. A. C. Lockwood also lost to Hayward, 2 up and one to play, Americans' spirits were revived, however, when Evans defeated Scott, of Park Langley, 3 up and 2 to play, and Webber decisively defeated K. M. Carlisle 7 up and 6 to play. Fred Herreshoff followed with the defeat of J. R. Platt, 4 up and 3 to play. The afternoon round opened with three Americans left. M. Scott quickly eliminated Herreshoff, however, i up, in a contest which was not decided until the eighteenth hole was played. Webber continued to play sterling golf this afternoon and defeated Merriot, an Englishman, 2 up.

Outside of the American play, interest centered today in the match between John Brill, eight times British amateur champlon, and Hambro. The match was all square at the eighteenth hole was all was all square at the eighteenth hole was all w
