

HIGH SPOTS AMONG FESTIVAL FEATURES CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA

1—Miss Thelma Hollingsworth, in her royal robes as queen of Portland's eighth annual Rose Festival. 2—Scene at the coronation of Queen Thelma Tuesday afternoon; C. C. Colt, president of the Rose Festival Association, at left, and W. F. Hoffman, prince regent of Rosaria. 3—Decorated automobile of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, winner of first prize in touring car section in floral parade Wednesday. 4—Rose decked car of Mrs. A. G. Riddell which was awarded first prize for cars dressed in roses and greens. 5—"The Bailey Gatzert" near the Stark street dock Tuesday noon with Queen Thelma and her royal court and guests. 6—Members of the Portland Hunt club who made a striking appearance in Wednesday afternoon's parade. 7—Looking north along Third street. 8—Some of Queen Thelma's attendants at Tuesday's coronation ceremonies. 9—Queen Thelma and maids being escorted through Festival Center by Mayor Albee and J. A. Currey of the Rose Festival association. 10—Delegation of Seattle Tillkums with Mayor Hi Gill (in center of group with arm in sling) who were festival visitors Wednesday. 11—A delegation of "Little Shavers" in the Human Rosebud parade Thursday morning.