

OREGON KID II WINS MILE FROM WOLF IV IN TIME OF 1:24 1-5

Young Wilbur Smith Pilots New Sensation of Willamette in Faultless Style.

OARSMEN IN GOOD FORM

Work in Carnival Shows They Will Be Northwest Contenders — Kierman Surprise of Swimming Meet.

Traveling a mile in one minute 24 1-5 seconds, the "Oregon Kid II" defeated Johnny Wolff's "Oregon Wolf IV" in the feature event of the great water carnival ever staged in the northwest. Wilbur Smith's 20 footer, which bids fair to become as famous as the "Oregon Kid," which won the national 32-foot championship at Chicago last summer, crossed the finishing line 54-5 seconds ahead of the Wolff boat, although the "Oregon Wolf IV" had considerable of a lead at the start of the event.

Wilbur Smith, the 16-year-old son of Milton Smith, was at the wheel of the "Kid" and Al Klingbeil, who piloted the "Van Blerck" last year, was the mechanic.

The canoe events attracted a great deal of attention and the finishes were close. The cutter races between the crews of the U. S. Boston and the steamer Beaver were close and exciting, being won by the latter.

The rowing races showed that the local oarsmen would be contenders for the Pacific Northwest championship in the regatta to be staged in the Willamette river on July 10 and 11. Captain Pfander defeated E. O. Gloss in the sculling race, by about a boat's length.

The swimming race attracted a great deal of attention. The surprise was the victory of Frank Kierman in the 100 yard race over Johnny McMurray and Ernest Crueger of Spokane. Kierman's time was 1:04 1-5. Norman Rosa won the titles in the 200, 500 and 800 yard swims. The other entrants in these events did not give Rosa any competition at all.

Clair Tait won the fancy diving championship and Douglas, second, won the honors in the junior fancy diving. These two events were the most popular of the swimming end of the program.

Tait and Preble gave an exhibition of surfless surf board riding. The board was towed by George Kendall's Styph and the speed of this boat resulted in a great exhibition of the latest aquatic event on the river.

The results: Rowing—Singles, A. Pfander defeated E. O. Gloss. Doubles—Hansen and Wylde, first; Reising and D. Cooper, second, and Gloss and Dyrland, third. Four oared crews—Lewellyn, bow; Hochuli, 2; Bates, 2, and Fabre, stroke, first boat; McDonald, bow; Pridoux, 2; McPaul, 2, and Mathena, stroke, second boat over the line.

Canoeing—Singles—Harry Gammie defeated Colister Wheeler. Doubles, men—Gammie and Virgil Hamlin, first. Four oared—Wheeler, Humphries, Bremner and Lawrence, second; Arthur Allen, Reising, Hansen and Dyrland, second. Mixed doubles—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartman, Oregon Yacht club, first.

Swimming—100 yard, coast championship—Kierman, Multnomah, first; McMurray, Multnomah, second, and Crueger, Spokane, third. Time, 1:04 1-5. 100 yards, junior race—Wright, Multnomah, first; Shea, Multnomah, second, and Heppinger, Multnomah, third. Time, 1:18.

200 yard—Ross, Multnomah, first; McMurray, Multnomah, second; Pautz, Multnomah, third. Time, 2:50 1-5. 500 yard race—Ross, Multnomah, first; Howard, Multnomah, second. Time, 7:47.

800 yards—Ross, Multnomah, first, and Cole, Multnomah, second. Fancy diving—Clair Tait, Multnomah, first; Spamer, Multnomah, second.

VISITING TOURISTS GIVEN ROSES ON ARRIVAL HERE

Member of United Artisans pinning bloom on traveler at depot.

Visitors arriving on the trains at the Union depot this morning were each surprised to be given a rose by a young girl as they stepped from the depot. The flowers were gifts of young women of the United Artisans. The sign "free roses" caused astonishment, and many a tourist went on his way with an expression of wonderment.

This work was kept up all day, the great baskets of roses dwindling rapidly whenever one of the heavily loaded trains came into the depot. It supplied with roses, the United Artisans propose to keep a rose guard on duty until Friday evening.

Today the following committee served: Mrs. C. M. Dearing, Mrs. Ella Watt, Norma Kimmel, Ruth Kinnean, Regina Hyatt, Carrie Hunt, Essie Shinn, Mildred Ryan, Irene Ralcey, Jeannette Ralcey, Marie Sallsbury, Bessie Kraeger, Ruby Thirkill, Lilly Lipkey, Mildred Lipkey, Nancy Huntley, Norma Durdich.

Festival as a rest room. Everybody is welcome. This afternoon an organ recital is being given in the church by Daniel H. Wilson.

THRESHERMEN AT FEAST
Concluding the two day convention of the Oregon Threshermen's association, a banquet was held last night in the main dining room of the Commercial club. A. H. Averill, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, was toastmaster, and informal talks were given by Dan Kauffman of Hubbard, president of the association; A. E. Flint of Hillsboro, W. H. Fletcher of McMinnville and others. About 100 threshermen and their wives were in attendance.

Greeting Ball Brilliant Success
A new feature of the Rose Festival, the popular greeting ball, given last night at the hall of Multnomah camp, No. 77, Woodmen of the World, East Sixth and East Alder streets, under the auspices of the Woodmen, the East Side Business Men's club and the Rose Festival association, proved a brilliant success. The hall was crowded with couples dancing in the Festival gayeties and was prettily decorated with roses and the Festival colors.

The grand march at 10:30 p. m. was led by Queen Theima and her maids, who had as their partners W. J. Hoffmann, prince regent of Rosaria; C. C. Colt, president of the board of governors of the Rose Festival; George L. Baker, Captain Robert Krohn and other Rosarian and Festival notables.

REST ROOM FOR VISITORS
For the benefit of home folks and visitors alike the Unitarian church, at Yamhill and Broadway, will be kept open every afternoon during the Rose Festival.

An Important Sale of New Fancy Tailored Suits Has Arranged for Thursday At $15.00

For Our Regular $25.00 to $35.00 Models

—That these suits are new in style and newly made, they deem of greater importance in this announcement than the fact that the price is exceptional.

—Many of these styles are quite like those worn at the French race tracks this Spring and it was at these race meets that the Parisiennes appeared in the styles that have received approval for Summer.

—Such styles are possible in this sale because these suits of imported serges, crepes and checks are adaptations of the latest modes from Paris.

—We show these suits in black, navy blue, Copenhagen, tango, reseda and tan. Each suit is beautifully lined and becomingly trimmed. —Third Floor.
