"Afternoon report of preceding day.

Chauffeurs and Girls Arrested .- Elizabeth Spady was held to the grand jury yesterday afternoon from municipal court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of her 16-year-old

District Attorney Deich this morning in the municipal court advocated changing the city ordinance groverning pool rooms to exclude all minors in such places. Judge Stevenson said the change is needed. The question arose in the arrest of Walter O'Shea. 16 years old, who was arrested by Detective Smith for taking plumbing from a rear room in a pool room at 727 Williams avenue. O'Shea said the plumbing was found outside the room. He sold the material for 10 cents, although it is worth $5. "The trouble with practically every boy that comes into the court can be traced to his habit of loafing around pool rooms," said Deputy Deich. "Loitering around such places causes laziness, and leads to stealing." O'Shea was placed on parole to the parole officer.

Girl Loses Way .- Ellen Bolton, 11 years old, came to Portland yesterday on an errand for her mother. The girl was unable to find her way back home. and is cared for by the department of safety for women. She lives with her mother and uncle about three miles from the city, which way she is unable to tell. The girl says her mother was busy yesterday and sent her to buy some blue silk for a dress she is making. This was the girl's first trip to Portland alone. Being unable to find her way last evening, she wandered around Montavilla until some one on East Eighty-fourth street north cared for her during the night, turning her over this morning to the police,

Each day, beginning tomorrow, 250 feet of films taken of the various parades and other features of the Festival will be shown at each performance. Each day a new film will be offered. In addition, there will be a splendld bill of photo plays .- (Adv.)
